STILL BUNNING.

From the advertising columns of th Ridgeway Press we discover that there are two candidates still in the field in Warren county ; one for Register of Deeds, and the other for County Treasurer. For the sake of harmony, we beg these gentlemen to "furdraw." There is no possible chance of their election before August. 1872; and if they persist in keeping their names before the people it will result in something very fearful. Doubtless, Warren county will be declared in a state of the spinners and weavers. The mill-owners express themselves perfectly satisfied with the condition of affairs. They derun for the sake of keeping the machinery in trim, and that their mills were not paying them at the old wages; therefore.

until the demand for goods springs up, they are willing to remain idle. The mill owners say they will not yield. The spinners say that, under the old scale of pay, a man could not earn $10 50 a week; some could make $12, and others only $9-the fair average being about $10 50.

EFFECT OF WAR ON EMIGRATION. The great decrease of immigration since the commencement of the European war is strikingly illustrated in the fact that so far in August, only 1,728 Germans and 59 French have arrived at the port of New York. As regards the German emigration, [the disastrous effect of the war, it is stated, is already felt at the West .-Other nationalities contribute mainly to the numerical growth of our cities; the vast body of Germans, on the other hand. proceed directly to the West, and contribute, by their industry and thrift to the rapid development of that section. The New York Times, however, is inclined to think that this check will te but temporary. The war cannot last forever, and its waste will be followed by augmented debt; and taxation. The disposition

The city of Fall tadt. It is certainly ascertained that there are no longer more than two hundred and fifty thousand men in Alsace and Lorraine. The leaders of the French army are making preparations to resist this tide of invaders. More than four hundred thousand men will be brought together between the Voseges and the Moselle within two days. The bulk of the army remains concentrated around Metz, where the first detachments of the corps of McMahon, and of that of De Failly, arrived yesterday. The retreat of these corps has been effected in very good order. The partial abandonment of Alsace by our troops gives rise to lively anxiety for the fate of Strasbourg. The city is well supplied with war materials, food and ammunition, but the very limited clare that at this season they only care to numbers of the garrison excite fears lest they cannot hold it long.

One of the first efforts of the new minister of war has been to remedy the defects in supplies, which occasioned the demoralization of our troops. Immense convoys of provisions have been sent to the field.

Here the situation is much the same there is less tumult and more resolution. In all classes of society there is an irresistible current towards the frontier. For example, M. Duruy, formerly a cabinet minister, and M. Paul de Cassagnac, the belligerent editor of the Pays, have enlisted, the former in the reserve, the latter in a regiment of zouaves.

Paris is transformed into a citadel, the armament of the fortifications is completed; five thousand marine artillerymen arrived this morning from Cherbourg .-There is serious though not threatening agitation at Marseilles, Toulouse and Lyons.

The same journal has a dispatch from London giving a report from St. Avoid, dated on Thursday night, that the French army had been evacuating Metz for twenty-four hours, with the intention of falling back upon its principal line, in order to be reinforced before delivering a general engagement. But, says the New York Post, the abandonment of Metz and the line of the Moselle would be almost as great a blow to the empire as the loss of Province of British America, but to Buenos

THE SEASON OF EXHAUSTION. The close sultry weather which usually prevails toward the end of summer is particularly unfavorable to the feeble and enervated. Even the well-knit frames of strong men teel the Cotten Factors and Commissi influence of the season, and lassitude and languor pervade the whole community. Ladies, especially those in delicate health, suffer, much from debility, occasioned by the humid heat, and feel the want of a wholesome invigorant. In fact, a necessity for something to recruit the exhausted system is experienced, more or less, by everybody, and the only question is, what that something will be. With those who have tested the effect of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters on themselves, or have observed its effects on others, this question will not be in doubt for a single moment. Its tonic and regulating operation, and its agency in creating a healthy appetite and promoting digestion, are rightly classed by all who have resorted to this unequalled vegetable invigorant and corrective, among the most extraordinary therapeutic wonders of modern times. "Pain Killer." The

The foreign and dorastic demand for Perry Davis & Son's great medicine-the Pain Killer -was never before so large as it has been of late; and we think the time has arrived when the declaration may be made, without the possibility of reputation, that the city of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, of the United States of America, has furnished the entire habitable globe with a medicine, which, in point of universality of demand, ex. tent of usefulness, complete efficiency for all the purposes for which it is designed and wide W. J. LOVE. spread, enduring popularity, has never been equalled by any medicine in Europe or America.

