THE JURY term of the Special Court Judge Cantwell presiding, meets at the City Hall on Monday.

THE TOURNAMENT at FAYETTEVILLE.—From the Eagle of the 30th we clip the following result of the Tournament on the 20th: The running was good, all coming within one second of the time set as outside margin (9 seconds). After the third time Mr. James Mathews, Knight of Southern Chivalry, was proclaimed at the stand as the successful Knight, having won the honor of crowning the "Queen of Love and Beauty." He named Miss Alice Taylor. The tilt was then continued for the honor of naming the Maids of Honor to the "Queen of Love and Beauty," which resulted, after a close contest, as follows: Mr. R. B. Lutterloh, Knight of Uncertainity, 1st Maid of Honor, Miss Julia Glover; Mr. J. A. Johnson, Knight of Cedar Creek, 2d Maid of Honor, Miss Fannie Lutterloh; Mr. B. C. Dunn, Knight of Edgecombe, 3d Maid of Honor, Miss Lilly Draughton; Mr. W. F. Campbell, Knight of Ivanhoe, 4th Maid of Honor, Miss Mary Daingerfield; Mr. Pem. Woodward, Knight of No Hope, 5th Maid of Honor, Miss Augusta Myrver.

THE CORONATION took place last night at 8 o'clock in Fayetteville Hall. The spacious room was crowded to its full capacity, and the rich plumes of chivalrous Knights, and the elegant attire of fair women, reflected the brilliant rays of light. Mr. W. H. Haigh, in an elegant, classic address, presented the beautiful crown to the "Queen of Love and Beauty," which the successful Knight then placed on her fair brow. The scene was grand and inspiring. The Royal Set then came off, and the ball opened. The soul-stirring dance and loud strains of merry music were enjoyed till the hour of 10, when a magnificent supper was served to the happy throng in the dining-room of the Fayetteville Hotel, after which the dance was continued to the wee hours of the night. Altogether it was a grand successful affair, long to be remembered with pleasure.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and Renovator of the Human System. A physician, who has been a practitioner for twenty years, sends us the following: "New Kent County, Va., April 1, 1869. Messrs. Dr. J. W. Lippitt & Co., Druggists, Richmond, Va. I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your NOLANDINE, and have been most skillfully administered without producing anticipated effects. The disease yielded to the use of your NOLANDINE. I very gratefully state that my patient is now enjoying the blessings of a restoration to good health, and now, four months since administering your Nolandine, there is not a symptom of recurrence. I had several opportunities of testing the merits of your "NOLANDINE" for CHILLS AND FEVER in cases which had resisted the usual remedies for months, and had the satisfaction to see them entirely broken and permanently removed after a course of your Nolandine. I know that I will incur the displeasure of some of the profession by departing from its usage; but candor and facts compel me to do so. I have found your Nolandine to be the invaluable properties of your preparation and trust that prejudice will not deter you from their use. I have found your Nolandine more than equal to quinine, which is an additional recommendation. Very respectfully, J. G. JONES, M. D. Druggists, Wilmington, N. C.
