Weather Report.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, March 8—4:35 P. M.

The following is a synopsis of the weather reports for the past 24 hours:

The pressure has diminished with threatening weather on the middle Atlantic and less so with clear weather on the south Atlantic; it has risen with threatening weather on the east Atlantic. The central area of the lowest barometer, which was yesterday evening in Nebraska, has moved very slowly to the southeast and now covers Iowa, Maine and Illonois. Its influence has extended very rapidly to the Gulf and less so towards Lake Ontario.

Heavy rains are reported from the Mississippi Valley, with high and brisk southerly winds from the Gulf to Lakes Michigan and Huron. High northerly winds prevail in Nebraska and fresh winds on the Atlantic coast.

Probabilities.

A severe storm is indicated for to-night and to-morrow for the Gulf; high winds for Thursday on the Lakes; and threatening weather on the South Atlantic, with fresh winds.

"Equinoctial."

An inquirer is informed that the vernal equinox, or the moment when the sun's centre crosses the celestial equator, occurs March 21; but that which is called the equinoctial storm is liable to happen between the 15th and the 27th. It is an extremely uncertain event, however, and some years seems to be omitted or amounts to only a slight drizzle.

Weather Reports.

A difficulty with the Western Union Telegraph Company will occasion a temporary suspension of the telegraphic weather reports of the observer sergeants stationed at different points throughout the country, and as a consequence our usual weather report, by telegraph, will be discontinued for the present. We presume the difficulty will be arranged and the reports resumed in a few days.

Committed for Larceny.

George Owens, colored, charged with larceny, had an examination before W. H. Merrick, J. P., yesterday morning. The evidence being sufficient to convict, defendant was required to enter into security in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

To the Work House.

Jim Bradley, John Brown and Andrew Ellison, all colored, were sent to the Work House yesterday. The latter, who was convicted of drunkenness some weeks since, was bailed on the promise of working out the amount for the person who stood his security, but subsequently refusing to do so he was turned over to the tender mercies of Superintendent VanAmringe.

Mount Olivet Council—Fourth Anniversary.

The Fourth Anniversary of the institution of Mount Olivet Council, No. 9, Friends of Temperance, in this city, will take place this evening. It has been decided to form a procession of the Order at the Council room at 7½ o'clock and from that point proceed to the Mariner's Church on Dock, between Front and Water streets, where an address will be delivered at 8 o'clock by the Secretary of the State Council, R. H. Whitaker, Esq., of Raleigh. The citizens are respectfully invited to attend and hear the address.

We understand that the "Friends" intend to have a good time among themselves after the public ceremonies.

Local Dots.

— Clean the yards and cellars.

— Every farm needs a work bench.

— Plowing too early damages land.

— Charming weather for the past few days.

— Young turnip sprouts make delicious greens.

— You can't put a bullet through thirty sheets of paper.

— Regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day at 12 o'clock.

— Mr. Philip Phillips, the "Singing Pilgrim," lectured in Richmond on Tuesday evening.

—Eli Wyatt, white, and Monroe Johnson and John White, colored, were put on the police force yesterday evening.

— The ladies are "making hay while the sun shines," and "Pa.'s" and "Hubby's" purse are suffering in consequence.

— Friday, the 17th inst., is St. Patrick's Day. We presume our friends of the Hibernian Association are preparing for a big "blow out" on the occasion.

— There are unmailable letters in the post-office for Peter Henderson, N. Y.; Mrs. T. Woodson Clark, Norfolk, Va., and John W. Gregorie, Pocotaligo, S. C.

— We see in the Raleigh Telegram a notice that application will be made to the present General Assembly for an act incorporating the "Daily Dispatch Publishing Company, of Wilmington, N. C."

— We see by the Petersburg Courier that Maj. W. N. Bell, who has for some time past acted as agent of the Southern Express Company in that city, is now Route Agent of the entire line from Richmond to this city.

