Weather Report. WAR DEPARTMENT, Office of Chief Signal Officer, Washington, Sept. 25-4:35 P. M. Probabilities.

Cloudiness will probably extend very generally on Tuesday along the entire Atlantic coast and on the lower lakes, with light rains in some localities, as Virginia and Lake Eric. Rising barometer, with clearing weather and falling temperature, from Michigan and Superior westward, and southward to the Gulf. No predictions have been issued from this office respecting the so called wave, nor is any such wave anticipated.

Don't Forget.

The public in general, and the ladies in particular, in their search for the latest styles in dry goods, &c., should remember Cohen's Dry Goods Emporium, at No. 29 Market Street. He has just returned with a complete assortment of everything that can be mentioned in

We are glad to find on our table once more the Carolina Watchman, the publication of which has been resumed at Salisbury by Mr. J. J. Bruner, its former Editor and proprietor. The Watchman was always a good paper and will no doubt keep up its well-earned reputa-

City Court. The following cases were disposed of yester-

Wm. T. Cutlar, charged with cursing, quarreling, &c., was found guilty. Judgment suspended on the payment of the costs.

Albert Williams, charged with cursing, quarreling, &c. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Not His First Experience.

Alluding to the assault upon and attempted robbery of Daniel O'Sullivan in this city a few days ago, the Newbern Times says: "It will be remembered that O'Sullivan was robbed in this city by Henry Clifton and others some three years ago, for which they ware sentenced to the Penitentiary for twenty years." It seems that Dan. is a favorite victim of the "bruisers."

Additional Troops for Robeson County. We learn that a detachment of twenty-four U. S. Troops, intended as a reinforcement to those already on duty in Robeson county, arrived in this city last evening and will take the cars for the scene of operations this morning. Col. Mendenhall, who has been with his garrison at Fort Johnson for a brief period, will return with the troops and assume com-

Sudden Death.

A white man from Bladen county, by the name of Hayes, who was found very sick on a rait at one of the wharves of this city on Saturday evening last, and taken to the City Hospital, died in that institution on Sunday morning. Coroner Hewlett was notified and held an inquest over the body yesterday, but we have not been informed of the nature of the verdict. It is the general impression, however, that he died from exposure.

Enlarging.

We are glad to see that the success of the First Co-operative Store has been of such a character as to call for a material enlargement of their field of operations. With this object in view the building used by the Company, on the corner of Front and Dock streets, is receiving a very material addition, which will afford them much more room than heretofore, and speech. vill enable them to increase their stock suffi ciently to meet the public demand.

A Failure.

The colored excursion which was to have taken place yesterday, on the Waccamaw proved a "flash in the pan." This is attributed to the fear entertained by some of the expected participants that the "tidal wave" might possibly anticipate the period fixed for its appearance by Prol. Agassiz and over whelm then before they could return. How far this may be true we are not prepared to say. We only know there was no excursion. and Capt. Potter can bear us out in this assertion.

Taken to Columbus. This morning Pop. Oxendine and Mollie Watters, the former charged with complicity in the numerous outrages perpetrated in Robeson county by the Lowrey gang, will be taken to Whiteville, Columbus county, to-day, to appear before the Superior Court in session there this week. Mollie Watters is an important State's witness in a murder and robbery case and has been confined in our county jail for safe keeping. They go to Columbus in charge of Officer N. Carr.

Look Out for the Outlaws.

We have been furnished with the following description of the notorious Robeson county outlaws. It would be well for our readers generally to preserve a copy of this descrip-

As it is possible that the Lowrey gang of outlaws now infesting Robeson county, North Carolins, may singly or in a body, attempt to escape from that section, the following description of the gang is given, in order that the public may be posted in regard to them.—
There are rewards offered, both by the State and county authorities, for their apprehension, amounting, in the aggregate, to $8,500 for the

Henry Berry Lowrey is about five feet eight inches high, weighs about 145 or 150 lbs, is straight and square built, has straight dark hair, dull blue eyes, and is so nearly white, that he might readily pass for a white man. He has a black mark immediately under his left eye, made by falling on a pot in his youth. At present he wears full beard and mestache on his face, of a dark color, not very thick. He is about 27 years of age and is slow in speech.

