Messrs. Cronly & Morris, Auctioneers, advertise to sell a fine lot of parlor, diningroom, bed-room and kitchen furniture, at the residence upon east side of Front, one door south of Red Cross street, this morning at 10 o'clock. The furniture has been but little used, and persons in want of such articles will do well to attend the sale.

The following is a list of the unmailable letters remaining in the post office Sept. 27th : Wm. H. Strother, Portsmouth, Va.; John Linglinton, Burgaw, N. C.; S. F. Henry, Lillington, N. City Court.

Before this tribunal, yesterday morning, the following cases were heard and disposed of:

Thos. Boyd, of the British Bark Island Queen was arraigned on the charge of imbibing too much elan. Judgment for the penalty and costs, with reduction recommended to the Mayor, 513 AI HOLDER

Washington Usher, charged with disorderly conduct. This case was continued over from the 21st, the defendant in the meantime having left for parts unknown. Judgment entered against the defendant and his sureties for $100. Application to the Mayor filed.

War Behind the Scenes.

A difficulty occurred "behind the scenes" in New York between Mr. James A. Oates, husband of the burlesque actress, well known in Wilmington, and Mr. Ashley, dramatic critic of the New York Clipper. The unpleasantness culminated in the bar room of the Motropolitan Hotel. Mr. Oates felt aggrieved at certain adverse criticisms which Mr. Ashley wrote about his wife, and attempted to set matters right by pounding the said Mr. A. over the head with a cane. The critic fled, and the enraged champion of the drama hurled an india rubber spittoon after him.

Prisoner Escaped. He doy MAMIN' AT Galloway Leggit, colored, who was sentenced to the Work Rouse on the 21st of June last, for eighteen months, on the charge of larceny, and who was sent to the City Hospital a week or two since, to undergo some slight medical treatment, succeeded in making his escape from that institution yesterday. It seems that he had been pronounced by Dr. Winants to be in a proper condition to be returned to his imprisonment in the Work House, and word to that effect was sent to the authorities. Immediately upon the receipt of this notification, a policeman was sent to the Hospital after the prisoner. This individual, happening to discover the policeman at the gate, waited not for the call, "Galloway Leggit !" but made for the fence, with the speed of a startled deer, and went over it with about the same agility which would have been displayed by that active animal. Once over the fence, persons who witnessed his flight say that he made splendid time. In fact, he proved that Legg-it is a very proper cognomen for him. He has not yet been recaptured.

spirit. It is more palatable than any now in use.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopæs, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exist. In this, you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will savor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,