— Volumes of smoke arising from the woods over in Brunswick, yesterday afternoon, indicated quite an extensive fire in that direction.

— Ex-Coroner Allen is said to be lying at the point of death with typhoid pneumonia.

—As our readers have probably noticed, Messrs. J. F. Garrell and E. C. Stanaland have formed a co-partnership for the transaction of a General Commission business. The new firm will retain the services of Mr. M. U. Fillayson.

Steamer to Smithville—Again.

We are pleased to learn that about $4,700 have been subscribed in his city and Smithville towards purchasing the steamer which it is proposed to run between the two points mentioned. This is very encouraging and would indicate the probability, at least, that the projected enterprise will soon become a reality. Relying upon the judgment of those who ought to know, we are convinced that those who invest in the enterprise will realize a substantial benefit from the same, if not immediately, at least in the not remote future, while to the public—especially pleasure seekers—it will prove a great convenience. There is no reason why Smithville should not be as popular a place of resort in the summer season to our up-country friends as Beaufort or Morehead City, if the proper appliances be provided to make it so.

We hope to hear within the next week at farthest that the necessary amount has been subscribed to insure the purchase of the steamer.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:

Fannie Evans, charged with petty larceny, was found not guilty and discharged.

James Bradley and Millie Bradley, charged with disorderly conduct. Not guilty as to Millie, who was discharged. James Bradley was found guilty and required to pay the penalty and costs.

John Brown, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty. Judgment for the penalty and costs.

Fannie Powell, charged with petty larceny, was found guilty, and judgment rendered for the penalty and costs. Application of complainant for leniency, respectfully forwarded to the Mayor approved, and it is recommended by the Court that she be sent to the Orphan Asylum, or bound to some respectable person, until she becomes of age.

C. McMillan, P. Bowden, Thos. Miller, John Bradley and John Russell, charged with disorderly conduct. Judgment suspended on good behavior and on payment of the costs.

Bishop Gibbon's Lecture.

St. Thomas' church was crowded to its utmost capacity, last evening, to hear the lecture of Bishop Gibbons. We have no intention of giving even the substance of his discourse, but in his allusions to the temporalities of the Pope, he took the ground that the act of Victor Emanuel in seizing Rome was that of an usurper, that Rome was to the Catholic church what Washington City is to the United States, etc. Whatever our convictions may be as to the doctrinal points at issue, we must all concede to Bishop Gibbons the meed of praise as an able speaker, and a deep thinker, with a mind well stored with information. His reputation in this respect suffered no disparagement by his effort last night.

Mr. Hiden's Lecture.

A respectable audience assembled at the First Baptist Church last night to hear the lecture of Rev. Mr. Hiden on the subject of "Symmetrical Culture." We learn that the subject was well handled and that his effort was received with every indication of appreciation by those present. This was the fifth of a serious of lectures which the Rev. gentlemen has delivered during the present season.

Robbery.

We learn that the place known as "Swanfield," a few miles from this city, the property of Dr. J. E. Winants, was visited by robbers yesterday afternoon, while the person in charge was on a visit to this city. Among the articles taken were a number of blankets, carpenters' tools and a bed. No clue to the perpetrators, but we learn that Detectives Sellars and Carr are at work.

The Latest.

A shooting gallery, a telescope and microscope are among the latest "attractions" in our progressive city. By the aid of the latter instruments, at the corner of Front and Market streets, yesterday evening, the curious could indulge in a "peep" at the planet Jupiter, the moon, or a drop of animated water—all for ten cents.

Co-Operative Association.

As announced by an advertisement in this issue, there will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Laboring Men's" Co-operative Association at the hall of the Knights of Pythias, on North Water street, on Friday evening, at 7½ o'clock. All who feel an interest in the cause are invited to be present.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

We make up the following summary of the proceedings of the Legislature from the report in the Sentinel:

SENATE.

EVENING SESSION.

MONDAY, March 6th, 1871.

