— Clothing at Fishblate & Bro's.

Thermometer.

The following was the range of the Thermometer in this office, yesterday, at the different hours named: 9, 12, 3 and 6 o'clock:

9	12	3	6
71	73	73	73

— New and Fresh Goods received by every steamer at Fishblate's.

A Novelty in Fashion.

A new thing in dresses is the "ditrailleuse"—a very heavy silk, in color steel-gray; made with plain waist, two skirts, and trimmed with fluting, which bear in the eyes of a modiste some likeness to gun barrels.

— Flannels, Shirts and a large line of Domestic Goods, cheap at Fishblate's.

Abusing Animals.

Thomas Morris, colored, was arraigned before Justice McQuigg, yesterday, on the charge of abusing animals. He was required to give security in the sum of $50 for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

— A full line of Gents' Furnishing Goods at Fishblate's.

Tourism No. 2.

We learn that about fifteen knights have already entered the lists for the contest in the "Grand Married Tournament" to come off during Fair week, reference to which is made in another column. This will doubtless be one of the features of the occasion and add much to the enjoyment of the visitors to our Fair.

— Silk and Velvet Ribbons very cheap at Fishblate's.

City Court.

The following cases were brought before this tribunal and disposed of yesterday; Wm. Wingfield, charged with drunkenness. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Wm. Robinson, Thos. Jones, John Norwood and Henry McRae, charged with disorderly conduct, were found guilty and required to pay the penalty and costs.
Fanny Evans, charged with petty larceny, was found guilty and required to pay the penalty and costs.

W. C. & Rutherford Railroad.

President Martin and his party returned from their brief excursion on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad yesterday. They report the road from this place to Abbotshurg in a fair condition. That part of it west of Abbotshurg they found in a very good condition, comparing favorably with any road south of Virginia. Freight and ticket agencies have been established at all needed points on the road and in a short time tickets will be for sale at every station. The road has been extended about half mile, crossing the Well's Ferry road, thereby securing a considerable amount of cotton for this market. The reduction of freight to $1.50 per bale from the head of the road will aid materially in effecting this.

Cotton, they inform us, is looking fine. The season has been very favorable for picking and labor attainable at fair prices. Several light frosts have left their impress upon the leaves, but without resulting in any damage.

They found the people along the line of the road in very good spirits, in view of the good crops which have appeared these years this year and the marked improvement which has lately taken place in the prices of the staple.

Grand Married Tournament.

The young married men of Wilmington, feeling themselves aggrieved by being merely because they are married ruled out of the Grand Tournament to take place at the Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, have decided to get up an opposition Tournament for the benefit of married men exclusively.

The following are the rules and regulations to govern the Knights on the occasion:
The entire distance to be run—75 yards.
Time allowed—50 minutes.
Posts, rings and bars to be 30 feet apart.

First—A post 3 feet 1 1/2 inches high, with a cabbage-head (to be furnished by D. Klein, at the head of the Market) on top; to be split by the "right out" and counted as 2.
Second—A ring, the diameter of the latest style of hoop skirt, "hand-made" (proper size to be furnished by A. D. Brown, corner of Market and Front streets); to be taken by a "force poke" and counted as a nuisance.

Third—A post 5 feet high, surmounted by a pumpkin, to be furnished by Adrian & Vollers, Wholesale Grocers, corner of Dock and Front streets); to be taken and not "left," but carried off, on the point of the sabre, and to count some pumpkins.

Fourth—A ring the diameter of a molasses hoghead hoop (to be furnished by Worth & Work, Commission Merchants and Importers of Molasses, North Water street); to be pierced by both riders and animal, and carried off—all together counting as 3.

Fifth—A post 10 feet 2 inches high, crowned by a specimen of the latest style of bonnet (to be furnished by L. Flanagan, Confectionery, Fancy Articles and Millinery, South side Market street.) Glasses will be furnished the Knights, through which to take an observation of this object, which is to be reached in the manner most convenient to the Knights, and carried off by "the most unkindliest cut of all," and to be no count at all.

Sixth—A bar—about 3 1/2 inches high.—Clearing the bar properly will count immensely. It must be taken into a count that this bar is not of the same character as that which the unmarried Knights find so hard to pass.

