The following is a synopsis of the weather reports for the past 24 hours : The storm yesterday evening, centering in Toronto, Canada, has moved to Bangor. Fresh west and northwest winds have generally prevailed, increasing to brick winds on the Atlantic coast. It has almost complete-ly cleared away at all points except on the Lower Lakes.

The barometer has risen slowly in the southwestern States, but has fallen very rapidly in the Northwest, with decidedly inreased temperature.

Probe

Fair weather and fresh winds are expected for Tuesday on the Galf and At'antic coasts it is probable that a storm is moving from)akota Territory towards the southeast.

THE BOBESON OUTLAWS. LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY. Capture of Henderson Oxendine. We learn from an extra from the office of the Lumberton Robesolan, a copy of which was kindly furnished us by Capt. Wooten, of "Wooten's Express," that a party of citizens arrived in that town on Sunday evening last, having in charge Henderson Oxendine. a member of the Lowrey band of desperadoes. and one of the murderers of Sheriff King, being among the number who escaped from the jail in this city in May last.

The leader of the gallant party who effected the capture of Oxendine, states that he learned a lew days ago that the wife of Geo. Applewhite one of the outlaws, was about ito be confined in child-bed, and apposing that her husband would consequently be likely to be lurking about home, he went quietly to work and formed a party of reliable men to attempt the capture of this notorious outlaw and condemaed murderer. For this purpose the party proceeded to the house of George Applewhite on Saturday night last, about 10 o'clock. Remaining in ambush near the honse until daylight, they suddenly closed around the same and demanded admittance. Finding their efforts to gain admission in this way fatile, the party broke down the door and rushed in. In the front room they found no one but the sick wife of Applewhite, with two or three small children. Proceeding to a back room, however, they recognized, lying quietly in bed. and apparently fast asleep, the stalwart form of Henderson Oxendine, and by his side his brother, "Pop" Oxendine, the former wearing a repeater in his belt, and having a fine double barreled gun standing near the head of his bed. They offered no resistance, but quietly surrendered and were carried directly to Lumberton, where they were lodged in jail and secured with heavy irons. Henderson Oxendine states that Applewhite had left the house about 9 o'clok on Saturday the report in the Sentinel :-SENATE.

FRIDAY NIGHT, 24th. Senate met according to adjournment. Mr. Flemming moved to reconsider the ote by which the Senate defeated a resolution in favor of the administrators of Gov. Worth; failed. The resolution anthorizes the payment of $2,000 on account of house rent during his term of office. A bill chartering the Charlotte and Catawba Railroad Company, was read and passed its third reading. It appropriates no public money; defeated. A bill to charter the Eastern Bank of North Carolina, to be organized when $30,000 are subscribed and paid in. Mr. Love asked the indulgence of the Senate to introduce a bill and make an explanation, which being accorded he proceeded, and disclosed the fact that the Secretary of State was getting too much money, and proceeded to show the "hole where the money came through." He said his bill would bung it up. SENATE.

SATURDAY, Feb. 25, 1871.

Mr. Albright moved to reconsider the vote by which the Charlotte and Catawba Railroad charter was lost. Mr. Cowles moved to postpone the consideration of the motion to reconsider until Tuesday morning 104 A. M. He stated that he might conclude to support the bill, but he desired to have a conference with its triends first. Adopted.

Message from the House announcing the passage of a substitute in lieu of Senate bill relative to Cape Fear Navigation Company.

Mr. Troy said he hoped the resolution would be adopted. It refers to a question divided. He wished to be understood as he (Ivison Warren) was not whipped very badly: Jack Patillo, the other, was there and was badly beaten, so much so, I went for a physician, Dr. Walker, who came to. relieve him; he was disabled nearly two the house of Patillo was torn down; a gallows was erected near by, with six grape vines swinging, with graves marked, and a notice, "no more building-From K. K. K." I have never seen any other disguised persons except this night; this whipping occurred about 11 miles from Orange line. The feeling between the two races, I don't know: I didn't know any of the disguised men.

Wm. F. Simpson sworn : Age 51; lives in Alamance; have seen disguised persons about November last a year ago; party came to my house after 10 o'clock; heard a noise, got up and opened the door; stepped outside; they came around both sides of the house and caught hold of my arms; they had on white gowns; heads covered with cloths and tags; they led me down the lane; there was about nine in the party; I asked what I had done for them to treat me so ; the biggest one said, having been cursing about pretty extensively, &c., a certain party, they gave me about 25 lashes; blood was drawn; considerable whelks on my body; I knew none of them ; there has been no prosecution for this outrage; one of the reasons was for allowing a negro to live on my land.