The universality of the demand for the Pain Killer is a novel, interesting, and surprising feature in the history of this medicine. Its fame has gone out" into every quarter of the habitable globe. The Pain Killer is now regularly sold in large and steadily increasing quantities, not only to general agents in every State and Territory of the Union, and every a battle, and is not to be easily believed. It has is any foreign port or any inland city in Africa European missionaries, travellers or traders, into which the Pain Killer has not been intro. The extent of its usefulness is another great feature of this remarkable medicine. It is not only the best thing ever known, as everybody will confess, for bruises, cuts, burns, &c., but for dysentery or cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great cities of British India, and in the West India Islands and other hot climates, it has become the standard medicine for all such complaints, as well as for dispepsia, liver com-plaints and other kindred disorders. For matic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing trials and testimony, to be an invaluable medicine. The proprietors are in possession of letters from persons of the highest character and respon-sibility, testifying, in unequivocal terms, to the cures effected and the satisfactory results produced, in an almost endless variety of cases, by the use of this great medicine. — Prov. We again beg our Warren friends to "furdraw." It is entirely too early to begin the campaign of 1872. Why, just think of a man running two whole years for Register of Deeds ? Think of his cider bills, his advertising accounts, and other campaign expenses !

But they are runnin'-Foote for Regis ter of Deeds, and Massenburg for County Treasurer. There they fre, under the head of "New Advertisements," in the Ridgeway Press of August 12th; Foote soliciting "the patronage of the voters of Warren county," and Massenburg offering himself a candidate "independent of party, rase or color." And they are renoth just as stavin' hard as if the election were to take place to-morrow.

We like bottom ; we always did like to see the Virginia horse "Red-Eye" in four-mile heat. But for regular, old-field running we'll pit our Warren friends agin the world. They are bent on catching the political worm of 1872, whether "school keeps or not."

When the Conservative County Convention of Warren meets, nearly two years hence, some of the delegates will sagaciously remark, in the language of Patrick Henry: "Why stand we here idle ? Our brethren are already in the field." And the fact of the business is, that Convention will have to "get up and dust." We do not entertain a shadow of a

A HANDSOME TRIBUTÉ.

The Norfolk Virginian, in an editorial article on the attitude of North Carolina in the recent campaign, pays our grand old State the following beautiful tribute: With these great weights upon her, and these sharp goads in her sides, the Old North State, displayed a patient courage which entitles her to immortal honor .-It is written that he who commandeth his spirit is greater than he who taketh a city, and when Carolina conquired hor impulse to resist 'tyranny in any shape and from any quarter-an impulse born with the Mecklenburg declaration-she stood

In congratulating her on her redemption, we mingle with the greeting our highest applause at the patient heroism which she displayed, and trust that the future may be rich in the blessings of that peace which she has conquered for herself by peaceful means.

If this is true, Strasbourg is certainly abandoned to its fate, and no serious attempt can be made to check the German advance east of the Moselle. In other words, a portion of France almost as large as the State of New Jersey, and several times as populous, and with a capital city s3 large as Albany, has been surrendered to the German forces within a month after Napoleon started "for Berlin," he bringing of the marine artillerymen from the fleet at Cherbourg to man the defenses of Paris is a mortifying confession of weakness. All offensive operations at sea must be abandoned, and the want of trained artillervmen in the army must be pressing indeed.

The Prussians are evidently pressing their advantage to the utmost, and tidings either of a serious repulse to them or of a further successful advance may be expected at any time.

THE GERMAN LOSSES.

The New York Journal of Commerce, apropos of the relative dosses in the recent battle, or rather series of battles, starts some suggestions worthy of consideration. It says :

It occurs to us that the delay of the Germans in following up their victories may partly be explained by the great gaps made in their ranks by the chassepot, and the consequent breaking up and possibly the demoralization of many regimental organizations. How do we know but that they suffered, more than the French in the bloody conflicts of Woerth, Weissenburg, Froschweiler and Saarbruck. The suppression of details of German losses is suspicious. From the franker admissions of the French, we learn what frightful punishment they sustained. If ever the facts of last week's battle come to light, we may find out that the losses on each side were not less than those at Sol-terino or Sadowa. Perhaps the affairs at Woerth and Weissenburg may prove as sanguinary as any single engagement in Europe since Waterloo," And yet those battles were but skirmishes compared to the one that must yet take place, when the whole French army in the field meets, with something like an equality of num-

tion for our neighbor-in-law, Gee Zee.
