MORNING STAR

Vol. VIII—No. 33 WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1871. Whole No. 1,123

Table with 4 columns: Time, Barom., Wind, Weather. Rows for 7 A. M., 9 P. M., and Mean Temp. of day.

WEATHER REPORT. WAR DEPARTMENT, Office of Chief Signal Officer, Washington, May 1, 4:35 P. M.

It is probable that a light storm's gathering in Missouri, and that a falling barometer with N. E. winds will continue to prevail on the lakes, and Southeast and Southwest winds in the Gulf States, with threatening and rainy weather in the Central Mississippi Valley on the Atlantic coast.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HENSBERGER'S Live Book Store, 39 Market street—The Descent of Man, &c.

The Revenue Bill. Our attention was called, yesterday, to a rather serious discrepancy in the Revenue bill as passed by the General Assembly at its last session, and one which is likely to prove a source of no little inconvenience.

Shall We Have a Bath House? We have frequently been asked the question, "Are we to have a Bath House this season?" While we are unable to answer the inquiry, we will take occasion to express the wish that some enterprising citizen may start one something on the principle of the one we had last year.

Burglary. Some thief effected an entrance into the grocery store of Mr. Richard Fitzgerald, located on the corner of Eighth and Chesnut streets, on Sunday night.

Accident. According to the records in the office of the Register of Deeds the following licenses were issued to parties in this county during the past month:

Whites.—Thomas Ennett, and Sabrey J. Bishop; Benj. F. Hall, and Margaret F. Sprunt; Dempsey H. Brinkly, and Ada Gurganus; George W. Galdie and Annie M. Clowe; Arthur C. Rackley and Margaret J. Lewis; Chas. H. Rivenbark and Adeline Bostick; Martin C. Brooks and Frances M. Bowen; Thos. Kent and Mary E. Wesley; E. R. Williams and M. J. Hand; Jno. S. Costin and Rhona Robins; W. O. Shepherd and Fannie L. Rhann. Total 11.

Our Chip Basket. Mrs. Southworth wants a vote. —Something about woman—frounce. —The wife's secret—her opinion of her husband. —Some ladies use paint as fiddlers do rosin, to aid them in drawing in a beau. —Paper collars are called a "sundry evasion." —Some New York women care $50 a week making fancy feathers. —Mrs. Stowe thinks women more annoying than men. —A young lady in Indiana is about publishing a book entitled, "What I Know About Everything."

Local News.

No session of the City Court yesterday. —We could hear of no police arrests yet today. —The Chapman Sisters opened in Savannah last night. —Doctors say a milk diet will cure consumption.

The Tournaient. The colored Tournaient, as had been previously announced, came off yesterday at the old Tournaient grounds near the city. Fifteen knights entered the lists. The following were the successful knights: George W. Murray won the first prize, a fine silver watch and chain. The second highest prize, a champagne supper, was won by Washington Howe. The crowning took place at City Hall.

Hook and Ladder Company. At the regular meeting of the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, held last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President—H. H. Munson. Vice President—H. C. Brock. Secretary—T. C. DeRosset. Treasurer—T. C. Lewis. Foreman—Col. Roger Moore. 1st Assistant Foreman—Jas. J. King. 2d Assistant Foreman—C. D. Myers.

Public Address Last Night. In accordance with previous announcement Capt. R. F. Trevellick, President of the National Labor Union of Detroit, Michigan, delivered an address on the subject of Labor Unions at the Theatre last evening, to a very respectable audience. Capt. Trevellick is an able and entertaining speaker and is thoroughly posted on the relative merits, of labor and capital and their bearing upon the material prosperity of our country.

Presbyterian Monthly Sociable. By reference to an advertisement in our columns this morning it will be seen that the second "Presbyterian Monthly Sociable" will be held at Masonic Hall to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, May 3rd. The entertainment will consist of music and refreshments. For the benefit of children and others who cannot attend at night the Hall will be opened at 5 1/2 o'clock in the afternoon. The public have only to call to mind the pleasure experienced on the occasion of the inauguration of this praiseworthy enterprise to insure a large attendance.

Oakdale Cemetery. We find upon referring to the records in the office of R. J. Jones, Esq., Secretary, that there were ten interments in Oakdale Cemetery for the month of April, of which five were adults, and five children, aged 1 month, 4 months, 1 year, 2 years, 3 years, 23 years, 26 years, 32 years, 58 years and 64 years, respectively. Diseases: Consumption, 2; typhoid fever, 2; diarrhoea, 2; congestive of the bowels, 1; not stated, 1. Of this number 6 were males and 4 females.

Colly Bros. & Co. Colly Bros. & Co., 508 Broadway, New York, keep one of the largest stocks of goods in their line in this country. The Colly Wringer and the Dollar Steam Engine are among the attractive features of their establishment; while in Children's Carriages they claim to be beyond competition. Their advertisements will be found in the STAR, and those who wish such goods as they keep will do well to send for one of their circulars and price-lists.

