MORNING STAR.

Saturday, October 1, 1870.

WM. H. BERNARD Editor and Proprietor.

The MORNING STAR is de-Ilvered to City Subscribers at FIFTEEN CENTS per week. Subscribers North of the centre of Market Street will be supplied by Mr. WM. L. HARLOW, and Anose South of that line by Mr. JOHN B. BURCH. Only these Agents are authorized, in their respective Divisions, to collect city subscriptions.

AP Pust Office Money Orders may be obtained in all the cities, and in many of the targe towns. We consider them perfectly sale, and the best means of remitting hity dollars or less.

*** Registered Letters, under the new system; which went into effect June 1st, are a very safe means of sending small sums of mo-hey where P. O. Money Orders cannot be easi-ty obtained. Observe, the Registry fee, as well as postage, must be paid in stamps at the office where the letter is mailed, or it will be liable to be sent to the Dead Letter Office. Buy and what the stamps both for postage and registery, put upla the stamps both for postage and registry, put in the money and seal the letter in the presence of the post-master and take his receipt for it. Letters sent in this way to us are at our risk.

Persons leaving the city during the Summer months may have the STAR mailed regularly to their address by leaving orders at this office. Price, 75 cents for one month, or, ed more than a very ordinary degree of $2.00 for three months.

Obituary notices, tributes of respect, Ac., are charged half advertising rates when paid for in advance of publication. In all other cases full advertising rates will be charged.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE MORN ING STAR IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPER PUB-LISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

A GOOD PLATFORM.

From a recent address delivered by Wm. Eaton, Esqr., of Warren county, we make the following extract :

"I have said that our victory on the 4th of August last was a noble one. Let us make a noble use of it, and prove by our conduct that we have deserved success. Let us endeavor to restore the good old days of simplicity, economy, integrity and fidelity in the legislature of North Carolina; and as far as practicable, in every department of the State government .-Let us endeavor, in the language of Thomas Jefferson, to have a wise and trugal government, which shall not take The Winchester rifles, ten boxes of them. from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. Let our ascendency be characterized by moderation, liberality and mag- militia nanimity, and by a sacred regard for the rights of all-high and low, rich and poor, black and white. It should however be remembered that justice does not require that public officers who have been guilty was run over by the down passenger train, and instantly killed. His body was badly mangled. A bottle of whisky was of crimes shall go unpunished, but it im- found by his side. peratively demands the punishment due to their offences." We endorse every word of it; and are willing to adopt it as our platform. That extract is the very essence of North Carolina Conservatism, as we understand it. We repeat : Let our ascendency be characterized by moderation, liberality and magnanimity, and by a sacred regard for the rights of all-high and low, rich and poor, black and white. It should, however, be remembered that justice does not require that public officers who have been guilty of crime shall go unpunished, but it, imperatively demands the punishment due to their offences.

The papers almost universally talk about what Germany will do, and what Germany will not do, in the present Eu-

It has no present existence, either de facto or de jure. There is Prussia, an independent nation ; then comes a score of principalities, partly independent, and partly dependent on Prussia, forming together what is called the North German Confederation. Then there are the independent land, or lowland Germany. When all these are drawn together in settled harmony we shall have a "Germany."

A short time since we wrote and published an article headed "The Next Congress-a Radical Calculation" We were not aware at the time that it possessmerit; but we now think we were mistaken, as the editor of one of the best papers in the State has thought so well of it as to adopt it as his own. Two others publishcredit; while two others, still, published it with the proper credit. Of the last two we do not complain; nor shall we give the names of even those which failed to acknowledge the source of the article.

Ranning a Newspaper.

There is more truth than poetry in the following paragraph, which comes from a Germany will not do, in the present Eu-ropean crisis. But "Germany," as a na-ive to some of our readers; it is terribly tion or government, has yet to be formed. suggestive to many newspaper publishers. The Avalanche says:

By some unaccountable misapprehension of facts, there is a large class of peo-ple in the world who think it costs little or nothing to run a newspaper, and that if they buy a copy from a newsboy, when too far from the office to come and beg one, they are regular patrons and are en-titled to unlimited favors. Men call every eration. Then there are the independent kingdoms of Baden, Wurtemberg, Bava-varia, and Hesse. Then there is German Austria, mixed up, in singular relations with the Slavonic people of Hungary and other provinces; there is also the inde-pendent German Republic of Switzerland, and the independent Kingdom of Hol. something in the course of time. But this is a small drain, compared with the free advertising a newspaper is expected to do. Some men who have paid two dollars at an early period of life for an advertise-ment worth four or five, appear to think they are stockholders in the establishment for eternity. They demand the publica-tion of all marriage and funeral notices, obituaries and family episodes for the next forty years gratis. Speak of pay and they grow indignant. "Don't I patronize your paper ?" "Yes ; but you receive the worth of your money for what you paid." "But," says the patron, "it will not cost you anything to put this in," which is just as ridiculous as not to ask a man to grind ed it in their news columns without your axe on his grindstone and graciously tell him that it won't cost him a cent. It takes money to run a newspaper as well as any other business, and no paper will succeed financially that carries on a deadhorn system. Any mention of the people's affairs that they are anxious to see in print is worth paying for, and when printed is generally as good as any other investment of the same amount.

The newspaper businessis very exacting on all connected with it; and the pay is comparatively small; the proprietors risk more money for smaller profits, and the the given amount of intelligence and training and drugery. The life has its charms and its pleasant associations, scarcely known by the outside world; but it has its earnest work and anxietics and hours of exhaustion which, likewise, are not known to those who think the business all fun. The idea that newspaperdom is a charmed circle where the favored

HALF ALIVE. It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain, but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings. In nine cases out of ten this state of lassi ude and terpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every func-tion interrupted. Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The sys-tem needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterward into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to), but radically and permanently.

stimulant were resorted to), but radically and permanently. How is this desirable object to be accom-plished! The answer to this question, found-ed on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is a easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but wake the System up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and en-ergy, the great organ upon which all the other ergy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support. By the time that a dozen doses of the great By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Asiatic Cholera in China Almost Every Case Cured With PAIN KILLER

[From Rev. R. Telford, Missionary in China, now visiting his home in Penn.]

