DAYLIGHT AHEAD.

The New York Commercial Advertiser encouragingly says: There is this consolation for our mercantile interests which are suffering so severely by the steady decline in gold, that when the bottom is reach ed a revival of trade will follow. They may now incur considerable loss by the depreciation in values of stock on hand, but those who are able to weather the storm will be more than compensated by the activity which will succeed the long period of stagnation which has prevailed. As affairs approximate to an ante-war condition, the people will be better able to make purchases, and buyers al! over the coun try who have been holding back will come forward.

TO PROTECT MARRIED MEN.

A bill has been introduced in the New York State Assembly defining the rights of married men and equalizing the rights of man and wife. The bill provides that a husband having children by his wife shall have an estate for life in property left by her. He shall not be liable for debts contracted by his wife before marriage, nor for debts contracted by her without his consent, except for the support of herself and children. He may sell his real estate without the consent of his wife, and at his death the wife shall be entitled only to dower in his real estate.

REDUCED WAGES.

The New York Star, the organ of the Trades Unions, speaks of the decline in prices and lack of full employment, and says: "There is no disguising the fact that the condition of affairs renders it morally impossible that a reduction of wages can be prevented in many of the trades, so many idle hands being ready and auxious to step into the place of the strikers, so that as a result it is found that many of the strikes this season are failures."

VERDANT.

The simplicity of the African mind is manifest in the unsophisti cated conceit that getting into Congress will elevate their race socially. They would do well to ascertain more definitely whether a place in Congress is a passport to good society even among white Radicals. Our own impression is that it is quite the reverse.

THEORY VERSUS PRAUTICE. Fifty-six leading Republican journals in the United States have come ont in favor of relief from inordinate taxation. If they are sincere in wanting to abate the tearful burthen, they are very illogical in the methods they suggest for accomplishing the result.

BAD EMINENCE.

The Byron scandal has given rise to innumerable articles in the literary journals of Germany. Mrs. Stowe is bitterly denounced by the German critics as guilty of "the greatest literary crime of the cen-supervisor. She is undoubtedly woman of considerable income, for she advertises largely a permit to the authorities to hold a municipal election in Portland.

A JOURNALIST'S GOOD FORTUNE.

Ben. C. Truman, war corsespondent of the Philadelphia Press, and at one time Andrew Johnson's pri- ful life. vate secretary, has married the belle of Los Angelos, California, and a valuable orange grove.

THE TRUTH

Congressman Johnson, of Cali fornia, is right when saying that Washington once brought to mind he father of his country and many noble memories; but "the word now carries, wherever spoken, a great, ragged picture of negro processions, election riots, and a lobby of white speculators who could not be satisfied by a legislative gift of the whole world unless it was tendered with a vote of thanks."

DISGUSTED.

Dr. Mary Walker has left inhospitable New Orleans and gone off to Texas. There, we feel assured, she will be permitted to wear what garment best pleases her. People of all kinds do pretty much as they please in that dominion.

Not to be outdone by magnanimity, and as an offset to General Butler's appointment of a colored boy to a cadetship, and Mr. Prosser's proposed appointment of another colored boy, to be selected by the colored men of Nashville, the Hon. MEMOIR OF CORPORAL JAMES BELVIN. Corporal James Belvin joined the service under James H. Foote, of the "Wake Light Infantry," May 9, 1862, as a Volunteer Private, at the age of 21 years. He had two other brothers who entered the ranks before him and no braver soldiers in the Confederate Army ever fought than the three young Belvins of Wake. At the battle of Ellyson's Mills, Jan. 26, 1862, James Belvin was severely wounded through the lungs by a Minnie ball and found himself in the Hospital at Richmond on his couch best 'e his brother Elijah, who was also severely wounded at the same time. After several months suffering from his wound, and before he had recovered, he hastened to his post and was promoted to Corporal forhis gallant conduct on the field, there being no other vacancy. With indomitable perseverance he passed through the shock of other battles, flinching not in times of danger, nor failing in the long and toilsome Marchnever complaining, but always cheerful and bueyant, be attracted the admiration of his companions, and confidence of his commanding Officer. At the ever memorable battle of Chan-cellorsville he displayed heroic courage. On the 3d day of May, 1863, which was the last day's fight, after the first, and pershot down, Corporal Belvin seized the old flag of his Regiment, determined that it should never trail in the dust while he had an arm to carry it, bore it victoriously over the first and second lines of the Enemys breastworks. Arriving at the third line, which consisted of piles of timber, and stubbornly resisted by the Enemy, he defiantly planted his flag staff upon their works within a few feet of the "stars and stripes." Sec. 4. That upon the acceptance of this act by the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherenford Railroad Company within ninety days after its ratification, it shall become a part of the Chater of said Company. Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Public Treasurer, upon the surrender to him of five hundred thousand dollars of State bonds, from delivering the bonds of the Company now in the Treasury, as is provided in section one of this act, and he is hereby instructed and required to make said delivery immediately after the ratification of this act.

