Weather Report.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, March 22—4:35 P. M.

The following is a synopsis of the weather reports for the past 24 hours:

The low pressure Tuesday evening on the coast of Maine has continued its pressure with clouds and clearing up weather and brisk north-west winds. The pressure has but slightly increased in the eastern and middle States, and is now again falling, as is also the case on the Gulf. Clear weather has generally prevailed in the Southern and Gulf States; but is now followed by cloudy weather. The storm centre indicated on Tuesday evening, west of the Missouri river, is now in Central Indiana and Illinois, with brisk north-easterly winds on Lake Michigan; brisk northerly in Iowa; brisk south and south-westerly in the Ohio Valley, and its influence is shown in fresh southerly winds on the Gulf and fresh north-easterly on Lake Superior.

Probabilities.

It is probable that the area of the lowest barometer will move to the northeast with high winds on the Lakes; cloudy and threatening weather in the middle and east Atlantic States; fresh winds are probable on the Gulf and South-Atlantic coast.

If you want a clerk, bookkeeper, salesman or porter, advertise in our new department, under the head of "Wants," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines. tf

To be Removed for Trial.

Calvin Oxendine, charged with highway robbery, and Albert Sawyer, charged with forcible trespass, and now confined in our county jail, will be taken to Whiteville on Monday next, to stand their trial before Judge Russell at Columbus Superior Court next week.

Calvin Oxendine is a brother of Henderson Oxendine, who was executed at Lumberton last Friday, and was formerly one of the Lowrey gang.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday:

Thos. Clark, seaman, charged with drunkenness. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Hattie Ellison, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty, and required to pay the penalty and costs.

Another party, charged with disorder, or assault and battery, contributed $20 and costs to the city Treasury, but by request we withhold his name.

The Watkins Troupe.

This troupe gave their farewell performance at the Theatre last night. The occasion was named for the benefit of the charming actress, Rose Watkins, and of course attractive pieces were put on the boards—the drama "A Warrior's Wife," founded on incidents which transpired in the South during the late war, and the admirable comedy, "Worthy to be a Duchess." A fair audience greeted the beneficiary, the plays were given with spirit and the audience gave evidence of appreciation of the performance. The Raleighites are to see and hear the company this evening.

—"Tom," said a girl to her sweetheart, "you have been paying your distresses to me long enough. It is time you made known your contentions, so as not to keep me in expense any longer."

Local Dots.

— Broad soles make the feet look smaller.

— Bullion thread-nets for the hair are inaugurated.

— The neatest home slippers have jewelled buckles.

— Fashion decrees that gents mustn't call later than 9 in the evening.

— The "Rankin" boys were out with their engine yesterday for parade and practice.

— Columbus Superior Court will meet next Monday, His Honor, Judge Russell, presiding.

— Don't forget the Skating Assembly this evening at the City Hall. A pleasant time expected.

— A special meeting of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock.

— Work on the new Odd Fellows' Lodge, on Third between Chesnut and Princess streets, has been commenced.

— Only 19 prisoners in the county jail, and Superior Court close at hand. Two of these belong to another county.

— Somebody says, with homely force: "You can't eat enough in one week to last a whole year, and you can't advertise on that plan either."

— Citizens residing south of Market street are loud in their complaints of the insufficiency of light, it being alleged by them that proper attention is not paid to the duty of lighting the lamps.

— We learn that a brick dwelling house is to be erected on the same lot with the proposed Odd Fellow's Lodge, opposite the City Hall. Work is to be commenced upon it at once.

— The Charleston Courier says: "A change of programme is essentially necessary in any "show" which intends to remain in a city over two nights. Managers, take the hint." The Watkins troupe make an entire change in their bills every night.

— We learn that Mr. W. S. Benjamin's Emancipation Oration and Eulogy of the late David Heaton, member of Congress from the Newbern District, delivered on the 22d of February, is to be published for the Republican "Harmony Club" of this city.

— Clarendon Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, has fixed its regular meeting time on Tuesday night of each week. The first convocation since the institution of the Lodge and installation of the officers, was held this week, and we learn that a large number of propositions for membership were received. We predict for "Clarendon" a brilliant future.

