

THE CIRCULATION OF THE MORNING STAR IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN NORTH CAROLINA.

DISINFECTANTS - SANITARY PRECAUTIONS.

The march of the cholera calls for prompt measures in making every part of our city as clean as practicable and in advance breaking up what may otherwise become breeders of contagion and death.

The need of a cogent and at the same time safe and cheap disinfectant is urgent. Several of those in common use are exceedingly offensive, and especially when used in residences.

Chloride of lime and carbolic acid belong to this class. Their odor is almost as disagreeable as that which they are used to correct.

Complaints have been frequently made of late that many of the streets and lots of the city are sadly in need of a thorough cleansing.

"A TERRIBLE TEMPTATION."

Charles Reade's recent novel, "A Terrible Temptation," has excited unusual attention among the reviewers; and it is strange how the "Doctors disagree."

Palmetto Leaves.

Charleston experienced a severe storm on Friday last.

The Chester Reporter chronicles the death of Mr. Jonas Rader.

St. Luke's (Episcopal) Church, Charleston, was robbed a few nights since.

There are no bar-rooms in the village of Pickens, and only one in the county.

The Anderson Intelligencer records the death of Mr. R. J. W. McCann, an enterprising, active and useful citizen of that county.

A negro who recently killed another man of his own color at Dick's Creek tunnel, in Georgia, has been arrested in Pendleton, S. C.

Hon. R. B. Carpenter has gone to Pennsylvania, to assist in stumping the State for the Democrats, in the fall campaign for State officers.

The Lancaster Ledger says of the crops in that county: Under no circumstances can more than a half crop of cotton be realized; and corn is so badly damaged that no correct estimate can be made.

The Keowee Courier says: There is a project on foot, in Georgia, to build a railroad from Calhoun, Ga., to Morganton, N. C.

The Schoolmaster Abroad. The phrase "the schoolmaster is abroad" is on the tongue of all, and yet how few know aught of its origin or appreciate its force.

A Rich Jewess Marries a Christian. Something of a sensation has been created in Hebrew society throughout the country by the clandestine marriage of a Miss Pike, of New York, a wealthy young niece of S. N. Pike, to a young Christian, son of William France, well known here.

Watermelon seed are sold in Louisville for ten cents a pound.

STAR BEAMS.

Bugs swarm like the biblical locusts in Boston.

Wood county, O., has a family in which twins are hereditary.

A Frenchman is crossing the Mediterranean in an Indian bark canoe.

A "carving machine" has been patented by a citizen of New York.

A pin, carelessly dropped in the loom by a female operative, lately spoiled 700 yards of cloth in a Lawrence, Mass., mill.

The census of the present year shows that out of 31,500,000 people in Great Britain, only 30,000 are owners of the soil.

The Germans in Moscow have purchased a magnificent team of three white Russian horses as a present for Prince Bismarck.

Rev. Dr. N. S. Beman, of Troy, the Presbyterian divine who held a controversy with Archbishop Hughes, many years ago, died a few days since.

Delaware has sent away over a million baskets of peaches this season—"enough," says a Rhode Islander, "to cover the soil two baskets deep."

A Newark woman found a burglar under her bed the other night and hauled him out so as to let her husband jump on him, which he did most effectually.

An Old Man Kills his Wife Within Hearing of Three Children—He then Commits Suicide.

LION, Herkimer county, N. Y., August 16.—One of the most terrible tragedies ever enacted in Central New York occurred at East Frankfort, in this county on Monday night.

Some weeks since allusion was made in the Chicago papers to the inauguration in that city of a new enterprise on a large scale—the building of ready-made houses for shipment to the sparsely settled districts in the interior, where skilled labor is scarce, and the facilities for house-building meager.

The first she knew of the awful crime was the shriek of her mother crying "Murder, murder," from the kitchen adjoining. This cry awoke Mary. Her little sister came to her bed and said, "Dyer is killing me."

Feeble Sophia.

Mrs. Sophia Wetzen, of Spring Meadow, Long Island, arose from her slumbers about half an hour later than usual Tuesday morning, and as some dozen farm hands were waiting for their morning meal, she endeavored to expedite matters by lighting the fire with the aid of kerosene oil.

Singular Case.

In April last, a man named William McKenzie, a sailor of the ship Roseneath, delivered himself up to the authorities of Halifax, saying that more than seven years previously he had murdered a man in Argyle street, Glasgow.

Touching Incident—Burial Services Conducted at the Grave by a Young Lady.

In this city lives a poor family, the father of which is a Catholic, while the mother is a Protestant. During its sickness it was attended by a physician who was accompanied on every visit by his daughter, a girl of fifteen years, who evinced the greatest solicitude for the little sufferer.

Shipping Cities by Railroad.

Some weeks since allusion was made in the Chicago papers to the inauguration in that city of a new enterprise on a large scale—the building of ready-made houses for shipment to the sparsely settled districts in the interior, where skilled labor is scarce, and the facilities for house-building meager.

The Size of a Leg.

In Worcester, in a lawsuit, a plump female witness was asked by the counsel at what time the cars passed her house on a certain day. She replied that she began knitting at 3 o'clock, and knit twice around the leg of a stocking before the train passed.
