NOTE: All barometric readings are reduced to the sea-level and to 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

Weather Report. WAR DEPARTMENT, Office of Chief Signal Officer, Washington, Oct. 5 - 4:35 P. M.

Rising barometer and clearing weather with north-westerly winds will probably prevail Friday throughout the Mississippi valley.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. GRENSENBERG'S Live Book Store, 59 Market street - New Novels - The Latest Published.

W. M. STEVENSON. - House Furnishing Articles. Removed to Front Street.

OLDHAM & CUMMING. - Near Approach of the "Tidal Wave."

Signals. To-day, weather permitting, the signal station at this place will be surmounted by a staff or pole about forty-one feet high.

Roller Skating. Mr. Jas. M. Brown, Superintendent of the Skating rink in this city, informs us that he intends, if possible, to have the rink in successful operation by the last of next week.

Removal. Our friend Stevenson has removed into our neighborhood, the real business centre of the city, where he has opened one of the finest stocks of China, Glass, Earthenware and House Furnishing Goods ever seen in Wilmington.

Death of a Prominent Colored Man. Yesterday George Washington Green, who has for some time past officiated as Clerk of the Market, was carried to his last resting place.

Discharged from Custody. Mr. George Sinclair, who has for several months past been confined in our county jail to await a requisition from Georgia, was brought before his Honor, Judge Russell, yesterday morning.

Business Changes. During no season since the war have we witnessed so many changes in location among our business men.

The Humbug Exploded. Up to the time of going to press last night the "tidal wave" had not put in an appearance. In lieu thereof, however, our city and vicinity, during yesterday and last night, was visited by a heavy rain storm.

Printing Paper. We do not keep Printing Paper regularly in stock for sale; but can always supply our friends with small quantities, say from two to ten reams, at reasonable prices for all strictly cash orders.

Local Notes.

There was no session of the City Court yesterday. About the last shrimps of the season were in market yesterday. Next Thursday, the 17th inst., is the first anniversary of the death of Gen. Lee.

The Baptist State Convention will convene in Charlotte on the 7th of November. The North Carolina Conference will meet in Charlotte on the 29th of November. Bishop Payne is expected to preside.

The oyster saloons will all be in full blast in a day or two. Some of them are dealing out the delicious bivalves already. Only two yellow fever deaths in Charleston, for the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday, were reported by telegraph last night.

The Guard House at the City Hall has a basso profundo of great compass of voice inured in its cells. The city would part with him to an Opera company for a consideration.

For the first time in several years a genuine organ grinder was seen on our streets yesterday plying his vocation. Of course, on account of the novelty of the thing, he reaped a harvest of pennies, and juvenility was in ecstasies.

The latest intelligence in reference to the "Tidal Wave" will be found in our advertising columns under the head of "Great Excitement." It is proper to state that this startling information came to hand after our article on the same subject was written. Read and prepare to lay in your stock of breadstuffs!

We have this day received a dispatch from the Clerk of the Weather, who informs us that the "tidal wave" has been postponed for one week to allow DAVID & WEIL to sell one million more tidal wave suits of clothing to save the human race of Carolina.

Amusements this Season. It is to be hoped that the Theatre will be rented to some responsible person without delay. It would have been much better for all concerned had the matter been attended to a month ago.

Germany has nineteen female editors. When is a clock on the stairs dangerous? When it runs down.

An Iowa girl cut up a rattlesnake with a cleaver, and didn't faint until she had got through. If you want your neighbors to "know about you," give a party and don't invite the folks who live next door.

A householder in Florida, in filling up his census schedule, under the heading "where born" described one of his children as "born in the parlor," and the other "up stairs." A strict return.

It is cheerful to be sitting in a railroad car, going at the rate of forty miles an hour, and have a man pass through the train and leave a tract in your lap entitled "Prepare to meet your God."

A gay matron in Indiana recently captured her daughter's intended, whereas the young lady waxed wroth, and, by way of revenge, stuffed a dozen bunches of fire crackers under the bridal couch.

A Pittsburg lady so loved a Pittsburg doctor that she was willing to take him even with the name of Oldshue; and the happy couple get along with that ease for which a pair of Oldshues are proverbial.

Prof. Briggs intends starting his skating rink in Tarboro' at an early day. The Tarboro Southerner regrets to learn that the Gin House of Mr. C. W. Smith on the Penny Hill plantation, Edgecombe county, was entirely consumed by fire last Saturday afternoon about 8 o'clock.

The Era says there will be ample provision for all who may desire to board in that city during Fair week. The Raleigh Sentinel says: The total shipments of cotton from Raleigh for 1870-'71, were over twelve thousand bales.

Rutherford Vindicator says: An old man and his son, giving the names of Silas and Sikes Ingram, hailing from Lancaster county, S. C., came to Robert McFarland's, at Sandy Plains, Polk county, on the 25th ult., both sick and partially deranged.

Great Excitement!
