WASHINGTON, March 1. CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE-The Senate, in executive session, finally confirmed Strong and discussed the case of Bradley, but finally adjourned with the understanding that a vote will be taken to-Wilson introduced a bill for the better observance of Sunday in military and naval institutions. Loans to railroads and funding bill were discussed to adjournment.

HOUSE—Senate amendments to the postal rate bill was accepted. The joint resolution introduced yesterday by Beck, extending to three years the time for keeping distilled spirits in bond, came up, the question being on Marshall's amendments to Hooper's substitute reducing the amount to be paid after the first year from I cent a gallon per month to 1/4 cent. Marshall's amendment was rejected; yeas 84, nays 86. Hooper's substitute was agreed to without division. It requires the payment of 1 cent per gallon for each month after the first year. Washburn, of Wisconsin, moved to lay the bill on the table, it being a bill to suspend the collection of revenue on whisky for the re-The bill was not laid on the table. Yeas 62, The bill, as amended, then passed without

From Virginia. RICHMOND, March 1.

The Senate passed the enabling bill, which goes to the Governor. It provides that the State offices now held by military appointees shall be filled by appointments of the Gover-Foreign.

LONDON, March 1. Later and more favorable dispatches have been received from the British authorities at Yokahama, in relation to the collision between the steamers Bombay and Oneida. The de-tails, however, are still meagre. Fifty-six of the officers and crew of the Oneida were subsequently picked up by the small boats of the Bombay. It is thought that others, who were missing at last accounts, will ultimately prove to have escaped. The names of the saved or lost have not yet been received, nor is it known precisely how many persons were on board the ill-fated vessel at the time of the ca-PARIS, March 1. Notwithstanding the announcement that the Mordi Gras festivities would be suppressed by the police, at this hour, 1 o'clock, the Fafax Boul Gras procession has just entered the courtyard of the Tuileries. Great crowds of people are gathered on the line of march, but no disturbances of any kind have occurred.

From Kentucky. LOUISVILLE, March !.

Silver mines of unparalleled richness have been discovered in Grayson county, Ky. The ore is found to contain a larger per cent. of silver than any heretofore discovered. The mine is almost inexhaustible, and will be developed in the spring.

Republican State Convention. RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 23, 1870.

At a meeting of the Republican State Committee of North Carolina, held this day, the following members were present: W. W. Holden, Chairman, J. C. L. Harris, Secretary; Wm. A. Smith, J. M. Justice, E. K. Proctor, G. Z. French, J. W. Hood, R. M. Johnson, D. D. Colgrove, John A. Hyman, J. E. O'Hara, Y C. Barringer, S. T. Carrow, Geo. A. Grabam, C. L. Harris, Joseph Ballard, Wilson Carey, Charless Blair, Thoms Powers, S. G. Horney, T. A. Sykes, William F. Henderson, Dr. H. J. Menninger, James H. Harris and Dixon Ingram. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Committee that a Mass Convention of the Republicans of North-Carolina be held in Raleigh on Wednesday the 11th day May,

That all good citizens of the State who regard the Reconstruction acts as a finality, who are friendly to the administration of President Grant, and who are in favor of building up North Carolina and restoring good feeling among all her people without regard to party, be earnestly invited to attend.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that an election should be held n this State on the first Thursday in

In accordance with the first resolution bove given, and in the spirit of that resolution, a Mass Convention of the Republicons of North Carolina is hereby called to be held in the city of Raleigh on Wednesday, the 11th day of May, 1870; and "all good citizens of the State who regard the reconstruction acts as finality, who are friendly to the administration of President Grant, and who are in favor of building up North Carolina and restoring good feeling among all her people without regard to party," are cordially invited to

New Hampshire Elections. The New Hampshire election, which takes place in a short time, is looked forwarded to with much interest by both democratic and republican politicians here. Prominent democratic representatives have information of a gratifying character from the democracy of the Granite State, and they are hopeful of redeeming it from republican rule, at the polls, this year. The fact that the republicans of the State have called all the prominent material they could to their aid, shows that they are not over confident of success unless they make the most earnest exertions. Besides the New Hampshire republicans who have gone home from this city, they, have called Mr. Dawes, Mr. Van Wyck and others to stump the State for them. All this shows their extremity, and that they feel they are in a crisis. But it all tends to make the democracy hopeful for the best results. The election is important, as upon the Legislature selected will devolve the election of a United States Senator in place of Mr. Cragin, whose term of office expires in 1871. - Wash, Telegram,
