Sent on for Trial.

George King, colored, charged with larceny, who has been confined in our county jail for some weeks past for safe-keeping, is to be sent to Bladen county to-day, where the offence was committed, for trial before the Superior Court now in session at Elizabethtown.

Mr. J. K. McIlhenny and Dr. A. E. Wright have entered into co partnership in the wholesale and retail drug business, at Lippitt's old stand, and have secured the services of Mr. E. Willis, one of the most experienced druggists in the State, who will have charge of the prescription department. They are enlarging their store so as to give them increased facilities for carrying on their business.

Heavy Robbery.

We are informed that, on Sunday night, the store of Messrs. Rinaldi & Co., at Elizabethtown, Bladen County, was entered by burglars and the safe robbed of from $8,000 to $10,000. About $3,500 of the amount belonged to the county, having been deposited there for safe keeping by some officer, and the balance to the estate of W. B. McKay, deceased. There is not even a suspicion as to who committed the robbery; but we presume skilled detectives will be employed immediately to work

If you want Boarders, advertise in our new department, under head of "Wants," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exeeding five lines.

Eclectic Soiree Club.

We tender our thanks to the Governing Committee of the Eclectic Soiree Club, of this city, through Richard W. Andrews, Secretary, for a complimentary ticket to the series of "hops" to be given on the second and fourth Friday evenings of each month, at 8 o'clock, at member the many pleasant evenings spent with this club last season, and will await with lively anticipations the commencement of the series of entertainments which is now promised them at Eclectic Hall.

Advertise It. Let the people know where you arewhat you have to sell-how cheap you selland what you want to sell. Let them know all this, and the way to do it is to advertise. It will bring you trade; it will bring you money. If a man wants to buy anything he goes where he sees the most men trying to sell it. If he wants to sell anything he goes where the most men are buying it, and he goes to the men who advertise because he knows where to find them. This is the great secret of success. If you want to let your friends know where you are, advertise.

A gentleman at Fayetteville, alluding to the man McCall, whose death at the City Hospital a few days since we mentioned in the STAR, says: "There was a man (Duncan McCall) who left this county last winter and went to Arkansas, and about five weeks ago he wrote to his people from Holly Springs, saying that he had been sick, had started for his home in North Carolina and reached Holly Springs, where he was sick and without money. Twenty dol lars were sent him and nothing has been heard from him since. * * I am inclined to believe he was the man who died in your Hospital. He never lived in Cedar Creek, but has a brother there. His mother lives at Argyle and is in great distress about the fate of her

We are satisfied that the man McCall who died in our Hospital is the same alluded to by our correspondent. His remains, as we then stated, were interred in the City Cemetery, from whence they can be removed by his friends at any time.

- James Davis, colored, requests us, in jus tice to himself, to state that he was not arraigned before the City Court on Monday, and that he was not summoned before it on any charge whatever. We make the correction, but don't assume the responsibility for the error.

From Charleston.

The reports of the progress of yellow fever in Charleston, as furnished by the City Registrar, are very encouraging, and indicate the probability that the disease is dying out. The News of yesterday says:

The City Registrar reports the receipt of ly one certificate of death from yellow fever during the twenty four hours ending at noon yesterday. This death took place on Saturday, but was not reported until Sunday afternoon, and if such delays continue, the City Registrar will make an example of three or four offenders. The whole of Sunday and Monday were without a single fatal case of yellow fever, and we hear of no new patients.

We sincerely trust that the worst is past and that the city may soon be freed altogether from danger of the dreadful pestilence.

BETTER STILL!-Our Associated Press dispatch received last night reports no deaths for the preceding twenty-four hours. This makes three days in succession that no death from the fever have been reported. A very cheering

The Stabbing Case.

We alluded very briefly in our last to an un fortunate difficulty that occurred near the corner of Fourth and Castle streets at a late bour on Monday night last, during which Mr. Robert Costin was dangerously stabbed in the head by Mr. W. H. James, both young men belonging in this city. After the wounded man was taken home, the knife which had not been previously removed by Dr. King from prudential motives, was with much difficulty, withdrawn, the blade having penetrated the left side of his head, above the temple, to its entire length, which was about three inches, and going for some distance into the brain. Since that time he bas been speechless and un-

Yesterday Mr. James was arraigned before Justice Cantwell for a preliminary examination, which resulted in his being regularly Eclectic Hall. Our citizens have cause to re- committed for trial at the next term of the Superior Court, which meets in this city on the 1st Monday in December next. An application for bail was refused by Justice Cantwell, and the prisoner was thereupon turned over to the Sheriff and committed to jail.

It may be proper to remark that the Court, under the evidence of Dr. J. Francis King to the effect that there was little or no possibility that the wounded man could recover, acted upon the hypothesis that he was already dead. We had intended to give the evidence in full in our paper this morning, but for prudential reasons we forbear to do so at present.

The defence was ably conducted by A. T London, Esq. Much interest was manifested in the proceedings, which occupied a good

At a late hour last evening, Mr. Costin was still alive, there being no perceptible change in his condition.