Called to order, Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, in the chair.

Mr. Warren introduced a resolution relative to the act of Governor Caldwell, and of the Chief Justice and the Associate Justices, relative to the Convention bill, recently passed. It was ordered to be printed and made the special order for next Monday night.

The bill providing for the transfer of one million of the stock of the N. C. R. R. to the Atlantic and N. C. R. R., and also transferring to the latter road that portion of the N. C. R. R. lying between the depot at Raleigh and Goldsboro' was taken up.

It was discussed at length, and finally passed its third reading.

TUESDAY, March 7, 1871.

Mr. Battle moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill making the W. & W. R. R. the dividing line between the counties of Edgecombe and Nash. Senate refused to suspend the rules.

Mr. Latham introduced a bill to submit the question of "Convention or No Convention" to the voters of the State.

On motion of Mr. Latham the bill was ordered to be printed and made special order for Friday night 7½ o'clock.

Mr. Love: A bill to prevent the employment of Attorney by the Heads of Departments, showing in the preamble that they had expended for that purpose, in the fifteen months, preceding Jan. 1st, 1871, the sum of $3,100, besides the salary of the Attorney General, some $1,800 more.

Senate concurred in House amendment to bill to print message of Governor and the Auditor's Report—amendment by striking out "and the Auditor's Report."

Mr. Morehead moved that the Senate concur in House amendment to the bill to incorporate the Petersburg and Greensboro Railroad Company. Prevailed.

Mr. Whitesides, a bill in relation to executors and administrators; referred.

Mr. McClammy, a bill to incorporate the Real Estate Loan and Building Association of the city of Wilmington; referred.

Mr. Flemming, a bill to amend chapter 47, Pub. Laws of North Carolina; referred.

Mr. Linney, a bill in relation to time of holding courts in the Eleventh Judicial District; referred.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, March 7.

Mr. Dudley, colored: A resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to report a bill arming, equipping and organizing the militia of the State; referred.

By Mr. Broadfoot: A bill to prevent the sale of liquor within three miles of Cedar Creek Landing, Cumberland county; referred.

By Mr. Stanford: A bill to incorporate the Kinston and Kenansville R. R. Co.; referred.

By Mr. Hardy: A bill appointing a Commission, consisting of Hon. Thomas Bragg, S. F. Phillips and E. G. Reade, to ascertain the debt of the State; referred.

By Mr. McCauley: A bill to enforce the better collection of taxes; referred.

By Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe: A bill to amend the act to suspend the Code of Civil Procedure in certain cases; referred.

By Mr. Hargrove: A bill to incorporate the Oxford and Henderson Railroad; referred.

On motion of Mr. Baxton, the bill to incorporate the Naval Extension Railroad Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the bill to appoint an Assistant Geologist to operate in the 8th and 7th Congressional districts, was taken up.

Mr. Robinson moved to strike out from the bill the proviso, offered yesterday, which gives the Geologist $2000 per year and the Assistant $1000.

A vote was taken and the motion to strike out prevailed.

After a lengthy debate the previous question was called. The amendments pending were voted down and the bill passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. French, the resolution in relation to the Waccamaw and Little River Canal Company was taken up and passed its third reading.

By Mr. Phillips: A bill to incorporate the town of Carey, Wake county; referred.

By the same: A bill to incorporate the Raleigh Farmers' and Merchant's Manufacturing Company; referred.

By Mr. Ashe: A resolution in reference to the late message of acting Governor Caldwell in relation to the Convention question. [The resolution is a lengthy and able statement of the whole question, and will be soon published in full. Its great length prevents its publication in this report.]

After being read the resolution was, on motion of Mr. Ashe, referred to a select Committee of 5.

The Chair announced Messrs. Ashe, Justice, Darden, Stanford and McAllister as the select Committee on Mr. Ashe's resolution in relation to Gov. Caldwell's message.

On motion of Mr. Justice, the bill in relation to the fees of County officers was taken up.

