

THE MORNING STAR is delivered to city subscribers at FIFTEEN CENTS per week. Subscribers North of the center of Market Street will be supplied by Mr. W. L. HARLOW...

Obituary notices, tributes of respect, &c., are charged half advertising rates when paid for in advance of publication. In all other cases full advertising rates will be charged.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE MORNING STAR IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW ENGLAND'S LAST HOBBY.

A Penitentiary-discipline Congress is in session at the North. The object is to ameliorate the severities of prison life. Parlor and feather beds will probably be recommended for convicts.

OYSTER WARS.

Every fall there is an oyster war between Maryland and Virginia—or between certain of their citizens who subsist by procuring bivalves for other people's consumption.

RUSSIA.

Russia, it is believed, is at present negotiating with Prussia for a revision of the Treaty of Paris, by which the Czar will be permitted to rebuild the fortifications of Sebastopol and place a fleet of men-of-war on the Black Sea.

THE CABINET.

On Friday last Secretary Cox, of the Interior Department, tendered his resignation to the President, who, it is understood, has accepted it, to take effect when the annual report of the Department shall have been made.

LO! THE POOR NEGRO.

A negro in Boston lately undertook to walk 36 hours without rest, and succeeded. When he began to suffer, which was at the end of 25 hours, he "obtained relief by placing his hands on his knees and walking sideways."

The Great and Faithful A. P. HILL.

The New York World says: If the wandering, death-bed utterances of the two great Confederates chieftains, "Stonewall" Jackson and Robert E. Lee, may be considered as final upon the matter, then the late Confederate General A. P. Hill, who lost his life at the closing battle of the war, must be accepted by history as the most trusted coadjutor of these eminent commanders.

What a Conservative is. The New York Tribune having declared that it had never been able to make out exactly what a Conservative is, the Express talks to it as follows: "We will try to enlighten our neighbors. Negatively, then, a Conservative is just the opposite of a Radical. He is neither a destroyer of the State nor of Federal and State Constitutions."

MISCELLANEOUS.

HARDWARE.
