A BEAST BOTLER IN PETTI COATS. On Saturday night of last week, a re

spectably attired woman called at the house of the Mayor of Washington, who was receiving her friends; sta that she had called to pay her respects, and added that, as she was quite hungry, she would go to the supper room. She was shown the way to the entables, and after a time, baying staid so long over the refreshments as to excite curiosity, the hostess descended to the dining room to ascertain something more concerning her, when it was discovered that the lady had taken her leave by the back gate, having previously possessed herself of a number of articles of silver ware, such as spoons, forks, salt holders, nankin rings, &c.

A NEW SECT IN THE EAST. A new sect called the Oriental Catholics. has appeared in the East. A considerable body of the Armenians, from political motives, left the Gregorian Communion, and put themselves under the Pope. His legate, thicking his dominion safe, has pressed his rule too severely, and the consequence is, a large portion of the Catholic Armenians have seperated, and de manded from the Porte a distinct jurisdiction, and a distribution of the common property. One effect will be to produce still closer political and social relations with the Gregorian and Protestant Arme-TO A PRESENTAL ALLES

UNION OF BAPTISTS AND CAMP. BRUITER

An important movement is in progres in Ohio, which tends to a union of the Baptists and Campbellites or "Christians," of that State. The latter sect have three hundred and fifty churches and 30,000 members, and would make a formidable accession to the Baptists. The Campbellites have submitted a number of propositions upon which it is thought both parties could unite.

A WORKING DENOMINATION. Within a little more than eight years the Wesleyan Methedists of London have erected nearly thirty large church edifices at the cost of about £150,000, ($750,000!)