— The denizens of Fourth street are anxious for the Street Railway to extend its line in that quarter of the "berg." There is a great deal of travel on that street, and as it is the most direct and convenient route from the extreme Southern section of the city to "Brooklyn," the Northermost limit, we should think it would pay.

The Case of Capt. Plummer.

Alluding to the case of Capt. J. W. Plummer, of Robeson county, a correspondent writes, "No evidence being brought against him, Col. Wm. Foster French demanded his unconditional release, but Sinclair required bail in the sum of $500 for him, and $300 for Jordan Shaw, negro, which was given and they were both released, to appear at the next Superior Court of Robeson county, on the 4th Monday in August next.

Another correspondent states that Capt. Plummer introduced no witnesses, but stated that the outlaws would come to his store and if he did not sell they would take anything they wanted, and sometimes do both. "This," says our correspondent, "is probably the true state of the case, which will undergo further investigation." Leitch & Rowland appeared for the State, and W. F. French for the defendant.

Fashion Notes.

The New York fashion gossipers declare that short skirts are gradually becoming passe, and that street sweeping as an occupation for ladies will doubtless be revived—more's the pity!

The new cloths of the season for spring overcoats are especially the Metz coatings, English venetians, summer kerseys, twilled elastics and meltons in new color, among which are the following: A new shade, of dove color, very rich and becoming to most wearers; drabs in every shade, from light to dark cream color; pearl and silver greys; mouse color and the new Bismarck brown. Browns of the chocolate, claret and olive shades will also be worn, but the preference this season is decidedly for light colors.

This is the way to fit in the new silk shawls for spring wear. The cameo tints have a peculiar fitness for spring wear in their singular fresh appearance—the decided shades are four, and each one admitting of two lights, softly blending their twin like hues, the upper in relief, and the ground color exactly like the onyx, the gray ground, with a semi-pellucid, gem-like appearance, still further enhanced by the second tint, a pearl shimmer, waving and sparkling in its softly rich lustre. The one with ochre ground has the upper shade in burnished gold. The agate ground is blended with the quartz tint. The lead ground has the second or upper shade of alabaster, a tint resembling the stalactite in the famous grotto of Antiparas.

A "Drummer" in Trouble.

On a warrant issued by Justice W. M. Harriss and placed in the hands of Constable J. C. Hill, a Philadelphia "drummer," by the name of Leon Rheinstroom, was arrested on Tuesday for failing to take out the necessary license. The case was investigated by Justice Harriss, who required the defendant to pay the penalty and costs. This was done and the party was set at liberty. It is due to Mr. R. to state that he asserts he was unaware that there was any law in this State requiring him to take out the said license.

Meeting of Englishmen and Scotchmen—The Supper, Toasts, Addresses, &c.

According to announcement made in the city papers, quite a large number of our English and Scotch fellow citizens assembled at Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. John Colville, upon whose motion Alex. Sprunt, Esq., was called to the Chair, and H. G. Smallbones and G. D. Flack, Jr., were requested to act as Secretaries.

On motion, Messrs. Sprunt, King, Walker, Gleaves, Colville and Deans were appointed a Committee on general Organization.

On motion, the following Committee was appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws: Messrs. Sprunt, Walker, Thorburn, Colville, Divine, Deans, Keen, Flack, Hayes, Gleaves.

On motion, the following persons were elected as officers to serve until the Constitution is adopted:

Alex. Sprunt, President; John L. Keen, Vice President; G. D. Flack, Jr., Secretary; B. Gleaves, Treasurer.

On motion, the Committee on Constitution was requested to report April 5th, prox., at such time and place as directed in the city papers.

On motion, adjourned to meet at call of the President.

The supper was served about half past 9 o'clock, Alex. Sprunt, Esq., taking the Chair—the Vice President's chair being occupied by Mr. J. L. Keen.

A bountiful supply of all good things was laid on the table by those princely purveyors, Messrs. Brock & Webb, of the Globe Saloon, and full justice was done to the tempting viands.

After the cloth was cleared, the following toasts were most heartily drank:

"The Queen of Great Britain,"

"The President of the United States,"

"The New Society of St. George and St. Andrews,"

In the proposing of which the Chairman made an elaborate speech.

"The health of the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise: Long life, prosperity and happiness attend them."

Responded to appropriately by the chair.

The next toast given was: "England's Heart of Oak."

