While Manning was musing, and thinking so free,
His thoughts ran thus:—"let the supper—let's see!"
(CALL FOR A TOAST.)
At the dinner and river we witnessed the run made with the "Adrian" by friend "Barton & Son."
And it was good.

Jurors for the District Court.

The names of the following persons have been drawn to serve as Jurors at the present term of the District Court of the United States for the Cape Fear District of North Carolina, to be held at Wilmington, in said District, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday in October, 1870:
New Hanover County.—John Dawson, Timothy Rivenbark, John D. Love, Thomas Craig, A. Well, James P. Moore, R. Thorburn, W. T. Higgins, G. W. Oldham, Araby McMillan, A. E. Price, John Gilchrist—12.
Brunswick County.—John Fulford, John D. Taylor, J. J. McKeithan, Wm. Fullwood, E. M. Westcott, A. D. McKeithan, Hardy B. Willis—8.
Duplin County.—A. M. Faison, Thomas Hall, G. S. Carr, Thomas Wright, Stokes Wells, James S. Harst, Dr. Matthews Moore, Isham P. Faison—8.
Sanborn County.—James H. Lamb, Allen M. Blackman, E. L. Faison, Wm. S. Mathis, Bryant Merritt, Robert J. Murphy, John W. Mathis, Archibald S. Parker—12.
The names of the persons which there have been several contradictory statements published, would seem from the following paragraph, in a New York letter (September 15), to the Philadelphia Record, to have actually taken place, and at no very recent date:
"Brigoli, the tenor, is a happy father, his wife, formerly Miss Isabella McCulloch, the prima donna, having lately presented him with a pair of twins. The mother and children are doing well, and the popular tenor is in constant receipt of the congratulations of his musical and other friends. The idea of a romantic opera lover—a troubadour, a hero of the lyric stage—blest with a pair of twins, for all the world like Mr. Micawber, seems exceedingly incongruous."
Our Chip Basket.
— Bright brown colors are in style.
— Paper petticoats have debuted.
— Newark is to have a "self-threading needle factory."
— Calico scrap books are a young feminine freak.
— In Sweden they bake a month's bread at once.
— An enraged man tears his hair; but an enraged woman tears her husband's.
— In Texas a husband offers $1,200 for the return of his wife.
— The question is propounded by a youngster whether, when gold gets to par, it won't go to ma.
— The young ladies of Roundout, N. Y., are organizing a "Society for the Encouragement of Young Men Desiring to Marry."
— An Ohio girl has laid by the sum of six hundred dollars, all gained by making corn husk door-mats at ten cents each.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HALF ALIVE.
It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain, but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensual pleasure; their more robust and energetic fellow beings.
In these cases out of ten this state of inactivity and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.
Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs re-energizing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, but such a permanent and pleasurable condition that even, as if it were a disease, it would do it an ordinary alcoholic beverage would be necessary, but really and permanently.
It is the desirable object to see accomplished. The answer to this question, found on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is a healthy vigor. Intense new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but take the system up by re-energizing the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.
By the time that a dozen doses of the great Bitters have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and will appreciate the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthy blood, fit to be the material of flesh and bone and nerve, and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished.

County Bonds.
By order of the Board of County Commissioners, Messrs. James & Meares will sell, at Exchange Corner, on Tuesday, the 27th inst., at 11 o'clock A. M., $15,000 New Hanover County gold interest-bearing Bonds, having 8 1/2 years to run from Sept. 1st, and paying 6 per cent. interest in gold. This is a rare chance for investment, and persons having surplus funds will consult their interest by attending the sale.
New Firm.
It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. R. Motier, Mainstre and B. Tucker French will open, on Monday, Sept. 20th, in the store recently occupied by Col. J. J. Hedrick, corner of Second and Market streets, a new and beautiful stock of Dry Goods. The new firm is composed of gentlemen of experience in the business, who are determined to conduct their establishment in such a manner as to insure a large share of the public patronage.
Educational.
We neglected, yesterday, to call attention to the fact that the first scholastic year of St. Paul's Institute and Musical Academy, located on Market street, second door East of Front street, in this city, will commence on the 3rd of October. The reputation of the Principal, Prof. J. F. Henckert, as a gentleman eminent in his profession, has preceded him, and is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be well conducted and worthy of patronage. Pupils of both sexes will be admitted, and the terms made reasonable. See advertisement in ROOM 33000
