Lost His Money .- A gentleman from Anson county, by the name of John C. Henry, made complaint to the Marshal vesterday afternoon that some parties in a store on Water street had been the cause of his losing a sum of money. It seems that he went into the store for the purpose of settling an account which the proprietor held against him, which he done. reserving about twenty dollars with which to meet his expenses in returning home This money Mr. H. left lying on the counter while he examined the receipted bill which had been handed him, and in the meantime one of the clerks swept the money from the counter, remarking to a colored man standing by, "This is the money for the coat, is it?" To which the darkey replied, "yes." Mr. H. says he was confident at the time it was his money. but to make sure of the fact he walked to the door and examined his pocket-book and pockets and could find no money. He then demanded the same from the clerk, but met with a peremptory refusal, that individual stating that the money was paid him by the colored man, and the latter corroborating the assertion, Mr. Henry says he is certain the money taken by the clerk in his. He is well known in the city and his character is said to be above suspicion. The case will undergo an examination before Judge Cantwell this morning.

IMPROVEMENT IN PROSPECTIVE.-We are pleased to learn that Gen. Abbott has introduced a bill in the Senate, which the favorable consideration of the two houses of Congress.

CONDITION OF MR. LESSMAN,-We learn that so far, considering the character markably well. He continues in entire possession of his faculties, and when necessary can converse. His physician, however, requires him to be kept perfectly quiet and he is not allowed to see company. The great danger now seems to be in the liability of the wound to become inflamed, the present warm weather not being at all favorable to the case. For this reason more than any other, his physician cannot yet prenounce him out of

SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of Anderson Young on the Cape Fear Steam-boat Company, being an action brought to recover damages sustained by the plaintiff in the burning of his barn by sparks from one of the Company's steamers, as stated in yesterday's paper, was decided last evening, the jury bringing in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and fixing the damages at $5,000. Hon. George Davis appeared for the plaintiff, and Col. Robert Strange for the defendants,

Progressive.—Improvement is still the order of the day in the part of the city known as "Brooklyn." Buildings are continually going up, and several are now in course of construction. Persons who have not visited that locality in the sourse of the last year or two would be astonished at the change in the aspect of