Accident. A young gentleman who was out hunting in the woods near this city, yesterday, met with a severe accident, by the explosion of his gun in his hands. The necessary assistance was promptly rendered and it is hoped that nothing serious will result. The wounds in his arm were quite severe.

U. S. District Court. The U. S. District Court, Judge Brooks presiding, commenced its session in this city yesterday. The following are the names of the Grand Jury who were drawn in due form: Samuel Kirby, Wm. B. Flanner, Geo. Henderson, A. J. Litchfield, J. A. Smith, Daniel Klein, Jas. H. Carr, Wilkes Morris, A. A. Bayette, John D. Carroll, Thos. J. Carr, John C. Wright, Jas. W. Collins, Thos. S. Watson, Isaac B. Kelley, Edwin N. Butler, Thos. Arnold, Gabriel Barbory, Haywood Boykin. After drawing the Grand Jury the following were left from the regular venire, viz: John F. Spicer, J. N. Bennett, Edward Mercer, John C. Wright, Howell H. Cobb, Henry Moore. An order was issued to the Marshal to summon twelve others to appear this morning. Court adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock this morning.

A Duel Prevented. We learn that a duel had been arranged between Dr. Mullin and Mr. Williams, both of Marion, S. C., which was to have come off near Fair Bluff, in Columbus county, during the past week, but on the arrival of the parties at that place Sheriff Richardson, who had received an intimation of their purpose, promptly arrested them and this spoiled the little fun in prospect.

RIVERLAND MARINE NEWS. MONDAY, May 1. The new steamer Cassell arrived yesterday, having been towed down by the steamer Little Sam.

Something You Ought to Have NOW READY! Harpel's Typograph; OR, BOOK OF SPECIMENS, AN EXHAUSTIVE AND VALUABLE MANUAL OF INFORMATION AND ELEGANT EXEMPLAR OF LETTERPRESS WORK IN BLACK COLORS, BRONZE, ETC., FOR THE USE OF PRINTERS, AMATEURS, PUBLISHERS, BUSINESS MEN, AND PEOPLE OF TASTE GENERALLY.

NEARLY an entire year has been consumed in unremitting labor and superintending to produce this book. The presswork alone (done almost entirely with type forms made up of the choicest and latest production of the foundries, etc.) amounted to 815,000 impressions, to produce a limited edition. The book is fresh, elegant, demonstrative of new ideas, thoroughly practical for utilitarian purposes, and at the same time fit to be preserved in any library. It is printed on high grade paper, contains upwards of three hundred imperial octavo pages; has larger sheets folded, and numerous embellishments, etc. in addition to the regular matter. Price to subscribers until January 15th, 1871, (after which an advance will be made), for the general edition, printed on white paper and bound in superior cloth, with bevelled covers, $5 per copy. A small edition of 200 copies, printed on extra fine-tinted paper, and elegantly bound in calf or Turkey morocco antique, $10 per copy. All orders must be accompanied with the Cash, a P. O. Order, or Draft on Cincinnati or New York, payable to the undersigned. 25 cents to be added if the book is to be sent by mail. G. D. orders must be accompanied with the cash. Collection charges will be added to price of book. Parties desiring their names beautifully stamped on their books will send 50 cents extra. Those wishing further information concerning this volume will please address (with stamp) OSCAR H. HARPEL, Typographic Designer and Printer, 38 West Fourth Street, Cincinnati. feb 1-1v.

Craven Superior Court is in session at Newbern, Judge Watts presiding.

The Statesville American says: We regret to learn that the Rev. R. N. Davis, a prominent minister of the Presbyterian church, died on last Sunday night, at his residence in Lincolnton. He was universally esteemed for his christian character and many noble traits.

Perfection. The nearest approach to perfection in articles designed for kitchen use, is that of Dooley's Yeast Powder, now generally recognized as the most economical and reliable Baking Powder in the country. No housekeeper should be without it. To accomplish the same result, it requires but one-half or two-thirds other Baking Powders, while uniform success in making rolls, bread, biscuits, pastry, &c., is guaranteed. Recommended solely on its merits. Dooley & Brother, Manufacturers, 60 New St., New York. For sale by all Grocers. May 2—cod Tu Th Sat.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of fine suitable for such cases that remedy is adapted. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc. I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a most delicate and mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant, CHAS. A. LEAR, M. D., New York.

25 FINE STREET, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1867. UDOLPH WOLFE, Esq., Presid. DEAR SIR: I have made a careful examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substances, more or less injurious to the simple distilled spirit. The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures, and is perfectly pure. I would not hesitate to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquor. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND THEORETICAL LABORATORY, 18 EXCHANG PLACE, NEW YORK, NOV. 25, 1867—UDOLPH WOLFE, Esq., Dear Sir: The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health.
