Returned Home.

We were glad to meet on our streets, yesterday, our young friend, James Sprunt, Esq., who has been absent for some months past on an extended tour of Europe, and who arrived home on Wednesday night.

Bar and River Improvement.

Major Craighill, Superintendent in charge, in company with Major Walter Griswold, Engineer, went down the river yesterday for the purpose of inspecting the works for the improvement of our bar and river, and we learn that he expresses himself thoroughly satisfied with the manner in which the work is being conducted, and is confident that it will ultimately result in that advantage to our river and harbor which it was sought to attain.

Sad Occurrence.

In Fayetteville on Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock, as we learn from the Raleigh Sentinel, Mr. Jno. R. Jenkins, a clerk in the hardware store of W. D. Smith & Co., was found dead in his room. An empty vial marked "lanudum" on the mantelpiece and a note, explained that the unfortunate man had come to his death through his own instrumentality.

The German Pic-Nic.

The Pic-Nic at Col. Klein's magnificent "Wilmington Garden," Wednesday night, was a grand success. It was largely attended by our German citizens of both sexes. It is one of their peculiarities to court enjoyment, and they revelled in it on this occasion without stint or hindrance.

Remarkable Phenomenon.

The attention of our citizens, yesterday morning, was directed to a very extraordinary phenomenon in the heavens. A large and unbroken circle was formed around the sun, the outer edge of which was of a light color and the inner rim of a greenish hue, both being perfectly distinct and clear.

A New Temperance Order.

A number of our citizens met on Monday night last and instituted Friendship Temple of Honor and Temperance No. 1. This is a Temperance order and has an extensive membership throughout the Northern and many of the Southern States, though this is the first "Temple" that has been established in this State.

Arrested for Larceny.

Some weeks since we recorded the fact that a colored individual in this city had been arrested on the charge of stealing a bag of peas from Mr. W. L. Gora. At a subsequent investigation it was discovered that he was innocent of the theft.

Good Paste.

Dissolve one ounce of alum in a quart of warm water; when cold, add as much flour as will make it the consistency of cream; then stir with it as much powdered rosin as will cover a shilling, and two or three cloves—boil it to a consistency, stirring all the time. This paste will keep for weeks, and when dry may be moistened with water.

Star Book Bindery.

The attention of the public is called to the superior facilities we now have for executing cheaply, promptly and skillfully all kinds of Binding and Ruling. Our business in this department has steadily increased, an evidence that we have not labored in vain in our effort to establish a Book Bindery equal to the demands of our growing city.

Local Data.

The streets are becoming dry and dusty. There was no session of the City Court yesterday.

Prime mill-timber is now bringing extraordinary good prices in this market.

At last accounts Mr. Robert Costin was still alive, though in a very critical condition.

A man, whose name we failed to learn, fell dead in the Post-office at Lumberton yesterday.

We learn that the colored people propose to give an excursion to the seashore, on the Waccamaw, on Monday next.

The Thos. Colville property, on Chesnut Street, between Second and Third, was sold yesterday, by Messrs. James & Meares, auctioneers, for $2,600.

A preliminary survey for a railroad to connect Kingsville, the terminus of the Wilmington and Manchester Road, with Augusta, Georgia, is now being made.

A French girl, only twelve years old, neatly and tastefully dressed, has surprised the people of Vermont by her skill in the use of the axe.

Blindman's Bluff is supposed to come nearer to getting into human sympathy than any other amusement known to the children of men, because it is a fellow-feeling for a fellow-creature.

"My dear," said a husband to his wife, "I'm going to start a coffee plantation." "How will you get the land?" "Oh, there's no trouble about that; I always have plenty of coffee grounds in my cup."

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The oyster saloons in Raleigh are in full blast.

Somebody advertises in the Wilmington Spectator for a wife.

The squedunks have reached Lumberton, whereupon Mac, gets "awful jolly sad."

Ex-Gov. Holden assumed the editorial control of the Washington Chronicle on the 13th.

In Greenville, Pitt county, on Friday last a negro by the name of Thomas King, was badly shot in attempting to resist the deputy sheriff, who had a warrant for his arrest.

W. N. Bell, Esq., Route Agent Southern Express Company, was in Raleigh Tuesday, en route for Fayetteville, where he goes to make arrangements to open an office for the company.

It appears from a communication in the Old North State, that the University Library has, since March 1, 1869, received gifts of four hundred and fifty bound volumes and eighteen hundred pamphlets.

The Sentinel says: The United States authorities have brought so many prisoners to this city for trial at this term of the Circuit Court, that the jail is not large enough and the court house has to be brought into use, and a large number are now kept in custody there.