Sec. 5. That all laws and parts of laws com ing in conflict with this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force from the date of its ratification.

This bill was discussed at length, and was opposed by Messrs. Sweet, Cook and Lassitor. Messrs. Jones, of Mecklenburg, and Graham advocated its passage.

Mr. Sweet moved to amend the bill by striking out the 1st section, which was voted down.
Mr Sweet moved to strike out the proviso in the 4th section, which was voted down.

Mr. Lassiter offered the following amendment, to-wit:

Provided, That the Governor, with the advice of the Council of State, be and he is hereby authorized to bid for said Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, if and when sold, to close or upon the closing of any mortgage to the amount of the States' interest in said road.

Provided further, That the representation of the State's interest shall be represented in the number of Directors that now exist. Mr. Graham called the previous question, which was sustained, and the amendment of Mr. Lassiter was voted down.

The bill passed its final reading as it came from the House by a vote of, yeas 29, nays 15. Mr. Beeman moved to reconsider the vote be which the bill passed and moved to lay the motion on the table. Cook moved to adjourn, which was

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, March 11. Mr. Vestal moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill concerning the election and registration in the year 1870. Mr. Vestal spoke in support of his motion n remarks of some length. During his remarks, he said that this was was one of the most important bills of the session, and until it was passed no certain day for adjournment could be fixed. Harris, of Wake, colored, opposed the mo-

Mr. French raised the point of order, that before the motion to suspend the rules could be put, a motion must be made to postpone the unfinished business (Revenue Bill) and if that motion was made, he would move to amend by postponing the Revenue Bill until the next session of the Legislature. The Chair sustained the point, saying that the only motion competent was a motion to postpone the unfinished business. Mr. Argo moved to postpone the unfinished business and take up the bill concerning elections and registration in the year 1870.

Mr. French opposed the postponement of the revenue bill, saying it was the intention of certain gentlemen to leave after the passage of the election bill and thus leaving the House without a quorum, defeating the passage of other imporant bills. Mr. Argo replied that it was a notorious fact that a considerable faction of the Republican party in the House were opposed to an lection next August, and that they intended to abscond after the passage of the revenue bill, and thus defeat the passage of the election bill by leaving the House without a quorum. Some Republicans here say that they are in favor of an election, now he wished to test their sincerity, &c.

After some further debate, Mr. Argo's mo-tion was put to a vote and rejected by the fol-owing ballot: yeas, 35; nays, 56.

The following is the charge delivered by Chief Justice Dowe, at Laramie, Wyoming, Monday, to the grand jury, composed chiefly of females, reference to which was made on yesterday. Judge Dowe

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury-It is an innovation and great nevelty to see, as we do to-day, ladies sum-moned to serve as jurors. The extension of political rights and franchise to women s a subject that is agitating the whole country. I have never taken an active part in these discussions, but I have long seen that woman was a victim of the vices, crimes and immoralities of man, with no power to protect and defend herself from these evils.

"I have long felt that such powers of protection should be conferred upon woman, and it has fallen to our lot here to act as the pioneer in the movement, and to test the question. The eyes of the whole world are to day fixed upon this jury of Albany county. There is not the slightest impropriety in any lady occupying this position and I wish to assure you that the fullest protection of the court shall be accorded to you. It would be a most shameful scandal that in our temple of justice and in our courts of law anything should be permitted which the most sensitive lady might not hear with propriety and witness. "And here let me add that it will be a sorry day for any man who shall so far forget the courtesy due and paid by every American gentleman to every American lady as to even by a word or set endeavor to deter you from the exercise of these rights of which the law has invested you. I will conclude with the remark that this is a question for you to decide for yourselves. No man has any right to interfere. It seems to be eminently proper for women to sit upon grand juries, which will give them the best possible opportunities to aid in suppressing the dens of infamy which curse the country.