James R. Fonville sworn: Lives in Graham, Alamance county: 65 years old; shoemaker: I was at home the night of the hanging of Outlaw ; I was aroused at 11 or 12 o'clock by a noise; went to my west door; saw objects, white, in view ; I said here is a Ku Klux, wife, if you want to see one; they kept coming near; I stood till they all went by; all disguised, on horseback; some 75 or 100 in number ; my wife cautioned me about of some interest to the State and one on going up the street to see what was which his constituents were considerably going on; however, I went up to Mr. divided. He wished to be understood as Hunter's piazza; asked where they were; not favoring either side at present, but they afterwards came back by us; I that justice may be done each party he counted them, and they were 36 in numhoped the Committee would be raised ber; next morning I went to the

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Nelson Manuel, charged with disorderly conduct. Judgment for the penalty and costs. Recommended to be reduced one-half. Reuben Looney and Sam. Owens, old of fenders, were arraigned for petty larceny, found guilty and required to pay the penalty and costs.

W. H. Johnston, arrested on Saturday while engaged in peddling brass journals, which he stated he got from the ruins of an old mill at Marlboro' on the Wilmington. Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, but which are believed to belong to one of the Rallroads, He was found guilty and judgment rendered for the penalty and costs.

Explosion of the Texas Bubble.

We learn that the Texas fever, which has been prevailing so fearfully here for some weeks past, has been suddenly "nipped in the bud." It seems that Mr. Deffron, who has been instrumental in inducing so many to come to the conclusion to emigrate to the "Lone Star" State, has, only been acting as the agent of another in the matter, and that he, in obedience to instructions, as we have been informed, had promised, among other things, to furnish the emigrants and their families transportation to their place of destination, the same to be repaid at the convepience of the parties out of the proceeds of their labor after reaching there. Allured by the flattering inducements offered, and without the slightest suspicion of any bad faith in the matter, about a hundred persons had made arrangements to leave, the agent here having received a telegram arging him to have the emigrants all ready for departure on the 1st of March. Acting upon this information the men who had engaged to go commenced selling off their effects, some of them disposing of everything in the way of faralture, and that at a sacrifice, with the exception of one feather bed. But in the midst of their preparations the agent-in-chief makes his appearance, and, to the surprise of all, including Mr. Daffron, repudiates the contract the latter had made, and informs the proposed emigrants that the heads of families would be required to pay down $30 per head for transportation, while their families would be charged full fare. Of course very few could possibly accept of these terms, while many of them now find themselves des but had taken an appeal to the Supreme Court. while Henderson Oxendine and Calvin Oxen dine were awaiting their trial.

Co-Operative Association.

According to notice given, the employees of the different Railroads met at the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad office last evening. Col. S. L. Fremont was called to the Chair and Mr. Shoar requested to act as Secretary. Col. Fremont explained the object of the meeting and asked the views of those present as to the advantage of confining the benefits of the Association to the employees of the Railroads.

Capt. Jno. Hall objected to the idea of confining it to three Railroads and establishing the store at the Railroad.

The Chairman then remarked that it would be a great advantage to the Association to have a store rent free, with goods transported at half rates, and confining the stock to Railroad men exclusively.

Mr. K. McKenzie declaimed against pro scribing mechanics and other laboring men on the grounds of unity and sympathy of feeling for fellow laborers, and did not wish it confined to the Railroads, but that all mechanics and laborers should enjoy the advantagesof the Association.

On motion, the Chairman appointed a Committee consisting of one from each Railroad, viz: Capt. George Hall, Capt. J. F. Devine and Mr. I. T. Alderman, to take into consideration the plan upon which the Association should organize, said Committee to report at meeting to be held next Tuesday night. After considerable discussion the meeting adjourned to meet again on next Tuesday night, at a garter to 8 o'clock, at the same place.

The Board of Algerman.

An adjourned meeting of the Board was held last night, Alderman Chadbourn in the Chair. The Committee on the Fire Department, to whom was referred the matter of the purchase of a steam fire engine for the use of the colored firemen, recommend that immediate steps be taken to purchase and equip a steam fire engine, and further report against the purchase of any second hand engine. The Committee was instructed by the Board to correspond with manufacturers in reference to cost,

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill allowing the Northwestern N. C. R. R. to consolidate with the North Carolina R. R., being the unfinished business its consideration was resumed. The question recurred on the adoption of the amendment, not allowing a change of guage or right to lease or sell any part of the N. C. R. R. The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Waring, the vote by which the amendment in reference to guage, &c., was adopted, was reconsidered.

Messrs. Withers, Phillips, Jones, of Caldwell, Rankin, Harris, of Guiltord, and Tomlinson argued at considerable length against the adoption of the amendment.

Messrs, French, Broadfoot, Strudwick, Johnston of Buncombe, spoke in favor of the passage of the amendment.

After which the vote was taken and the amendment was adopted. By agreement, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow, By Mr. Ashe: A resolution in favor of