WASHINGTON, Penn. Dear Sirs :-- During a residence of some ten years as a missionary in Siam and China, I found your Vegetable Pain Killer a most valuable remedy for that fearful scourge, the Cholera. In administering the medicine I found it most effectual to give a teaspoonful of Pain editors and reporters, and printers, work Killer in a gill of hot water sweetened with harder and chenper than the same number sugar; then, after about fifteen minutes, beof men in any other profession requiring gin to give about a teaspoonful of the same mixture every few minutes until relief was obtained. Apply hot applications to the extremities. Bath the stomach with the Pain Killer, clear, and rub the limbs briskly. Of those who had the Cholera, and took the medicine faithfully in the way stated above, eight of ten recovered.

Truly yours, K. TELFORD.

ROBBING THE GOVERNMENT.

Another superlatively "loyal" collector of internal revenue has robbed the Government. This time, he lives in Kansas, and only steals one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

These robberies have become so frequent that they attract but little attention. Since Hiram Ulysses stumbled into the Presidential chair the Government has been robbed of over six millions of dollars, by Radical office-holders, that we know of. How many millions more have been stolen without being publicly mentioned, is beyond computation.

And do they not receive their proportion (the lion's share, probably,) of the illgotten gains? Either they are knaves or they are fools. If they are not themselves incompetent for the positions they hold. Else, why do they not put a stop to this shameful pillage of the public treasury? No individual of the public treasury?

A most melancholy accident. resulting in the instant death of two young men in the neighborhood of Pleasant Lane Postoffice, Edgefield county, eight miles North of the Court House, occurred on Saturday night, the 24th inst. Three young men were on an opossum hunt, and in felling a tree in which they supposed their game had sought refuge, an adjacent dead tree also fell, instantly killing two young men, William Timmerman and William Dean. This truly sad accident has cast a gloom over the entire community. One of the deceased young men leaves a wife and one child, dependent upon her neighbors for a support.

A Boston Molocaust.

[From the Boston Advertiser, Sept. 24.]

A horrible affair occurred just before midnight last night, in one of the miserable houses on Young's court, leading from North street, between Richmond and Cross streets. Nearly every one who frequents State street and that vicinity must remember the elderly blind man who was so often to be seen in and about Exchange street, mutely begging from day to day. His name was John O'Connor, and he lived with his wife Mary and a daughter The question suggests itself, are not some of the higher officials at Washing-ton parties to these gigantic robberies? receiving aid to inform the public that this old man was in the habit of get-ting intoxicated by means of the funds which charitable passers dropped into his ever-extended cap, and last night the partners in these thefts, they are utterly whole family was in that unfortunate condition. About a quarter of an hour incompetent for the positions they hold. before 12, when it is supposed that members live a life of ease and tree from care, and go to the circus at night on a free ticket and to the springs on a free pass in the summer, is an idea which we desire to explore practically and theoretically. Business is business, and the journal that succeeds is the one that is run on a square business footing, the same as banking or building bridges, keeping a hotel or running a livery stable.

Bowie and His Knite!

James Bowie, the inventor or discoverer of the terrible weapon which has immortalized his pame, was as utterly a fearless man as ever was born. He was full of enthusiasm over the fatal superiority of come to us in great numbers for medicine and his knife, and discussed the matter with advice. Though without medical knowledge all the zeal of an inventor and the erudition of an expert. A huge Spaniard once argued the case with Bowie, claiming that their physicians, that we have almost daily a good old "Spanish knife" was not only applications. In diarrhœa, col-argument only hardened the opinions and ic, vomiting, cholera, coughs, etc., your PAIN tween these two worthies; they differed, and they wanted each to prove himself right in a fair and unanswerable way. The left arms of these philosophers were tied together from the wrists to the elbows-there was a moment's pause, each nerving himself for the horrid work; the word was given-an instant and sudden "jerk" by Bowie gave him the chance to drive his knife into the body of the Spaniard, sinking it to the very hilt. The Spaniard dropped, Bowie catching the body on his knee. Then, to make sure the Spaniard's body, drew it out, follow-ed by the spouting blood, cut the cord that bound their arms, and allowed the dead Spaniard to fall to the earth as indif-aug 21-2tawtf-Tn Sat ferently as though it had only been the carcass of a hog. Thus was the supremacy of Jim's knife fairly, fearfully, and triumphantly vindicated, and it remains unchallenged by rival until this very day.

The War and Emigration.

Some 4,200 emigrants arrived at this port during last week, which would give a total of considerably over 200,000 per annum. These figures show that the war has not by any means put an end to emigration Thousands of those in humble pects. It is furthermore highly probable that this war will stimulate a new class of emigration hither. We refer to the French, whose possessions are now being despoiled or devoured by the "invaders," who see the savings of years destroyed in a few hours, and who, like our Southern coun-

FUNGCHOW, CHINA. Dear Sirs :- During a long residence in China I have used your invaluable Pain Killer, both in my own family and among the Chinese, and have found it a most excellent medicine. In the summer of 1862-'63, while residing in Shanghai, I found it almost a certain cure for Cholera, if used in time. Indeed, using it in a great many instances, I do not remember failing in a single case. For three years I have been residing in this place, more than fifty miles from a physician, an I have been obliged often to fall upon my own resources in cases of sickness.
