

THE CIRCULATION OF THE MORNING STAR IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

HEATON'S CASE.

Sec. 10, Article 2, of the Constitution, reads as follows:

"Each member of the House of Representatives shall be a qualified elector of the State, and shall have resided in the county for which he is chosen, one year immediately preceding his election."

This settles the question of Mr. Heaton's eligibility, and settles it against him; for we are positively informed that he has not resided in New Hanover county "one year immediately preceding his election."

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION—COMMENTS OF THE PRESS.

As a matter of paramount interest in the present unfortunate condition of our people, we publish to-day extracts from a number of papers in reference to the recent election. We have some suggestions of our own to offer, but we shall not do so hastily.

[RALEIGH SENTINEL.]

Sensible men hoped for relief through the Convention—that has failed and they must struggle on in despair! If the taxes are laid, the people cannot and will not pay them.

[RICHMOND WHIG.]

Festina lente is our true policy. Our friends in North Carolina have just escaped a great disaster by a fortunate defeat. By hurrying too fast and attempting too much, if they had succeeded, they would have again exposed themselves to the merciless sway of the carpet baggers.

[NEWBERN JOURNAL OF COMMERCE.]

Having suffered more than one political defeat in the last thirty years, we can stand the one now upon us. We ask no quarter, and if die we must, we shall die "game."

[WILSON LEDGER.]

The indications are that the State has gone against Convention by a majority estimated at five thousand. We never penned a paragraph with half the pain which this has cost us.

[WILMINGTON JOURNAL.]

The Convention is defeated. Apprehension of Federal violence and usurpation—an apprehension industriously fostered by a Cabinet officer, the law officer of the government, did the work, coupled with fraud.

A Colony of Cubans.

Mr. L. N. Casanova, a Cuban gentleman farming in Fauquier county, Va., informs the Lynchburg Republican that he has a plan on foot, and he believes in process of successful execution, for the introduction of a considerable number of Cuban families into Fauquier county.

imposed upon it by the Constitution, will give the people another fair opportunity to rid themselves of the taxation that must otherwise beget them, even though Grant and his Attorney General may fulminate their menaces again.

STAR BEAMS.

— Iowa has a bed of mineral paint. — Pensacola, Fla., has had two crops of strawberries. — Roman Catholicism is advancing very rapidly in England.

The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer has the following with reference to a new industry: "It is not generally known that a very large business is being done in the oak bark business in this city."

Quantrell's Death.

Four Historic Estates.

The Charlottesville Intelligence recalls attention to the following interesting fact: Within three miles of Charlottesville, and almost at the four points of the compass, at one time belonging to men who will always occupy prominent places in American history.

Trouble Between White and Colored Laborers.

The Lynchburg (Va.) News learns that a row occurred in Putnam county, on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, on Wednesday last, between a party of white and colored laborers employed on the road.

Another Phase of the Mystery.

We find the following dispatch in the Philadelphia papers of Saturday, and give it as among one of the many rumors or reports current without vouching for its correctness:
