New Firm. Messrs. H. P. West and N. T. HARRIS give notice in this issue that they will open on Monday next...

For Sale or Rent. If you have a house or farm for sale or rent advertise it in our new department...

New Cars. There were three new and handsome cars at the Depot of the Wilmington and Weldon road yesterday...

A Contempt Case. Mr. McLaurin, J. P., issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Duncan Holmes...

Printing Paper. We do not keep Printing Paper regularly in stock for sale...

Almost a Fire Again. The residence of Mr. Geo. W. Huggins came near being the scene of a conflagration yesterday...

Returned. We learn that J. E. Eldridge, late Radical Sheriff of Bladen county, who left for the North immediately on the heels of the late robbery of the safe of Messrs. Rinaldi & Co...

Care for Nervous Headache. Take a dessert spoonful of common soda, such as is used in making bread...

Wants. If you want a clerk, bookkeeper, salesman or porter, advertise in our new department under the head of "Wants"...

Local Notes.

Autumn is the best time to paint a house. Big frost in Brunswick yesterday morning.

New River oysters are coming in quite freely. Major John Hughes, of Newbern, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. J. E. King administered the ordinance of baptism to three persons on Thursday night last, at the First Baptist Church.

The next annual session of Wilmington Male and Female Seminary, G. W. Jewett, Principal, will commence on Thursday October 5th.

We are glad to see that the authorities have commenced sawdusting Red Cross and Rankin streets to Oakdale Cemetery...

An advertisement of Col. S. L. Fremont, giving the rates on naval stores from the 1st of October, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad...

Rachel Hooper, colored, charged with larceny, and turned over to the Sheriff by the City Court, was committed to jail yesterday...

E. S. Woodford, Esq., has rented the office lately occupied by Justice McQuigg, opposite the Court House, where he will dispense justice to the public whenever his services may be required.

We learn from an old citizen, who is up on the wing as early as the lark, that Jack Frost put in an appearance here yesterday morning.

We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of Rocky Point Medical Club at Rocky Point Academy this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

City Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday: Sandy Campbell, charged with cursing, quarreling, &c., was found guilty.

Phillip Lane, charged with rapid driving, &c., submitted, judgment for the penalty and costs. Discharged, subsequently, on the payment of costs.

A young man whose name we are requested to withhold, charged with cursing, quarreling and tearing down fences, was found guilty.

Rachel Hooper, charged with stealing calico dress from one Jane McNeill, was required to give security in the sum of $300 for her appearance at the next term of the Superior Court to answer to the charge of larceny.

A New Enterprise. We learn that the College of Physicians and Surgeons of this city have purchased the lot on Third street, between Princess and Chestnut, and immediately adjoining the Odd Fellows' Hall, for the purpose of erecting a large three story brick building to be used as a Medical College.

More About the Late Murder in Sampson. Our readers will remember the reference we made a few days ago to the murder of Mr. Archie Layhorn, near Little Boharie Swamp, Sampson county...

Star Book Bindery. The attention of the public is called to the superior facilities we now have for executing cheaply, promptly and skillfully all kinds of binding and ruling.

RIVER AND MARINE NEWS. The Sch. John Withers, from Rastan, bound for Baltimore, with a cargo of fruit, &c., put in here yesterday to obtain a supply of provisions.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: It is rumored that Mr. E. R. Stanley, by the grace of Gov. Caldwell, President of the Atlantic Railroad, has gone North with a view to imitate Major Wm. A. Smith, and sell out the Atlantic road to the Pennsylvania Central.

The family of C. E. Parish, a lawyer of Hillsboro, was recently poisoned by drinking milk. Mr. Parish had recently bought a fine cow that he kept in his yard, and it must have had on some poisonous weed growing there, nightshade or something of the kind.

Our Chip Basket.

A bad style of arithmetic—Division among families. The Queen of Denmark spends only $100 per annum for dresses.

A New Orleans belle boasts that her hair is six feet nine inches long. Cut off my curls with your scissors, mamma, is a fearful new ditty.

