Local Notes.

—Superior Court to-morrow.

—The Revenue Cutter Seaward is undergoing repairs.

—Lieut. Moore, of the Revenue Cutter Seaward, is quite ill with fever.

—Scuppernon grapes in market yesterday, at 15 cents per quart.

—There will be a meeting of Wilmington Council to-morrow (Monday) evening, at 8 o'clock.

—Messrs. D. R. and J. W. S. are earnestly requested to "come home to their own thick-bodies," as it is now believed that "Quiet reigns in Warsaw."

—The first regular meeting of the German Association of Wilmington will be held at Range's Hall to-morrow (Monday) evening, at 8 o'clock, P. M.

—We are requested to state that Post No. 3, G. A. R., will meet at their Hall on Wednesday night for the transaction of important business.

—Thanks to Mr. R. L. Harris for copies of the last N. Y. Ledger and Chinney Corner. All sorts of reading can be had at this news depot on Front street.

—The Sheriff received the tax lists yesterday and commenced collecting the State and County tax. He earnestly requests the people to come up promptly and settle the same.

—There is an old lady in this city, aged 60 years, who has never seen a railroad, nor a locomotive, though she resides within four blocks of one—and she is not blind, either.

—All aprils received or sent out by wholesale dealers not properly entered upon the new form stock book, are liable to be seized and forfeited. This rule will govern henceforth.

—The only case before the City Court yesterday was that of Richard Joice, charged with cursing, quarrelling, &c., who was found guilty and required to pay the penalty and costs. Two cases were continued over.

—One of our subscribers is very much exercised over the fact that, upon cutting open a watermelon a few days since, he found the letters W. A. R. distinctly visible upon the inside of the rind.

—The Guard House is now empty and has been in that condition for three days, affording Janitor Cutler an opportunity of putting it in excellent sanitary condition. This is a very favorable commentary on the morality and good order of the people, white and colored.

Elegant Wedding.

On Thursday night, a little after eight o'clock, says the Raleigh Sentinel of yesterday, the company began to assemble in Christ Church to witness the marriage of Miss Hannah Willard, daughter of W. H. Willard, Esq., of Raleigh, to Mr. Samuel A. Ashe, of Wilmington.

By 9 o'clock the spacious church was crowded with elegant ladies, gentlemen, and sweet-looking, sweetly dressed school girls.

At twenty minutes past nine, the bridal party entered the church by the western door. In the following order: First groomsmen, Mr. Junius Davis, of Wilmington, with Miss Josephine Ashe, sister of the bridegroom; Second, Mr. Thomas DeRosset, of Wilmington, with Miss Love G. Root, of Raleigh; Third, Mr. Seal A. Nash, of Hillsboro', with Miss — Virginia, of Halifax; Fourth, Mr. John E. Crow, of Wilmington, with Miss Ella Creech, of Elizabeth City; Fifth, Mr. E. F. Page, of Raleigh, with Miss Alice Nixon, of Wilmington; Sixth, Mr. James Stephenson, of Wilmington, with Miss Mollie B. Greecy, of Elizabeth City. Then came the bride and groom, followed by Mr. Wm. H. Willard and Mrs. D. Martin.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., the bride's father giving her away. The bride party entered and retired from the church while the organist, Prof. Bohman, played the bridal march. From the church, the bridal party and friends repaired to the house of Dr. Martin, on Hillsboro' street, where they had a reception, and friends in great numbers called to congratulate the happy pair and partake of refreshments. At 10 o'clock the bride and groom took the cars for a tour north.

We might as well meet about the beauty of the bride, the bridesmaids, the elegance of dress and presents, but that would be to intimate our shoddy brothers north, and that we will not do.

Fashion Notes.

For youths, from nine to fifteen years of age, an English walking coat, vest and pantaloons. "The coat is single-breasted, fits the figure easily, covers the hips well and is made after the English fashion, open below the waist, with overlapping flap, side body-seams and buttoned on each seam to define the waist; broad pocket flaps; the vest single-breasted and buttoned; the pantaloons with considerable spring at ankle. For dress suits blue-black and dark green cloth are used. A pretty summer suit is blue diagonal cloth jacket and white pantaloons. White duck and twilled flannel suits are made for the seaside. Gray or brown chevrons are used as everyday suits. Shirts with three plants to the side and square collar suit boys, with narrow neck ties. For ladies, the next season's goods will be neutral tints. Black will be more worn than ever. Soft, flexible fabrics command great attention. Solid colors obtain the preference everywhere.

For September black silk suits will be worn a la polonaise. The dress skirt has a single flounce, moderately wide. The black alpaca, mohair and cashmere suits will have, in back and front, three very broad double box-pleats, with loose-shouldered blouses. Alpaca blouses should be lined with soft muslin, shoulder seams short, neck high and sleeves half flowing. The overskirt is long, and fastened up gracefully by tapes from the belt.

If you have found anything, advertise it in our new department under head of "Lost and Found," at our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines.
