CITY AFFAIRS .- At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, on Monday night, the Police Committee was instructed to supply the vacancies in the Police force caused by the recent discharge of four of the members.

J. Kent Brown was unanimously elected City Surveyor.

The following named persons were elected Fire Wardens for the ensuing year : First Ward, Owen Dove; Second Ward, Thos. L. Colville; Third Ward, E. P. George; Fourth Ward, John H. White-

Thos. L. Colville was elected Chief of he Fire Wardens.

It is understood that the newly-elected Assistant Clerk of the Market will have the supervision of the Brooklyn market. The salary of the Clerk to the Board of Assessors was fixed at $500 per year.

MAYOR MARTIN, Our new Mayor has entered upon the discharge of his duties 'with vigor, system and energy and seems already to have made a favorable impression on all parties,

Mr. Martin is an old citizen of Wilmington, a man of fine business qualifications and strict integrity; and we have no doubt will make a faithful and efficient officer. He has opportunity for the exercise of his talents; for if there ever was an occasion when it became a necessity to bring order out of chaos, that occasion is now presented to Mayor Martin. Dependent on no man or party for support, we believe he will discard all partizan bias and discharge his duty regardlees of pothouse politicians. If he will do this, he will win for himself the plaudits of every good citizen of Wilmington.

COTTON ROBBERY-THIEF ARRES-TED.-Sometime during Monday night last, a thief or thieves entered the warehouse of Messrs. In Jerre's possession he found seven bags marked P. & M. The bags were wet, which fact Joe thinks indubitable evidence that Jerry had sought a purchaser for his booty, and was compelled to take it through the rain in quest of some accommodating junkist with whom he might "drive a trade;" but lynx-eyed Joe struck the trait, and brought to bay light-fingered Jerry, who undoubtedly had Moore cotton than he was entitled to.

FASHION'S FREAKS. - A new bonnet particularly becoming to prettp faces, piquant faces and youthful faces, has made its appearance, called the Infanta, or baby bonnet. The brim is so small as to be no brim at all; the crown is the feature of the bonnet, from which it takes its name. Made of pearl colored satin, with a dark velvet contrasting, it is a tasteful novelty in the way of sensational headgear.

For Winter cloaks one of the late and pretty styles of the season is the new French circular, made of Scotch plaid, with a very deep cape trimmed with fringe containing the colors of the plaid. OUR BAR, &c. Capt. Fred. F. Nes, of the U. S. Coast Survey, who lately arrived here, with a competent, assistant, for the purpose of examining and ascertaining the condition of the Bar at the entrance to our harbor, reports that, from the cursory examination already made, he is of the opinion that a sufficient depth of water for all reasonable practical purposes can be bad on our Bar, if the necessary material aid can be obtained from Congress to do the work. The party went down again on Monday, and we suppose, are now fairly underway in the duties of the actual survey. We learn that they will probably be engaged in the work for the next ten days.

We should have stated before that the party were sent here at the request of Gen. Abbott, one of the Senators in Congress from this State, who deserves much credit for the commendable zeal he manifests in all schemes and improvements calculated to benefit our city.

THAT SOUND PARTY .- A Sound party, delighted with the prospect of a fine day which the dawn of yesterday presented, started off in high spirits to enjoy a brief season of recreation and pleasur on the sea side. Soon, however, dark and ominous clouds commenced to gather in the beavens, and by the time they had fairly reached their destination the rain poured down in torrents, which continued at short intervals during the day. We regret that such a damp-er was cast upon themselves and the prospected enjoyments of the day, but suggest that in future they should not trust too much to appearances. especially in a climate where summer comes in mid-winter and April showers fall in WILMINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COM-PANY. - We are glad to see that this excellent organization is making fine progress. Since the books were re-opened a considerable amount of additional stock has been taken, showing conclusively that the Company possess the confidence of our people and will achieve for itself a success even greater than was hoped for by its.

We have heretofore had occasion to refer to this Company, and to commend it to the fostering care of the people of North Carolina, and especially to the citizens of Wilmington. And we desire now to repeat substantially what we have formerly said by urging on our readers the importance of investing their money in a safe and profitable home enterpriseone which we believe will be conducted with prudence, economy and integrity.

This Company will soon be ready to issue policies; and we know the influence of its friends and stockholders well enough to hazard the prediction that it will meet with the most encouraging success. This will be the case in the country districts especially, where the field for active, enterprising agents is still large and invit-

Concerning stock subscribed and paid in, the Company is already a seccess: but we would prefer to see Wilmington more largely represented in the number of tockholders. The name of the Company and the fact that its headquarters will be here, should commend it to our citizens if they Teel, as we do, that it will prove a safe and profitable enterprise.

THE FIREMEN'S PARADE. The Committees of the three white fire companies, alluded to in our last, met vesterday and decided to have their first annual parade on Wednesday next. The foremen of the different companies were appointed a committee to select the marshals of the day, one to be chosen from each company. We learn that the engines are to be handsomely decorated, and that a band of music will be engaged for the occasion.
