Gift Concert. / 101 Heinsberger's Gift Concert came off at Thalian Hall last evening. There was a large crowd present and everything passed off pleasantly. The vocal music consisted entirely of male voices and was charmingly rendered. The "Pirate's Chorus," by the Glee Club, consisting of eight voices, was received with much favor, as was the tenor solo, "Thou. art Everywhere." The instrumental quartette, "Waltz de Salon," was very sweetly rendered, and the trio, "The Crows in the Cornfield" and the basso solo, "Simon, the Cellarer," were highly applauded. The appreciation of the audience was 'attested by the frequent encore which greeted the performers in the different stages of the entertainment. Prof. Rueckert, as musical director, was fally up to public expectation. His talents as a musician are so well known and appreciated by the people of Wilmington that it was taken for granted that he would be fully equal to the occasion.

After the conclusion of the concert a committee of four gentlemen was selected from the audience to conduct the drawing. These were Messrs, John L. Holmes, Alfred Martin, Dr. T. B. Carr and Col. J. G. Burr. Two glass jars were used for the drawing, in one of which were placed 99 tickets (the number sold) and in the others 98 blanks in envelopes, on one of which was written the word "Piano." The piano was drawn by ticket No. 93, held by Mr. John Concley. In consequence of the limited number of tickets sold the plano originally intended to be given to the holder of the lucky ticket was withdrawn and a less costly one substituted, but still Mr. Conoley is a fortunate man and gets his music cheap.
