PROSPECTUS

THE Students of Davidson College, N. C.

The proposes issuing a Monthly Magazine, to be devoted to Literature, Science and Art.—
It will also contain the Speeches delivered annually, before the two Literary Societies. The Magazine will contain about forty pages, and otherwise, will be about the size of Blackwood's Magazine, It will be under the supervision of six members of the Senior Class.—
These are elected three from each Society.—
It will be their honest endeavor to see that nothing shall appear in the magazine which is not written in a chaste and elegant style.—
The magazine will be contributed to, from time to time, by some of the most eminent writers of this and other States. We earnestly solicit the co-operation of all those who have a desire to aid in building up a high standard of Southern Literature, and any contributions to this end, will be thankfully received.

Terms of Subscription:
Single subscriber, $2.00. A club of six, $10.00.

A club of twelve, $18.00.
