

MORNING STAR. THE VERY LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. TO THE MORNING STAR.

NOON REPORTS.

W. V. Corcoran's condition is more favorable and there is but little hope of his recovery. The semi-official synopsis of the treaty arranged by the Joint High Commission, published this morning, differs in no essential point from the report telegraphed last night.

Foreign News.

PARIS, May 8. Noon.—Tomorrow operations on a large scale are expected. To-day the commanders of divisions came to take orders. MacMahon, with eighty-five big guns, will operate on certain points at 4 o'clock to-morrow.

LATEST.—Fort Issy has been captured and is now in possession of the Versaillesists. The Algerian insurrection is spreading.

PARIS, May 8. Night.—The Central Committee of the Women's Union demand war. The Sisters of the Convent of Sulpiac have been arrested.

The Prussian patrols are vigilant on a neutral ground. One hundred and fifty Nationalists were arrested by them yesterday.

Cluseret demands an examination. The powder magazine at Fort Maillot was exploded by two shells this morning and several persons killed. Great destruction of material occurred.

The three officers commanding at Issy declared that it was necessary to explode that fort. Rossi ordered them to hold out and they replied that they would not.

Roussel then had them and two others arrested. The General has great determination and is virtually military dictator.

The dispute between the Central Committee and the Communists has been healed. The Communists have accepted the telegraph lines on the Northern railway.

The German General Von Tann demands the complete evacuation of Vincennes. At a meeting of the Commune yesterday it was demanded that the Deputies from Paris to the Versailles Assembly should resign immediately upon the pain of outlawry or death.

BERLIN, May 8. It is officially reported that Bismarck is going to Compiegne, the headquarters of the Prince of Saxony to confer with Thiers.

LONDON, May 9. SUMMARY FROM SPECIALS. A cure shot the commandant of the National Guards in a fight in the Rue Feytaud.

There has been a great concentration of Versaillesists in Neuilly. A circular from Picard orders strict watch over the Bonapartists.

The Prince Tour Arvoigne is dead. The Lyons elections were quiet. Bismarck and Thiers are to meet at Compiegne.

The Versaillesists are compelled to evacuate Clamart by the stretch of the unburied dead. The Versailles government sends to the provinces soldiers who have kinsmen in Paris.

The battery at Montretout has recommenced firing upon Fort de Jour and other Communist positions. The ship Yang Eagle, from New Orleans for Liverpool, was abandoned at sea and the crew taken into an English port.

FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR NIGHT REPORTS.

WASHINGTON, May 9. An extra session of the Senate convenes to-morrow.

There was a full meeting of the Cabinet today, except Robeson and Belknap. Confidence is felt here in official circles of a speedy ratification of the treaty as shown by the fact that Schenk and the English members of the high commission have engaged passage on a steamer leaving New York on the 24th.

The Court of Claims will have no more cases after the 18th inst., and will adjourn about the first of June. The docket is nearly clear.

CABLE DISPATCHES.

BERLIN, May 9. The incorporation of Alsace and Lorraine has been considered in the Reichstag, the article conferring immediate citizenship upon the inhabitants. It is already adopted.

From Virginia. Richmond, May 9. Sam'l B. Smith, a prominent bank officer, died this morning.

The close of the registration here shows a majority of nine hundred for the whites.

From Pennsylvania. SCRANTON, May 9. A laborers meeting, six hundred strong, were to-day assailed by about an equal number of persons, including one hundred women.

The fight is still progressing with stoncs, pistols and clubs.

From the West Indies. ASPINWALL, May 8. Intelligence received by a Danish man-of-war yesterday, that the insurgent army is advancing towards San Domingo, being the last to threaten Panama immediately and consequently there is great alarm.

The President in a proclamation notifies the troops to prepare for a fight, and they have been supplied with arms and ammunition.

The railroad cars have been delivered over to the commander of the national troops for safe keeping.

The Peace Commissioners started to confer with the rebels, and also with the proper officers, to reclaim the steamer Montija and the prisoners on board.

Herrera, the rebel commander, has notified the United States Consul not to interfere by sending the U. S. steamer Resaca for the recapture of the Montija, because the United States officer will not be permitted to come on board that vessel and he will fight them to the bitter end.

The U. S. steamer Resaca will leave the Isthmus on the 10th and thenceforth foreigners will be unprotected. All the foreign Consuls have addressed the President, begging him to have the national troops remain here for the protection of the lives and property of foreigners.

The government party in the State of Boyalca are likely to triumph over the revolutionists, who, by their arbitrary acts, have lost many adherents.

A mutiny occurred at Oajmamarca and soldiers were sent to repress it and arrest the ringleaders.

The insurgents captured the city of Lima, the capital of Peru, on the 28th.

By an accident on the Bella Vista railroad, caused by a collision with a train conveying two thousand kegs of gunpowder, one man was killed and many wounded.

Advices from Buenos Ayres state that the average deaths from vomito are two hundred and forty daily. Five thousand persons have died within five weeks. Sixty thousand persons fled from the city.

Advices from Valparaiso on the 17th April state that the vomito is making frightful ravages.

From New York. New York, May 9. The Labor League League held a session in Steiny Hall to-day. About four hundred persons were present, mostly women.

Wendell Phillips, instancing the execution of Mumford by Butler, invokes the President to follow Butler's plan. (Applause.)

Leuvenker, K., Sept. 1.—I feel that we have now an article of gin suitable for such cases as that remedy is adapted to. DR. J. W. BRIGHT.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc. I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, it is one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant. CHAS. A. LANK, M. D., N. York.

30 PINE STREET, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1867. UDOHRO WOLFE, Esq., Pres't. Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a sample of your "Scliedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or indigenous substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures. I was unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Scliedam Schnapps" as an excellent and objectionless variety of gin. (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

CHEMICAL AND TECHNICAL LABORATORY, 38 Exchange Place, New York, Oct. 25, 1867. UDOHRO WOLFE, Esq., Dear Sir: The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Scliedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to the human system. We are therefore enabled to consider the article one of superior quality, healthy as a beverage, and effective in its medicinal qualities. (Signed) FRANCIS E. ENGELHARD, M. D.