Insurable Life Insurance Agents will be on the spot to insure the lives of the Cavalierous Knights before undertaking this dangerous feat.

Messrs. Yopp & Woolvin, Undertakers, corner Second and Princess streets, have kindly offered to furnish posts, bars, and any thing else in their line which may be needed, on the occasion.

Messrs. Broek and Webb, proprietors of the Globe Saloon, Front street, also volunteered to furnish a Bar, but were referred to the unmarried Tournament.

A Carving Knife of an unusual size (to be furnished by G. A. Peck, Hardware Merchant, on Front street) to be used instead of the Regulation Cavalry Sabre.

Knights intending to ride, will please communicate with the undersigned, who can be found at the office of W. L. Smith & Co. (Fire, Life and Marine Insurance Agents, on Front street, at the earliest possible moment.

Number of Knights limited to 500.
Stables and feed will not be furnished free of charge to either animals or Knights.

The successful Knight will crown the Queen of Love and Duty, who will be somebody else's wife—of course!

The three next successive Knights, will each also, be allowed on this gay and festive occasion to crown somebody else's wife.

The Coronation will take place immediately after the Tournament, in front of the Grand Stand, and will be followed by a Tea Party to be given by the Queen at her own house the same evening, to which each of the 500 Knights will expect an invitation for himself and the Queen of his Soul.

PRIZES.

The following prizes will be awarded:
First Prize—The most successful Knight, a Baby Cradle—suggestive of domestic felicity.
Second Prize—The second Knight, a Family Jar—suggestive of little pickles.
Third Prize—The third Knight, a Splittoon—suggestive of a clean heartstone.
Fourth Prize—A Market Basket—suggestive of household comforts, but which very often brings in a family jar.

The crowns to be in the form of a pudding pan, surrounded by a skein of darning cotton.
The Queen to be also presented with a broom as a scepter and the Maids of Honor with the following badges of office—1st Maid of Honor with a gingham Housekeeper's Apron. 2d Maid of Honor with a Key Basket. 3rd Maid of Honor with a Thimble.

Entrance fee 50 cents, (to be paid in advance.
MATTHEW P. TAYLOR.

— Another lot of those stylish Saratoga Shawls just received at Fishblate's, 23 Market street.

Jail Delivery.

By persons who came down on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford road yesterday, we learn that there was a general jail delivery at Lumberton on Friday night. There were some half a dozen prisoners and were not as yet recaptured. The jail, we learn, is built of logs, and is very insecure. It is said that a cart could be driven through the space in the wall where the prisoners made their exit.

For the Senate.

At a meeting of the Conservative Executive Committee, held in this city yesterday, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the Conservative papers of this city be requested to present Madison Bellamy as the choice of Brunswick county for the State Senate, and to ask his earnest support by the voters of New Hanover county.

The election takes place on Thursday next, and we trust every Conservative in New Hanover and Brunswick counties will go to the polls and cast his vote for Marsden Bellamy.

— Fishblate & Bro. have just received a large stock of Ready Made Clothing, which they will sell at extremely low prices.

Local Notes.

— Wasp waists are fading.
— Grapes in market yesterday.
— Some folks don't like the "shawl suit."

— Powdered borax is said to be a great roach exterminator.
— To cure sleeplessness, take the eye-balls and roll them round.

— Fanny Evans, colored, was sent to the Work House yesterday.
— The Board of County Commissioners will be in session to-morrow.

— The pews in St. James' Church will be rented at auction to-morrow, at the Church.
— Price, the Republican candidate for Senator, speaks at Mars Bluff, Brunswick county, to-morrow.

— The days continue unusually warm for the season. The nights are characterized by sudden changes.

— The finder of a tame squirrel with a brass chain round his neck can learn the name of the owner by calling at this office.

— Rev. Mr. Burr, in the absence of the pastor, will preach at St. Paul's (Lutheran) Church this morning. There will be no services at night.

— Dr. Frazier, G. G. French, J. C. Hill, Wm. McLaurin and others will address the Republicans at the City Hall on Wednesday night.

— Miss Mattie Adams took the prize of the golden apple as the handsomest woman at the Georgia State Fair. Who will take the premium at our Fair?

— It is rumored that our quondam "neighbor-in-law," Gee Zee, will resign his position as a member of the House of Representatives of the next Legislature.

