A fight took place in the county jail yesterday morning between Adam Woodbery and Ben Lipscomb, two noted jail "birds," during which Woodberry struck his antagonist over the head with a scrub-broom, inflicting a severe wound. A warrant was issued and Woodberry will have a hearing before Justice McQuigg this morning.

The Late Capt. Usher. The remains of the late Capt. Usher were escorted to the grave, yesterday morning, by the officers and a detachment of marines from the Revenue Cutter Seward, followed by large number of relatives and friends. The Old Cry.

When the Radicals wish to get the votes of the colored people (which is every time, continually and forevermore) they work upon their fears and feelings by telling them if the Conservatives get into power they will again be placed in a condition of slavery, their right to vote and testify in the Courts will be taken from them, &c., which they know to be false, and nothing but false, when they utter the declaration. This was the cry before the last August election, which resulted in placing the Conservatives in a large majority in the Legislature, and yet the colored people have the same right to vote, the same right to testify in the Courts, &c., that they possessed before and as yet they have not been placed back in slavery. The Legislature made no effort, and intended to make no effort, to abridge the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution of the United States and of the State of North Carolina; and the Convention would not have the power, if so disposed, to return them to s condition of slavery. But, notwithstanding these facts, oraiors of the Radical party-even those who pretend to be ministers of the Gospel and members of the church—falsely assume to believe there is danger of such a contingency, and actually make many of their dupes believe they are speaking the plain, unvarnished truth and not endeavoring to frighten them into a support of themselves and friends at the ballot box. 1891 OUR SI

Prepare for the Conflict. of gare a B.

The election to morrow will certainly be one of the most important ever held in this State, and it behooves every Conservative to be up and doing. They must work manfully if they would win the prize. It is not suffi-cient that each individual shall go to the polls and cast bis vote, but he must endeavor to nfluence others to do likewise. Considering the importance of the struggle before us let a general suspension of business be resolved on for that day, as is the case in Charleston today, where a municipal election is in progress. Surely we can give one day to our State, when it may be the means of starting her in a new career of prosperity and glory.

Gird on your armor, fellow Conservatives-"give a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether," and the day is ours.

Wake Forest College.

We have received from Prof. W. M. Wingate, Principal, a Catalogue of Wake Forest College for the present year. This institution is noted for its healthful and central location; for the thoroughness and extent of the scheme of studies; the high grade of scholarship attempted by means of the daily oral and quarterly written examinations; the careful discipline and healthful moral tone which is maintained: the success in cheapening the cost of education by means of competition among the boarding houses and especially through the operations of a well-managed clubsystem, &c. The Institution is located within fifteen miles of Raleigh, immediately on the R. & G. R. R. The next session will open Sept. 15th. Address Dr. Wingate, at Forestville.

Conservative Rally at Boney Bridge. The Conservative meeting at Boney Bridge, in the First Ward, last night, was a large and enthusiastic one. Speeches were made by Col. R. H. Cowan, J. J. Fowler, Esq., Luke Mc-Clammy, Esq., Maj. F. D. Poisson. Col. John McRae, Edwin Kerr and G. J. McRee, Esqs., who all made convincing arguments to show the necessity of a Convention. The speeches were listened to with marked attention by the large assemblage, and it is hoped and believed that much good was accomplished.

The people are fully aroused and New Hanover will give a good account of herself on the day of election.

Remember.

That the Constitution if revised and altered by the Convention, must be submitted to the people for ratification, and can be voted down by the people if they do not like it.

Cotton and Grapes.

From Mr. D. Ingram, of Anson county, we have a fine specimen of his open cotton bolls. He says that the cotton is from a twelve-acre field, but very much injured by the dry weather, and adds that unless they have rain soon in that locality, their crops, which were very good a few weeks since, will be cut off.

We are also indebted to Mr. Ingram for a sample of his Concord grapes, the vines of which were purchased of J. Knox, of Pittsburg, Pa., but are almost ruined by the dry

Cape Fear Township.

John L. Holmes, Esq., addressed the people of Cape Fear Township, at Williams,' yesterday morning. We learn that it was one of the best of the many good speeches he has made during the canvass. There was a large number of colored people present and from every indication many of them will vote for Convention on Thursday.