Responded to by Mr. B. Gleaves, who in a few remarks defended the course pursued by England during the last few years.

"Scotland—Land of Cakes."

Responded to by Mr. John Colville in a few happy remarks, explaining the cause of Scotland's being called the "Land of Cakes," making every one present wish himself a Scotchman.

"The good State of North Carolina."

Responded to by Col. R. H. Cowan in one of his most happy efforts, at one time calling forth bursts of laughter and at others making all present proud of their adopted State.

"The Press of Wilmington."

Responded to by Maj. Engelhard, of the Journal.

"The City of Wilmington,"

Again brought out Col. Cowan, who appeared to be in his best humor on this occasion, eliciting the applause of all present.

"The Hibernian Association."

Responded to by Capt. I. B. Grainger, in a style which was warmly appreciated.

"The Ladies" was given as the last toast, and after the singing of "Old Lang Syne" the meeting adjourned.

The evening's amusement was greatly enhanced by the singing of Messrs. Thorburn Colville, Hopkins and Gleaves.

Robbery.

We learn that the dwelling of Mrs. A. L. Houston, on Sixth street, was subjected to two attempts at robbery, on Monday night, one of which proved successful. Sometime between the hours of 7 and 11 o'clock some one entered the house and relieved her pocket-book of about $70. Not having occasion to open the book and having retired early on account of indisposition, Mrs. H. did not discover her loss until about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

About 4 o'clock Tuesday morning a young lady who resides with Mrs. H. and occupied a room on the first floor, heard some one trying to enter the house from the front porch. She immediately got up, awoke the waiting boy, and told him to see who was in the porch. The boy obeyed, when a man suddenly sprung towards him and ordered him to open the door. Instead of doing so, however, the boy quickly closed and locked it, when the young lady's screams at once alarmed not only the inmates of the house, but also brought to the spot two of the mounted police, who commenced a prompt and vigilant search for the robber, but unfortunately without success. It is thought that he escaped by jumping from the porch into an adjoining garden. No clue to the robbers.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

— The Newbern Times learns that Gov. Vance's disabilities will probably be removed.

— The Norfolk Journal knows a gentleman who has seen a rock fish that was caught in the Roanoke river, weighing fifteen hundred pounds.

— The Times states that the rendition of the choral service by the Episcopal Church Choir in the Baptist Church Tuesday at the funeral services of Mr. Stevenson was very fine.

— It is announced by the Telegram that Gov. Caldwell, on behalf of the State, offers a reward of $2,000 for the arrest of Stephen Lowrey and George Applewhite, Robeson county outlaws.

The Sentinel says that last week, at Dutchville, Granville county, a negro woman attempted to murder a little son of Mr. Wheeler by throwing him in a well. The child's cries brought some men who were near by to its rescue. The woman was lodged in jail at Oxford.

— We learn from the Times that William S. Scott, suspected of being an escaped prisoner from Fort Macon, was arrested yesterday by policeman Smallwood. On investigation he confessed that he escaped from the Fort on Saturday where he is serving out a sentence of five years imprisonment. He will be sent back to his old quarters.

— The Raleigh Telegram states that a man named Solomon Frazier, a native of this county, was brought to this city yesterday, from the Falls of the Neuse, charged with the crime of setting fire to the Paper Mill, at the Falls, which was greatly damaged by fire last Sunday night. We understand the evidence against the prisoner, though altogether circumstantial, is very strong—sufficient, in the estimation of Squire A. L. Davis and others, before whom the examination was held, to induce the Justice of the Peace to send Frazier on for trial at the next Superior Court. Solomon Frazier had been in Wake County jail for the two weeks previous to Friday last, on the charge of riotous conduct and beating his wife. On Friday last he was liberated, or bailed, by Justice Whitaker. On Saturday he proceeded to his wife's residence near the Paper Mill, made up his quarrel with his wife, and promised his neighbors around to lead a better life in the future. The next evening (Sunday) he borrowed matches from a neighbor, for some frivolous purpose, and, watching his opportunity, while the watchman of the mill was momentarily absent at 12 o'clock that night, waking up hands to come to work, it is believed he then fired the building, in a room filled with loose paper, cotton, and other combustibles. His trial will take place on the 10th of April next.