— Doctor Edward Charles Augustus Cowan Powell was sent to the Orphan Asylum, yesterday, together with an extra blank book in which to enroll his name.

— A gentleman of this city who paid his wife's milliner's bill the other day, says the siege of Paris hasn't had half the effect upon the fashions that he supposed it would.

— Reserved seats can be obtained at Heinsberger's Book Store by those who expect to witness the performances of the Davenport Brothers and the Worrell Sisters this week.

— Some of W. H. Moore's friends from Long Creek were claiming, yesterday, that he would get two-thirds of the Republican votes at that point for Senator. What Moore could he ask?

— At the Republican meeting at Lillington on Saturday, Price made a speech and was replied to by Moore, after which Nathan Sampson and Dr. Frazier spoke. The attendance was not large.

— Mr. J. W. Conoley, Pharmacist, has purchased the entire interest of Mr. J. A. Mebane in the Drug Store on the corner of 4th and Campbell streets. His store will be open every Sunday from 6 A. M. until 10 P. M.

— Mebane's Drug Store is the place for the sick and the afflicted, the halt and the lame to get their medicines to-day. If they go anywhere else South of the Railroad they will be greeted with the peremptory exclamation, "shut up!"

— Many of those who take delight in "temples," indulge in this healthy pastime at the "Wilmington Garden" during the week. Col. Klein is always on hand to administer to their wants, and never D. Klein's (declines) to do so when called upon.

— Quite an exciting race occurred on Market street last evening, over an individual of the genus Africanus, who, "loving not wisely but too well," eloped with a side of bacon. He was overhauled in his precipitate flight and marched to the Gas and House.

— The officers and members of the "Female Benevolent Society" are requested by the President, Mrs. C. J. Kennedy, to meet next Tuesday afternoon, November 8th, 1870, at the residence of Mr. John A. Taylor, at 4 o'clock. Punctual attendance is desired.

— Jailor Nash, just returned from Raleigh, where he went to convey a brace of Penitentiary "birds," reports that he had ocular demonstration of the fact that the notorious Pat. 2 is still an inmate of that institution, his boasts of an early escape to the contrary notwithstanding. He has made several attempts to escape but has failed in every instance.

— Real French Wore Corsets for $1 at Fishblate & Bro's.

The Grand Distribution.

The N. C. Beneficial Association announce a Grand Single Number Distribution of Prizes to take place Dec. 1st. These prizes consist of valuable real estate, pianos, diamonds, jewelry, &c., and offer the most tempting inducements to those who are disposed to "try their luck."

The capital prize consists of a piece of property valued at $5,000, which somebody must get for the small sum of five dollars. Then, there are two prizes of $2,500 each, two of $2,000 each, two of $1,000 each, and many others ranging in value from $500 to $50.

But the natural inquiry of the public will be, "Is this the thing a humbug?" And on this point we can say that we believe the drawing will be conducted fairly and honestly and that the prizes will be delivered to the holders of the successful tickets. The drawing will take place, whether the tickets are all sold or not; but it must be borne in mind that all unsold tickets belong to the Association, and if those tickets draw the prizes the latter, of course, belong to the Association. The tickets, however, as we learn, are being rapidly disposed of, and the probabilities are that they will all be sold.

The drawing will take place in the Theatre, which has been leased for the purpose, and will be conducted by sworn commissioners.

— Kid Gloves, warranted; if they rip or tear another pair will be given in exchange, at Fishblate & Bro's, 23 Market street.

A Man Attacked with Hemorrhage and Bloods Nearly to Death on the Street.

Yesterday, about 12 o'clock, a colored man by the name of James Knight, employed as a ferryman, while on the street near the Washington Market, was seized with a hemorrhage of the lungs and stomach and discharged a large quantity of blood from his mouth. Those who were present say it came from him in a perfect stream, and that he must have lost considerably upwards of a half gallon before the effusion was checked. He was so exhausted that he sank upon the pavement, when a physician was sent for. At his own request he was subsequently taken to his friends on the opposite side of the river, where he resides, and where, at last accounts, he was lying in a critical condition. He is said to have had three or four similar attacks within the past week or two, but with a much less effusion of blood.

