church, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. ADMITTED TO PROBATE. - Thirty three deeds were admitted to probate, yesterday, by the Judge of the Probate Court. A very good showing for one day.

- James Doran was up before the Special Court, yesterday, on the charge of disorderly conduct, and was mulcted in the sum of $100 and costs for his indiscretien.

- Dawson Avenue wil sport a barber shop after the 1st of October Mr. T. J. Cowan will open in the froom lately occupied by R. J. Jones,

- Next Friday, the 1st of October, will be moving day, and a lively time is expected. Very many of our citizens will change their places of residence on that day, and business men will not be exempt from the usual stir and confusion on such occasions.

- Rev. H. L. Singleton was on our streets yesterday, having just returned from attendance on the Wilmington Presbytery, at South River Chapel, Bladen county. Ho will fill his pulpit at the 1st Presbyterian Church to-day.

- W. S. Gregory, who styles himself the "Champion Banjo-picker of the South," will, we understand, be in this city in the course of a week or ten days, and treat the public to some of his performances. He is now at Goldsboro.

SENT OFF.-James Blackwell, the pauper who was picked up on the streets a few days since, sick, was shipped on the Charlotte road, yesterday, to his home in Richmond county. A colored woman, who has been living at the expense of the county, was also sent off, Shoe Heal being her home and destination. 'As" we have plenty of paupers of our own to take care of, we think this a wise course on the part of our authorities.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.-Mr. S. VanAmringe, auctioneer, sold to the highest bidder, yesterday, the following piece of property: House and lot on Third, between Orange and Ann streets containing five rooms, for $1,100 cash. Dr. J. H. Freeman was the purchaser. Also, at private sale, the house and lot on Red Cross, between Second and Third Streets, containing seven rooms, for $3,100, cash-Mr. A. B. Shepperson, purchaser.

St. THOMAS' CHURCH.-To-day the Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons, of the Catholic church, will preach his farewell sermon before leaving for the General Conneil at Rome. This sermon will be delivered at high mass, 101 o'clock A. M. The Rev. Father N. A. Northrop, formerly located at this place, and well-known to our citizens, will deliver a discoure at Vespers, 5 o'clock P. M.

Several of the Diocese (Priests and Bishops) will be present during the day. A Good Hir.-An editor who seems to have lost his temper, gets off the following well-merited hit. We hope and believe there are not many such cases in Wilmington :- "Those poor fellows who don't take their home paper, watch them ! they are always on the alert on publication day, and when the papers come around to your place of business, are the first to snatch it up; failing in this, they read it over your shoulders, too impatient to demean themselves in a respectful manner. Spot these fellows. They are the small souled, stingy handful, who go through the world on other folks' money."

VELOCIPEPE RIDING.—Riding veocipedes on the side walks of our public streets may be a very pleasant amusement. No doubt it is. The payements are hard and solid, and present an inviting field for the lovers of the sport to exercise their superior ability and astonishing skill, But this is not exactly the question in order for discussion. Is it right to run a velocipede on the side-walk? Is it entirely safe to pedestrians, especially at night, when they are being driven at lightning speed along our most public thoroughfares? These are the questions for velocipede riders to answer, and questions which the public, with very few exceptions, have already answered in the negative. We have been informed by prominent gentlemen residing in the vicinity of the City Hall, that they have actually been compelled, from a proper regard for the safety of their families, to forbid their entering the streets, while persons have been indulging in this dangerous pastime ,for fear of being runlover by these "infernal machines."

> IMPORTANT TO PRINTERS.—The clear and beautiful impression we have been enabled to present to our readers for the last few days, was secured by using ink from the Agency of Mr. W. H.