Mr. J. J. Fowler was present, but for satisfactory reasons he did not make a speech. Railroad Matters.

We learn that Charles Flanner, Esq., has received the appointment of Auditor of the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad and the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad vice Guilford L. Voters of the Third Ward will register at Jos. E. Sampson's store, on Fourth, between Mulberry and Walnut streets.

Voters of the Fourth Ward will register at the Ann Street Engine House. Voters of the Fifth Ward will register at James Mitchel.'s house.

The Last Tribute.

The funeral of Mr. D. L. Russell, Sr., yesterday, was attended by a large number of our citizens, and we learn that among those who followed his remains to the grave were many colored people from Brunswick county, comprised principally of former servants of his, who took occasion to pay this last tribute of respect to his memory.

LUMBERTON, Aug. 1. DEAR STAR :- Nothing of interest, with the exception of the visit and departure of Gov. Caldwell, which has resulted in the calling out. of the militia, both white and colored, so we are informed. The Journal correspondent was mistaken in stating that none but the whites were to be enrolled.

The weather is extremely hot and dry, and crops are materially injured. Not more than half the quantity of corn and cotton will be made in this county that was expected to be

Convention is gaining ground, and the Radical candidates, old Sinc. and Nasty Gnat., are looking jaded and serious. We think there is no doubt but Leitch and Purcell will be elected and that Convention will get a majority.

We have heard nothing from the outlaws in everal days, and the prospect of their being captured or killed is not very good. We have not heard of any person who wants to capture any of them, but several who wish to kill them for their many crimes. XX.

The Governor's Visit to Robeson Coun-

At the request of the Editor of the Telegram, Governor Caldwell gives the following as the result of his visit to Robeson, which, under the circumstances, and coming from the Executive, will be read with interest by the whole people of the State. Says the Governor:

I arrived at Lumberton on Friday the 28th, at 11 o'clock, and there met with eight or ten of the leading citizens of the county, among whom were Col. N. A. McLean, Col. T. J. Morrisey, Col. Rowland, Dr. Dick, Col. Howell, Sheriff Mc-Millan, Mr. McDiarmid, of the Robesonian, Capt. Wishart, O. S. Hayes, Esq., Mr. Proctor, John Holloway, and others, I was informed that a considerable degree of excitement and alarm existed in almost every section of the county, and that many of the citizens had left and were leaving to seek refuge in neighboring counties; that some half dozen outlaws were the cause of this state of terror. All persons with whom I conversed concurred in the opinion and declaration that there was no politics in the affair. Conservatives as well as Republicans, colored as well as whites, seemed anxious that the outlaws should be captured. I advised the Sheriff to call upon the Colonels of the two regiments in Robeson county to order out their forces for the purpose of assisting him in executing the civil process in his hands. I also advised the Sheriff to summon the whole power of his county, if it were necessary, as a posse, to go and remain with him until the outlaws were captured. In pursuance of my advice, the Sheriff applied to Col. Howell for assistance, who immediately issued an order commanding all persons liable to military duty to report themselves for service on the 5th August, armed and equipped according to law, with necessary rations.

From what I could see and learn, the people of Robeson seem at last to be fully awakened to the importance of making a vigorous effort to rid their county of the desperadoes who have so long bid them defiance. I have great hopes that the present movement will be effective, and that in a short time all things will become perfectly quiet. A few colored men called upon me, and appeared as anxious that Lowrey and his gang should be captured and brought to justice as their white neighbors did.

I left Lumberton for Raleigh on Saturday at 11 o'clock; I do not know that anything more could have been done if I had remained longer; I accomplished all that I expected to do, and believe that the people were stimulated by my visit to a greater determination to do their full duty in the premises. Yours, truly, val stabloid soil

The history of the following exposure is this—and aneaking John is not responsi-ble for it, except in trusting his treason to a weak vessel: John McDonald received Pool's letter. He casually read it, but mistook the term " ruin of the party" for "ruin of the country," and handed the letter to Captain Ramsay to read.
