- Gold is down, and so are Goods at Fishblate & Bros., 23 Market

 There was no session of the city court yesterday, there being no cases on the docket awaiting trial.

Superior Court.—This Court did not meet vesterday, as had been announced, owing to the non-arrival of His Honor, Judge Russell.

---We would again remind our readers of the "Watch-night" at the Fifth Street M. E. Church (Rev. F. H. Wood, Pastor,) commencing this evening at 101

QUICK DISPATCH. - The steamship Fanita arrived from New York at 10 o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, discharged her cargo, and sailed on her return trip yesterday at 7 A. M.

-Messrs. Fishblate & Bros. have again received another large stock of Dry Goods, &c., which they offer both to wholesale and retail buyers at prices that defy competition.

- Yesterday was one of those mild, balmy, pleasant days, which are so irresistably charming that few can resist the inclination to let business, for the nonce, take care of itself, and go out and enjoy the invigorating breezes to their "heart's content." NATIONAL STATE

Auction Sale .- A lot of damaged goods, taken from the Steamship Lucille, comprising sugar, bacon, flour, guano, &c., will be sold to-day, at 12 o'clock, by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctioners, at the wharf of Messrs, A. B. Shepperson & Co. See advertisement.

COMMITTED TO JAIL. - Henry Sandlin, colored, of Rocky Point, Holden township, under a commitment issued by Justice J. S. Hines, was brought to this city yesterday and lodged in jail, in default of security, to await his trial at the next term of the Superior Court, on the charge of not providing for his child.

REPUBLICAN MEETING-We learn that a Republican meeting was held at the City | Hall Wednesday night, which was addressed by J. P. Sampson, J. C. Hill, Allen Denton and Geo. W. Price, Jr., all colored. It was determined to hold another meeting on Saturday night, for the purpose of ratifying the Republican nominations for Mayor and Board of SAD AFFLICTION .- From a friend who received a dispatch from Goldsboro,' we learn of the death, on Wednesday evening last, of Mrs. Williams, daughter of Rev. John N. Andrews, formerly of this city, Mr. Andrews, we know, will have the sympathy of thetpeople of Wilmington in his deep affliction, he having so often preached to many of our people, and ministered to and comforted them when their own loved ones were taken away. We learn that Rev. J. H. Dally to-day.

Suspension of Business on New YEARS' DAY .- At a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held yesterday, it was unanimously resolved, that in the opinion of the Chamber it is proper that the general business of the city be suspended on Saturday next, the 1st day of January, 1870.

It may be proper to mention, in this connection, that the various Banks of the city will be closed to buiness on that day.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL. - David Johnson, arrested a few days since for stealing clothing from Isaac Rogers, in Brunswick county, on the 26th inst., was arraigned before Justice McQuigg, yesterday, who, finding the evidence sufficient to justify it, committed him to the county jail, in default of security in the sum of $100, for trial at the next term of the Superior Court of Brunswick, which will be held at Smithville on the 1st Monday in April next. The warrant for Johnson's arrest was issued by Justice McQuigg on the affidavit of Rogers.

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT .- A meeting of citizens was held at the Commercial Exchange last night, to institute measures for investigating the city

Mr. P. Murphy was called to the chair, and Mr. M. Cronly made secretary. Statements of gross errors in the city finances were made.

Messrs. S. R. Bunting, Donald McRae, R. J. Jones, L. A. Hart, A. M. Waddele and A. H. Vanbokkelen were appointed a committee of investigation, to report at an adjourned meeting, and to be reimbursed for any expense they may be put to. A finance committee was also ap-

On motion of Dr. Thomas, all citizens were requested to contribute facts that would aid in the investigation.

Several tax-payers expressed their determination of refusing to pay taxes until the matter is satisfactorily settled.

THE THEATRE.—The audience last night, the third and last but two of the Chapman Sisters and Mr. Bishop in this place, we were pleased to observe, was very large and comprised in its number many of the beauty and fashion of our city. There was no diminution in the efforts to please and everything passed off with the usual eclat. Mr. Bishop, as on previous occasions, proved himself the prince of merry-makers and kept the house in a continual roar while on the stage. The Misses Chapman excelled, if possible, in their singing and dancing, their efforts on the two succeeding nights, and were time and again encored. The farce of "My Precious Betsy" was a most amusing one and all the characters were well sustained. The Oriental Musical Burlesque, of "Aladdin or the Wonderful Scamp" was extremely entertaining, and the leading characters, as played by the Misses Chapman and Mr. Bishop, were well supported by Miss Reignolds, Miss Parker, Mr. Hodges, Mr. Gallagher, and in fact by the whole company, in their various parts.

