Tournaments.
There is to be a Tournament at Wilmington, Sampson county, on the 20th inst. Knights from every where are invited to participate.

Saratoga Show, the latest styles, at Plabiate & Bro's.
Before this Court, yesterday morning, Samuel Collins was arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Unavailable Letters.
The following is a list of the unavailable letters remaining in the post office October 12th:

Another Bank Need.
The demands of the times, we are told by business men, call for the establishment of another bank in Wilmington.

Committed for Lunacy.
A colored youngster, giving his name as Wm. Campbell, to whose arrest by Detectives Sellers and Carr, we referred a day or two since, was arraigned before Justice McQuigg.

The LeBelle Kid.
The LeBelle Kid, Glove, the best in America, for $1.50. Every pair warranted.

Burglary.
On Tuesday night the residence of Capt. J. B. Higgins, on Dock, between Seventh and Eighth streets, was entered by a burglar.

Our Old Business.
A beautiful Iowa burlesque is getting rich. Portland has made another big justice of the peace.

Widowers' children.
Widowers' children always receive a great deal of attention from all the ladies, whether they are married themselves or have daughters to dispose of.

An Iowa bride.
An Iowa bride, according to a journal of that State, is a merry, warm-hearted, level-headed, truthful, little angel, manufactured expressly for the chap who got her.

A married ceremony.
A married ceremony was brought to an abrupt termination at Empson, N. C., last week, by a sudden awakening of conscience on the part of the bride, who declared that she had a husband still alive.

These burglaries.
These burglaries have become to be of a daily occurrence. One citizen stands all locked up in his room, and another is being fore-retiring at night.

Next month we give thanks.
The spots on the sun are wonderful.

The new muffs have small looking glasses.
A man who works with a will - Out of date Judge.

The county wants to borrow money at large interest.
The City Court, James O. B. and now selling at 100.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet to-day.
Cakes and puffs over-ripe are now entirely obsolete.

Fall and winter clothing has not been such appreciated yet.
Sun is said to make an agreeable mixture with smoking tobacco.

Bell crowned, with wide curling hair, is the new style for gentlemen's hats.
Special meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The Steamship Rebecca Clyde, Capt. Childs, arrived from Baltimore yesterday.
The oyster business is rather dull here just now in consequence of the weather.

The ugly holes on Princess street, in front of the Court House, are to be filled up.
The Wilmington Mutual Enterprise Company will hold a meeting this evening, at the Freedmen's Savings Bank, Dock street.

A jury will soon be summoned to condemn Miller street, in order to construct a sidewalk between Oakdale and Pine Forest Cemeteries.
Comfort for smokers and chewers - the London Leaf, the highest medical authority in England, thoroughly believes in the use of tobacco.

The weather yesterday was in striking contrast with that of Tuesday, being mild, pleasant and sunny.
The feathers on huzzets this season are placed on the side instead of on top, as formerly.

At Mrs. Lumaden's Emporium of Fashion can be found all the latest styles.
The shawl suits, now so popular, are made of the old-fashioned gentlemen's long hair, and are much more overstocked, and more in season than now-a-days.

We were requested to state that the Mechanics Association will hold a meeting of their association, at 7 o'clock, at their Hall, on Mr. S. W. Wall's Addition Room on Water street.
Mr. W. T. Dabson, News Depot, on Second between Market and Princess streets, has my thanks for late numbers of the Chimney Corner, N. Y. Weekly and Ledger.

Mr. Daniels keeps all the latest periodicals, &c.

These, with all other popular literary and fashion publications, can be found at his stand.
Late Tuesday evening a hat was picked up on Market, between Fifth and Sixth streets, by a policeman, which is supposed to have been lost by some weather-beaten pedestrian during the gale.

It appears to be a very good one and but lately purchased.
Mr. Haddock requests us to state that one thousand impressions of the City Directory will be run off to-day, and it is important that all advertisers should have their copy as early as possible in the forenoon, so they can be inserted in the first edition.

The announcement of the death of Gen. Lee caused a feeling of intense sorrow in our community yesterday, which found vent in expressions of profound regret whether the mortal intelligence was reported, or whether the public has had one of her best, bravest and most devoted soldiers, Christian soldiers and patriots.

A splendid Premium.
The silver cup to be presented by Messrs. Williams & Murchison to the farmer exhibiting the best bales of cotton at the approaching Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, is certainly one of the most elegant and unique specimens of workmanship it has ever been our good fortune to look at.

Whoever becomes the fortunate possessor of the article will find it a superb and dazzling ornament and reward for well directed energies and skill in the cultivation of the soil, which will be impossible for him to look upon without pride. In getting up such a handsome premium for the purpose designed, is another evidence of the public spirit and enterprise which has always characterized the firm in its dealings with the public.

The cup, which cost $75, bears the following inscription:
Presented by Williams & Murchison, Merchants of Wilmington, N. C., to the farmer exhibiting the best bale of cotton exhibited at the Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, November, 1870.