American belles now promenade in company with a maid, like the French. Ladies naturally prefer a marriage ring, but gentlemen prefer a business ring.

He who laughs can commit no deadly sin," said the wise and sweet-hearted woman who was the mother of Goethe.

What is the difference between a farmer and a bottle of whiskey? One husbands the corn, and the other corers the husbands.

Why are good women like ivy? Because the greater the ruin the closer they cling. Why are bad women like ivy? Because the closer they cling the greater the ruin.

An old farmer who was asked by an impatient attorney if there were any pretty girls in his neighborhood, answered, "Yes, lots of 'em, so many that they can't all find respectable husbands, and lately some of 'em's been takin' up with lawyers."

Printing Ink. A full supply of Robinson's Printing Ink kept constantly on hand at the office of the Morning Star. These inks are equal, if not superior, to any manufactured in this country.

Indestructible Tag. The indestructible Tag is a great convenience to merchants. It answers the combined purpose of a direction label and business card.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE. Newbern wants a Board of Trade. Greensboro is soon to have a market house.

The Winston Sentinel has a six pound beat. Greensboro has had its first wild turkey of the season.

Partridges are selling at six cents a piece in Greensboro. Greensboro is troubled more than usual with chills and fevers.

The colored Methodists of Greensboro are building a fine church. There will be more Fairs held in North Carolina this year than heretofore.

Henry Parks, an aged and worthy citizen of Wayne county, died a few days ago. A wolf or wildcat was seen recently at the residence of Mr. Spicer, near Rocky Mount.

The Masons of Battleboro are talking of instituting a Lodge of the Order in that place. The Reynold's Blonde Lady Minstrels and Olio Troupe exhibit in Goldsboro this evening.

C. C. Bonner, an old and well-known citizen of Rocky Mount, is in the last stage of consumption. Dickey Tillery, the youthful orator, will speak in Raleigh soon, after which he will go to Boston to fill some engagements.

Bishop Gibbons on Sunday last dedicated the new Catholic church at Asheville. The services are spoken of as being very interesting. Thursday witnesses tickets to the amount of $3,000 were issued by the Clerk of the U. S. Circuit Court in Raleigh. This will do for one day.

Newbern is disgusted with discussion, on the Pantarchy, Free Love, Woman Suffrage and Victoria Woodhull, which are carried on in that city. The Episcopal Church building at Greensboro is progressing finely. The roof is finished and carpenters busy at work enclosing the sides.

Christian Ebert, a citizen of Stokes, and an old soldier of 1812, died at the residence of J. A. White, in Winston, on Tuesday night last. A very interesting revival is now progressing at Thompson's Chapel, in Wayne county. It is conducted by the Rev. Jno. N. Andrews, who is assisted by the Rev. A. J. Finlayson.

On Sunday last the Rev's W. M. Wigate, C. J. Nelson, W. M. Kennedy and W. T. Walters, ordained to the work of the Gospel Ministry the Rev. C. Durham, pastor of the Baptist Church, at Goldsboro. One night last week during the progress of the great religious revival among the negroes at Henderson, Mr. Riddick Tassler had his hen house robbed and all his chickens stolen.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: It is rumored that Mr. E. R. Stanley, by the grace of Gov. Caldwell, President of the Atlantic Railroad, has gone North with a view to imitate Major Wm. A. Smith, and sell out the Atlantic road to the Pennsylvania Central.

The family of C. E. Parish, a lawyer of Hillsboro, was recently poisoned by drinking milk. Mr. Parish had recently bought a fine cow that he kept in his yard, and it must have had on some poisonous weed growing there, nightshade or something of the kind.

The Hillsboro Recorder says:

Mr. Wm. Wilson, living eight miles from this place was drowned in a branch two inches deep and twelve inches wide last Thursday evening at two o'clock.

Dr. AYER'S PILLS for all the purposes of a Purgative, for Constipation, Indigestion, Headache and Liver Complaint. By their use, they are the best of all purgatives for family use.

Do not, if not necessary, think of a Hair Dressing independent of many. The new process, which Dr. Ayer's Laboratory issues, is one of the most delightful we have ever used.