Stephen Lowrey is 31 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, deep black hair and eyes, is of a swarthy, dark brown complexion, thin visaged, rather stooping habit, and is quick spoken. He has a bad countenance. At present, he wears a moustache and goatee, very black but thin.

Thomas Lowrey is about six feet high, tolerably heavy built, weighs about 200 lbs, has a dull blue eye and a pleasing countenance, is nearly white and will readily pass as such; he has a full face, dark hair and beard and is rather quick spoken, with a low and pleasant voice. He has been wounded by pleasant voice. He has been wounded by gunshot in his left arm and back. He is about twenty-five years of age.

Andrew Strong is a tall slim man, over six feet high, bright mulatto complexion, black eyes and dark straight hair, and is quick spoken. He wears no whiskers, and has but little beard. He is about 26 years of age.

Boss Strong is about 5 feet 7 inches high, thick set, full face and will weigh about 170 lbs. He is only 20 years of age, and has no beard, only a thick down on his upper lip and temples.

beard, only a thick down on his upper lip and temples. He is nearly white, and will readily pass as such. He is not disposed to be talkative. His hair is black, with a disposition to curl; he wears it short. He has black eyes, and heavy eye-brows which nearly meet.

Parties in South Carolina and the country immediately around Robeson County, should be on the look out for these outlaws, as they frequently leave their haunts singly, for purposes of their own; and it is possible that they may attempt to flee the county. It is also possible that they may attempt to disguise themselves to clude the vigilance of the law.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, SEPT. 24, 1871

From Charleston. The News of yesterday morning says :

"The number of deaths from vellow fever. during the past week, as shown by the daily reports of the city registrar, is 26, viz: Monday's report 1, Tuesday's report 1, Wednesday's report 3, Thursday's report 4, Friday's report 8, Saturday's report 4, Sunday's report 5. These deaths occurred on the following days: On Sunday 1, on Tuesday 5, on Wednesday 8, on Thursday 5, on Friday 4, and on Saturday 3; total 26. These figures show that the heaviest mortality, as was expected to be the case, was immediately after the sudden change in the weather from sultry warmth to damp coolness. In our last weekly report we showed that the number of deaths up to the 16th inst (including the death on that day reported by the registrar on Sunday), was 56. Adding the subsequent deaths to date, we have a total of 82 deaths this year, against 464 for the corresponding period in 1858, 96 in 1856, and 365 in 1854,"

The city registrar reports 5 deaths from the prevailing disease for the twenty-four hours ending at 12 M, on Sunday, and our press telegram last night reports 5 for the twenty-four hours next ensuing.

The U. S. District Court-Trial of the Biggerstaff Cases, &c.

[Special Dispatch to the Petersburg Index.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 23, 1871. Last night the court sat until rather a late hour, and one of the Biggerstaff cases was dispossed of. It was an indictment against J. H. Witherlow, Wm. McIntire, W. Teal, Jas. Hunt, and Thos. Tomes, for waylaying Aaron Biggerstaff, and assaulting him while on his way to testify as a witness, under process of law before a United States Commissioner. The 2nd count, charge of conspiracy to intimidate Baggerstaff away from his political principles, about the first of May last in Cleveland county. The District Attorney, Starbuck, and Assistant District Attorney, S. F. Phillips, and Lusk prosecuted, and Messrs. Strong, Lee, Durham and Carson for defence.

J. H. Witherlow, Wm. McIntire and W. Teal pleaded guilty and the remain-ing two, Jas. Hunt and Thomas Tomes, were cleared on their evidence, as they all testified that Hunt and James were not on the raid on Biggerstaff. Biggerstaff, his wife and daughter all swore directly contrary, saying that they recognized them both. Both Hunt and Tomes were discharged from custody. McIntire and Teal are both under sentence, having been convicted in the Justice case. This morning another case of Biggerstaff was taken up, charging Amos Owen, who was convicted and sentenced in the Justice case and some 20 others with assault upon him for voting for the Republican candidate for Congress, in 1870, in that district. At this hour, 6 P. M., only two witnesses have been examined.
