

LARGER THAN THAT UF NY OTHER DAILY, NEWSPAPER PUB-ISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

---- The "Chain-Gang" is at present comprised of nineteen prisoners.

-A colored man, name not known, was sent to the Hospital yesterday.

----- We are under obligations to Capt. Barrett, of the Steamship Pioneer, for late files of the Philadephia papers.

- There was only one police arrest yesterday-a boy, for running a horse on the streets.

- Judge Cantwell being absent from the city, there was no session of the City Court yesterday.

About two thousand five hundred dollars have been subscribed to the Co-operative store which will open shortly in this city.

" THE HEARTH AND HOME" is one of the best family papers on our exchange list, containing excellent bints on all matters pertaining to the farm, garden, household and for the young people, with healthy literary reading, news, gossip, markets, &c. It is published weekly by Pettingill, Bates & Co., 37 Park Row, N. Y., at $4 a year to single subscribers, or 3 copies for $9. av to 195 tota failer

SUPERIOR COURT.-The only case before this court yesterday was that of H. Van Glahn es. the Commercial Bank, the amount of the claim being $16,000. A motion to non-suit on the part of the defendants was set aside by His Honor, Judge Russell, and the case will come before the jury to day. Messrs. Geo. Davis and Robert Strange for the defendant and Hon. R. S. French and the Messrs. DeVane for the plaintiffs.

Ho! FOR THE PENITENTIARY .--Three prisoners, who have been confined in the county work-house since the last term of the Superior Court, awaiting transportation to the State Penitentiary, will be taken to that institution to-day, under the escort of the jailor, S. W. Nash, and others. The names of the prisoners are John Hill, under sentence of twenty years for burglary, Henry Larkins, under sentence-of twenty years for arson, and Bob Hill alias Bob Wiggins, under sentence of ten years. for burglary. The parties are all colored. IN ON M

the Alpha finally got her into deep water.

She was then towed up to about two miles

this side of Big Island, when the Oldham

her to the city. She is "listed" very much on one side at present, owing to the coal having all got on that side while she was grounded. She leaks considerably,

but not so much but that she can be kept free by keeping the pump in operation at intervals of half an hour in each hour.-

As soon as she can be relieved of the coal,

&c., we presume she will be hauled upon the ways and repaired. We learn that three of her beams are broken, and that she is considerably strained otherwise,

- The Goldsboro' Messenger learns that Mr. John Benton, an old citizen residing near Bentonsville, Johnston county, was attacked by two white men, one night last week, while in his own house. One of the men presented a re-volver to Mr. Benton's head, while his confederate ransacked the house, taking with them about twenty-five dollars in money and other valuables. One of the parties has since been arrested.

From a circular statement of the financial condition of the North Carolina Road for the six months ending Nov. 30th, 1869, we learn that the receipts from all sources amounted to $344,067 17, and and the current expenses for the same time $173,988 92—leaving a nett amount of $170,078 25. The increase of receipts over same time last year, is $43,741 10. So says the Charlotte Democrat.

- The Statesville American learns that some spunky women in the northern portion of Iredell, Ku Kluxed a brute in the shape of a man, recently, who was in the habit of ill-treating his wite and paying too much attention to females of bad repute. They stripped and tied him to a log and gave him the full limit of the old law with an additional instalment. He made them many promises to be of good behavior hereafter, and thanked them that they treated him so leniently. No use for the military bill in this case.