Pending any definite action the House adjourned.

HIGH COURT OF IMPEACHMENT.

[Condensed from the Daily Telegram.]

TUESDAY, March 7.

Chief Justice Pearson appeared, at 11, A. M., and took the Chair.

WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE.

Judge Wm. J. Clarke sworn: My headquarters, as Colonel of the 1st regiment, North Carolina militia, was on the eastern floor of the Capitol; while there, Patton, who was a witness here, came there; he was not under guard; I spoke to him of the troubles in Alamance, and how I thought the innocent should not suffer, &c.; he made no confession till the third day; I considered him a half-witted man; I wrote down word for word as Patton spoke it; reading over to a tedious length to him; Albright (Red Eye) was present; two or three days afterwards Patton told me, in my office, he wished to say something to me that he didn't want to say to anybody else, saying, "Burgen took me out, put a rope round my neck, and put it over a limb; then took me back, tied me to a mess-chest, where I staid all night;" he didn't tell me he was hurt any; I communicated this to Gov. Holden the night of the same day; Patton told me this voluntarily; when this news of the hanging of Patton came Gov. Holden and I were walking down the street; we met Joe Holden; it was about the 20th of July; and he said on stopping, with an oath, "this torturing of prisoners must stop" very excitingly; the Governor replied certainly it must; and after separating, the Governor expressed his disapprobation of the tormenting of prisoners to me in very decided terms; the Governor, in calling out his militia previously, who had acted disorderly, stated that he wished to have the views of those of us military gentlemen present, on the subject, as to the best mode of organizing the forthcoming troops; it was the 7th of June; General Abbott, Colonel W. F. Henderson, Adjutant General Fisher, General Wiley D. Jones, probably others (John Pool was not present) were present; I told the Governor that a military force, kept well in hand, was the thing to put down disorder, which was generally concurred in by others present; Governor said he regretted the necessity of the thing and was slow to adopt it; I wished to be distinguished from the common militia, for whom I have a perfect contempt, being a military man, hence I advocated the volunteer system, and the men were not drafted; I never heard Kirk's name mentioned; it was understood I was to be at the head of the concern; I thought a militia an ungovernable force, as to whether the Governor had a right to raise troops or otherwise, I was not asked, and did not give any advice; I was averse to assuming command; I heard nothing of Kirk till the 20th of June; his appointment to command, &c.; I ranked Kirk whenever I appeared; portion of the troops had to be kept in Raleigh for emergencies that might arise; the troops were enlisted men; each man was required to sign a paper; enlisted for six months unless sooner discharged; this was a copy of enlistment paper of the United States, changed to suit circumstances; this force was a recruited one; Col. Douglas, acting Adjutant General and Governor's Aide, had Patton at the National Hotel; he wished to make his peace and get loose; the Governor requested me to take his confession; he seemed to be startled and nervous, and I didn't want to take his statement till he was quiet; I heard him make a statement that if he made a confession he could go home; I think I told him this when we adjourned to the next day, when I told him to wait, I was busy; he was not under guard; the next day I took his statement; I understood this was the man that had been hanged, but the statement did not contain anything in relation to the hanging; I did not interrogate him as to anything; Albright nor nobody else said anything about the hanging; I took down every word he said; suggesting nothing to him, trying to get down his identical words; on the first day I did not question him as to Bergen's mal-treatment of him; I told Patton he couldn't leave Raleigh till discharged by the Governor, and had one of my officers to keep his eye on him, which was from Monday till Saturday, the time of the examination; all the gentlemen spoken of in the interview in the Executive office were strong party men, (Republicans;) the next day Mr. John Pool was present, but this meeting I did not regard as a formal one.

Several other witnesses were examined, who testified as to the existance of the order known as the White Brotherhood, and to whippings they received for alleged barn-burnings. Lucinda Morrow, colored, of Orange county, testified that her husband was hung by disguised men year before last, he being charged with burning barns.