Davenport Brothers.

These "incomprehensible mysteries" as they are termed by our Richmond and Norfolk exchanges, will open at the Theatre in this city to-night. In the two cities above named they have been greeted by large and appreciative audiences. For years past their performances have been the wonder and astonishment of the two continents, and though many efforts have been made and are constantly being repeated, to solve the mysteries which attend their exhibitions, they have never yet been satisfactorily accounted for. Those who have undertaken the task have invariably confessed themselves completely mystified as to the means or agencies by which they accomplished their surprising results. They will remain here for two nights only, and those who wish to secure reserved seats should apply at Heinsberger's Book Store at once.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

— Washington had frost on Tuesday.
— The Chatham railroad is progressing finely.
— Stokes county contains a population of 11,210.
— Bishop Gibbons is to be in Newbern next Friday.
— Peach and plum trees are blossoming down about Newbern.
— An interesting revival is in progress in the Methodist Church at Winston.

— Benjamin Bynum, of Stokes county, had his pocket picked of $175, at the Danville Fair, last week.
— Two children, Koss Lee Bittler and Martha Ann Brown, were killed by the falling of a tree in Forsyth county last week.
— There are only three persons in Forsyth county jail awaiting trial at the fall term of the Superior Court, which opens next Monday.

— The Washington Intelligencer says: Mr. Jacob Swindell will have an exhibition at the Wilmington Fair, a quantity of Cranberries, also the Chinese Yam.
— The Western Vindicator says: Mrs. Fannie Edwards, of Paik, recently became the mother of triplets. One of the infants died—the other two are doing well. None got away! Hurrah for Polk county!

Our Chip Basket.

— Mattiness originated in Philadelphia.
— Mrs. Lincoln is paying a visit in Scotland.
— Life in Chicago is said to be much "divorced."
— Mrs. Emily Stalker has been ordained in the Iowa ministry.
— The hardest thing to hold in this world is an un-bly tongue. It beats a hot smoothing iron and kicking horses considerably.
— "Mary," said an old lady, "it is a very solemn thing to get married." "I know it, mother," replied Mary, "but it is a solemn thing not to."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A CARD TO SENSIBLE PEOPLE.
Rational reader, if the aspect of the weather was uncertain, you would not be foolish enough to venture out without an overcoat or an umbrella. Have the forecast, then to protect yourself at this dangerous season with something more important than either of these articles. Strengthen your stomach and nervous system; regulate your liver and your bowels, tone all your organs and cheer your animal spirits with that agreeable cordial, tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. So shall you surely escape the diseases which fasten upon the feeble and debilitated. "Suffer and be strong," says the proverb; but "Be strong that you may not suffer" is the wisest maxim—and all of strengthening preparations this is the safest, the surest, the most genial. As a remedy, as well as an antidote, for dyspepsia, fever and ague, and liver disease, there is no combination of vegetable specifics at present known which even approaches it in efficacy.
Anticipate the anxiety. The elements of innumerable diseases are afloat in the raw, damp, mephitic winter air. Will you defend yourself against them or not, good reader! This is the question. A bottle or two of the GREAT PREVENTIVE MEDICINE OF THE AGE, Hostetter's Bitters, will so strengthen and brace up your bodily powers as to enable them to "laugh a siege to scorn." The morbid matter which was exhaled in perspiration through your pores in summer finds no such free exit now. Powerful counteracting agents are therefore needed, and you have it in Hostetter's Bitters. They neutralize the malarious miasma from which disease originates, and regulate all the secretory organs. Nothing can be more harmless or more healthful—nothing so potent to prevent or cure biliousness, dyspepsia, fever and ague, constipation and general debility, as this wonderful corrective.

Philosophy and Physic,

AT THE LIVE BOOK STORE.
A STRANGE mixture indeed, but a splendid one withal. Philosophy is called by the poets, "Adversity's sweet milk," and Physic is cast by them "the dog's still; we have no "beggarly account of empty boxes," but a choice selection of books, such as Tanner's Practice, Basedow on the Diseases, Tanner's Practice of Children, Thomas, Diseases of Women, &c., &c. Philosophy, too, from the stoic to the modern.
"Extensive source of evidence and truth."
Call and see, and talk down grief—Heinsberger will do all that.