Mr. Withers, the Prince of Violinists, was again the recipient of much and well deserved applause.

This evening, the benefit and last appear ance but one of the Chapman Sisters and Mr. Bishop, will be presented the splendid Burlesque Opera from the Arabian Nights, called the "Forty Thieves, or Striking Oil in Family Jars," with its laughable situations, exquisite music and charming songs. A crowded house may

A LA MODE. - For the benefit of our fashionable readers of both sexes, but especially the ladies, we shall give in these columns a few "tashion dots" occasionally, to keep them posted in the latest styles, shapes, &c., of the various articles which comprise the toilet:

Round hats have superseded the bonnets, for the latter, made in modern and fashionable shapes, is merely a cross between a hat and a bonnet.

Round hats are worn not only for simple dress or ordinary occasions, but at the opera and for ceremonions occasions.

Now that styles may be considered settled the Tyrolienne shape is decidedly the favorite, and those made of felt have the tip of the crown depressed, as if carelessly

Black velvet Tyroliennes are even higher than the felt variety. Ostrich plumes, with rouleaux of velvet, are the trimming, varied with tips aigrettes and peacock feathers. A pretty soft-crowned hat, which droops over the forehead and turns up behind, is very becoming to round faces, Black velvet is the most popular material for hats of every shape, after that come the felts, in black, white, gray and brown. Feathers are often worn in contrast to the hat, but the velvet which trims the hat corresponds in color.

Two kinds of feathers are also used on the same hat, contrary to our former ideas of good taste.

Large buckles of French jet, and cut steel, are used upon rosettes or loops of Veils are somewhat less worn, and the scarf or Donna Maria veil of silk tissue, a yard and a half in length, floats from the will preach the funeral in Wayne county back of the hat, and is drawn over the face or lightly folded about the throat, to suit the caprice of the wearer.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

A LIVELY TIME AMONG THE the W., C. w SHIPPING.-Yesterday afternoon, as the steamship Pioneer was being taken from her wharf by the steam-tug Oldham, with the purpose of conveying her to the Messrs. Parsley's mill, the tide running out heavy at the time, the steamer swung around with the current in such a manner as to become unmanageable and went drifting down the stream at a rapid rate. Finally, after executing sundry evolutions, her broadside came in violent contact with the bows of the schooner Sirene, anchored in the stream in front of Mr. F. W. Kerchner's wharf, ripping off the railing of the Pioneer and tearing away the bulwarks and bowsprit of the schooner .-The steamship was going with such force when the collision occurred that she dragged the Sirene as far as the front of Market dock before she could be cleared, in the meantime swinging around in such a manner as to threaten the destruction of a number of flats on the other side of the river, the owners of which were shoving them hither and thither in evident consternation at the fate which they were endeavoring to escape. The antics of the ship and her collision with the schooner creaconsiderable excitement on the wharves for a few minutes.

CHIPS FOR THE LADIES AND OTH-ERS .- A young lady in Marion county, Iowa, has just been fined $5 and costs for pelting a big school-master with stones.

- The following in regard to the Fayetteville and Western Railroad, we find in the Statesville American. So far as regards the Governor's views or intentions in the matter alluded to, we know nothing whatever. We do know, however, that his actions will be influenced by what he believes will accomplish the greatest good to the greatest number: 'Although the board of directors have located the line of this road to Salisbury yet it is said that an effort will be made to change the route to Greensboro', and that Gov. Holden will favor the change and require the State's proxy to vote for it at a subsequent meeting, or resign. We think that the interest of the larger number of the people of the State who pay taxes to build the road as well as the private stockholders, should be consulted, and not any particular town or locality.—

Gentlemen—The very high character of the testimonials attesting the merits of your "Vegetable Preparations Nolandine," induced me to test your "NOLANDINE PROPER" in a very desperate case of Hydrothorax (dropsy of the chest,) combined with Ascities (dropsy of the abdomen). The usual remedies known to our profession had been most skillfully administered without producing anticipated effects. The diseases yielded to the action of your "NOLANDINE."
