Another Removal.

We learn that Wm. H. Thurbur, colored. recently appointed Assistant Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the 3rd District, vice. Chas. Posner, removed, has since shared the fate of his predecessor, the Department, on the recommendation of Supervisor Perry, having decided to cut down the number of Revenue officials in this State.

Sent on for Trial.

Tim Daily, a deserter from the U. S. Army. who was arrested in Robeson county some time since by Capt. F. M. Wishart and subsequently taken to Fort Johnston, was brought up to the city yesterday, in charge of a sergeant of the Garrison, and will be carried to Raleigh this morning to stand his trial before a Court Martial. In the meantime he was lodged in the Guard House for safe-keeping.

We learn from Sergeant Seyboth, in charge of the Signal Station at this port, that two flags, one white and one red, will soon be forwarded him from Washington for use at this station in displaying cantionary and warning signals for the benefit of shipping. For this purpose he will have a wooden staff erected thirty feet in height, to be increased to fifty feet as soon as possible. We learn furthermore that there will soon be further improve ments, such as bombs, rockets, &c., for night signals. City Court.

The case of Chas. Wassent, charged with as sault and battery on the person of Mr. Daniel Russell, on or about the 20th of last month, was up before the City Court yesterday morning, and, after a lengthy examination, consuming the greater part of the forenoon, he was finally required to give security in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Geo. L. Mabson, colored, appeared for the Cotton for the Missouri Fair.

Yesterday Messrs. Sprunt & Hinson received one bale of Middling cotton intended for the St. Louis, Missouri Fair, which will be shipped on the first s'eamer to Baltimore and thence forwarded to its destination. This cotton was raised on the plantation of Dr. E. F. Ashe, whose cotton took the first preminm at our Fair last year, and was picked by the Dr.'s wife and daughter. By the way, we learn that no freight will be charged on cotten, intended for the St. Louis Fair, by the Baltimore and Southern Steamship Line.

The Bond Case Again.

The much talked of Bond case, in which one J. Keller of Baltimore figure as defendant, came up for final examination before U. 8. Commissioner McQuigg yesterday after-DuBrutz Cutlar, Esq., appeared for the United States, and Messrs. M. London and Wm. R. Empie, for the defence.

The defendant was arraigned on two separate charges, viz: Counterfeiting, and forging the endorsement on the bond, on both of which, after a lengthy investigation, interspersed with argument by counsel, he was acquitted. He was subsequently rearrested, however, on the charge of delivering and offering to sell to the 1st National Bank of this city a bond of the United States with a false and forged endorsement thereon, with the intent that the said endorsement should be used as true and genuine. This charge was predicated on two affidavit, to wit: One from C. P. Baird, of Philadelphia, stating that this identical bond was stolen from his office on the 27th day of December, 1866, while the bond itself shows that it was endorsed by D. Rosa McKean, in whose favor it was made, on the 5th day of January, 1869, or about three years after it was stolen; and one from Wm. Larkins, Esq., of the 1st National Bank, that to the best of his knowledge and belief the said endorsement is a forgery.

On this charge Mr. Keller was held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. Circuit Court.

From Charleston.

The Charleston News of yesterday says The sudden change from warm to coo weather has had, as was expected, an unfavor able effect upon the sick, and four deaths from fever are reported for the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday, viz: John Habenicht, who died on the 19th, and Lizzie-Jones, Henry Kuck and Diedrich Klintworth, who died on the 20th. Against this, we may set the cheering effect that the cool weather pre vents the fever from spreading. THE TIDAL WAVE.

Professor Agassis Heard From-First Class Hoax.

We are indebted to Major Walter Griswold, U. S. Assistant Engineer, in charge of our Bar and River Improvement, for the following correspondence between himself and Professor Agassiz :

OFFICE CAPE FEAR RIVER IMP'TS. WILMINGT N, N. C., Sept. 16th, 1871. Professor Agassiz, Harvard College, Cambridge,

DEAR SIR:-There are rumors in the paper of a great "Tidal Waye" on our coast as im-puted to scientific calculations made by you, to occur on the 5th or 6th proximo: I take the liberty of addressing you, and asking the simple question, if such a report emanated from you. Of course criticisms and laughable allusions are made by the press and people to this prognostication, but owing to the immense property, and numbers of men, I have exposed upon the coast, improving the mouth of the Cape Fear River, I hardly deem it justice to them that I should treat this subject lightly. But in the absence of any official statement I do not wish to be needlessly alarmed and act foolishly in removing property and it en from a supposed unsale position. I presume you have received thousands of letters upon this subject, and I only wish you to consider my letter as not written in an alarmed state of mind, but as a duty I owe to the United States in protecting their property, and the lives of my men.

By an immediate reply you will oblige Most respectfully, Your Ob't Serv't,

WALTER GRISWOLD, U. S. Assist. Engineer.

WALTER GRISWOLD, ESQ.,

U. S. Assistant Engineer, &c.,

Dear Sir:—In the absence of Professor Agassiz, I have to acknowledge the receipt of your fayor of the 16th inst. In answer to your enquiry I have to say that Professor Agassiz has never expressed any opinion, scientific or otherwise, on the probable appearance of a "tidal wave" on our coast on the 5th or 6th proximo, nor has he ever prophesied the appearance of a tidal wave on any other coast at any other time. This report is entirely an invention of some newspaper penny-a-liner. I am Superintendent of Professor Agassiz's Museum, and have been with him daily for a year past, and know that he has never expressed an opinion, scientific or Good Hope, white I came by rail and steam-seem as sweet and fresh as when the goods were put up. This a little remarkable as the cases were in the ship's hold five months and passed through the tropics twice on the veyage out.

Please accept the united thanks of my whole family, for it is one of the greatest treats we have had in a long time. We eat hominy three times a day, and enjoy it very much indeed. The Lord reward you, my dear brother. Agassiz, I have to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 16th inst. In answer to your enquiry I have to say that Professor Agassiz past, and know that he has never expressed an epinion on this subject, or referred to it in any way, except as a subject of annoyance to him.

In an article of some length, emanating from the brain (?) of that queerest of the queer genuises who presides over the columns of the Lumberton-Chicago-Robesonian, which is totally uncalled for and unprovoked by anything which ever appeared, editorially or otherwise, in the STAR, the editor attempts to array the people of Robeson against our paper by indulging in a tissue of misrepresentations and deductions from false premises. In the first place, although well acquainted with the inconsistencies (so-called) of the individual alluded to, we are really surprised that he should accuse any one else of intimating "that the people of Robeson are all cowards and poltroons," an accusation which nothing we have ever said can be construed to warrant, when it is well known that the Editor of the Robeso nian, both through his paper and in private conversations, has frequently expressed this opinion of the people of his own county, and that in the strongest terms, even going so far in conversation with us as to make but one single axception to his otherwise sweeping assertion that the citizens of that county, engaged in operations against the outlaws, were just what he unblushingly and falsely charges the STAR with intimating them to be. That he should thus go back on his own record and accuse others of that which he knows himself to be guilty of may be characteristic of the man, but it is not calculated to benefit him in the community, where, among intelligent peopeople, his status as a journalist has already been correctly estimated.

This plous pretender next takes up the cudgel in defence of the County Commissioners of Robeson, torturing a mere suggestion of ours, that it might have been better to have so as to encourage him and others to persevere in their efforts to rid the county of dling" in the affairs of Robeson county, and this when in the same article the astute editor says himself that he is "satisfied the Commissioners would cheerfully allow him a reason-

But the coolest thing in the whole column of absurdities with which the article referred to abounds, is the Editor's reference to the sensational character of our paper. If we had taken up half the space the Robesonian has in ridiculous appeals for the introduction of blood-hounds, snakes, and other monstrocities to hunt the outlaws to their death we might lay some claim to publishing a sensational sheet, but as it is the Robesonian is entitled to the premium. The whole article bears the impress of spite, malevolence and jealousy, and these characteristics are so transparent in every word that he has uttered against us, to say nothing of his striking a cotemporary from his exchange list because it persisted in copying our articles instead of his own, that we deem it unnecessary to say anything further to convict this pious pretender, this would-be knight-erraut of the chivalry of Robeson county, before the bar of an intelligent public opinion.
