DUDLEY & ELLIS, No. 41 Market street.—Beautiful Baby Slippers.

L. H. & T. C. DEROSSSETT—Insurance—The Underwriters Agency of N. Y., etc.

DEROSSSETT & CO.—Mesa Fork and Butter.

LOST—A Child's Gold Locket and Chain.

Removed. S. Levy having removed to his new Store, corner Market and Front, formerly occupied by J. G. Bauman, has just opened an entire new stock of Dry Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, and Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, which he is offering to the public at the very lowest Cash Prices.

Lieut. Brain. Lieut. John C. Brain, who was here some time since introducing a patent non-conductor for steam boilers, was lecturing in New Orleans last week—the subject being his exploits in the Confederate navy.

Flanagan. We unintentionally omitted to call attention, Sunday, to the attractive advertisement of Mr. L. Flanagan, who is now offering a most attractive assortment of millinery goods, embracing every article in that line, as well as many other articles popular with the ladies.

Star Book Bindery. The attention of the public is called to the superior facilities we now have for executing cheaply, promptly and skillfully all kinds of Binding and Ruling. Our business in this department has steadily increased, an evidence that we have not labored in vain in our effort to establish a Book Bindery equal to the demands of our growing city.

Personal. We are pleased to announce that Mr. J. H. Muse, our efficient Local Reporter, has been unexpectedly called from the city by the very serious illness of his eldest son, an amiable and promising youth now at Bay River, some thirty miles below Newbern.

Printing Paper. We do not keep Printing Paper regularly in stock for sale; but can always supply our friends with small quantities, say from two to ten reams, at reasonable prices for all strictly cash orders.

Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad. We learn from good authority that the branch of the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad running from Sumter to Columbia will be completed about November 1st.

Boarders. If you want Boarders, advertise in our new department, under head of "Wants," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines.

RIVER AND MARINE NEWS. Capt. Driver drove in with the Juniper and a well laden flat Saturday night. He backed out from his wharf and headed up the river yesterday afternoon with a lively freight.

The A. P. Hart, with Capt. Sam Skinner in command, leaves at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day for the upper Cape Fear.

We hear that Capt. Sam Skinner is soon to build a new steamer, at Fayetteville, for the North-East river trade. His many friends wish him the greatest success in this enterprise.

A letter from Fayetteville, written Saturday evening, reports the river rising slowly at that point. The steamer Marston started down yesterday morning with a heavy freight. We think there will be no further serious interruption to navigation for some months.

The steamers Caswell and Little Sam are both being repaired and remodeled preparatory to active service on the North-East and Black rivers.

Indestructible Tag. The indestructible Tag is a great convenience to merchants. It answers the combined purpose of a direction label and business card. Call at the Star Printing and Publishing House and supply yourselves.

If you have found anything, advertise it in our new department, under head of "Lost and Found," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines.

MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1871. Whole No. 1,265

Interesting Ceremony.

The first hop of the Deutsche Gesellschaft will be given in Germania Hall to-morrow evening.

The shelling risk opens to-night with a grand reception. The proprietors intend to "do things up Brown."

Mr. J. C. Stedman is now with us, and is fully authorized to represent the proprietor in all matters pertaining to the Star.

The Wilmington Typographical Union have contributed $35.00 for the relief of the suffering Printers of Chicago.

We beg the indulgence of our readers during the absence of our regular Reporter, who will be absent from his post but a few days.

We had a warm, cloudy day yesterday, and quite a demand for Summer clothing. We don't mean by this that we keep Summer clothing for sale.

Advertisements under head of "Wants," "For Sale or Rent," or "Lost and Found" will positively be charged full rates unless paid for in advance.

The first issue of the Weekly Star (new series) will appear Nov. 3rd. As it will circulate largely in the country, merchants will find it a good medium of advertising.

A new ballast sidewalk is being made on Walnut commencing at Fourth street. It is to be hoped that the authorities or property owners interested will continue the same down Walnut to Front street.

Smith, of the Purcell House, mistook a load of hay for an empty horse cart, yesterday, and thereat received the hearty congratulations of his many friends, who were rejoiced at this evidence of improved vision.

Look out for the Carolina Farmer, soon to appear in magazine form, as of old, and to be printed with entirely new type—a new and beautiful face of brevier. No agricultural journal in the country will present a more handsome appearance.

A party of gentlemen passed through our city Sunday en route for Little River, S. C., where they intend examining into the feasibility of the proposed canal from Waccamaw to Little River. They have the "stamps" to push the enterprise through if they conclude it will pay.

The house at the corner of Second and Red Cross streets, formerly the property of Mr. Zeno H. Greene, has been moved further up on Red Cross street to make room for a new house to be erected on the old site. Col. S. L. Fremont is also erecting a fine residence on the corner of the same square.

The congregations of the First Baptist and Front street Methodist churches, upon assembling at their respective places of worship on Sunday morning, were pleasantly surprised by an exchange of pulpits by the Revs. J. C. Hiden and R. S. Moran, D. D., the pastors thereof thus exhibiting not only a kind christian feeling between the two denominations, but also between the two clergymen alluded to.

Chicago. One of our Wilmington merchants had 600 bushels of peanuts destroyed in the terrible conflagration at Chicago. They were insured, but he does not yet know the status of the company holding the risk. Considerable amounts of money are also due him by Chicago merchants. We mention this circumstance to show how wide-spread may be the effect of that awful disaster.

For Sale or Rent. If you have a house or farm for sale or rent advertise it in our new department, under head of "For Sale or Rent," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines.

Sewing Machines. Ladies wishing to purchase a Sewing Machine, will do well to call at No. 3 Front St., and examine the celebrated Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, which, for simplicity, durability and beauty of execution, stands unrivaled. It makes less noise, runs lighter, and is less complicated than any machine known, and does a great variety of work. It was awarded the highest premium, at the World's Fair in 1867, over eighty-two competitors.

Boarders. If you want Boarders, advertise in our new department, under head of "Wants," at half our regular rates, for advertisements not exceeding five lines.

RIVER AND MARINE NEWS. Capt. Driver drove in with the Juniper and a well laden flat Saturday night. He backed out from his wharf and headed up the river yesterday afternoon with a lively freight.

INSURANCE ROOMS. I HAVE DEFINITE AND RELIABLE INFORMATION in regard to the following Companies:

ANDES INSURANCE COMPANY. The losses of this Company by Chicago fire were light. It is left with its Cash Capital of ONE MILLION AND A CLEAR SURPLUS OF THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

CONTINENTAL INSURANCE CO. Y. This Company pays all its Chicago losses OUT OF ITS SURPLUS, and has left a reserve for Re-insurance of $500,000. The Cash Capital of this Company has, since the Chicago fire been increased to $1,000,000, making the total assets $1,500,000.

NORTH AMERICAN FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK. This favorite Company only lost about $200,000, in Chicago, which is being paid promptly on presentation of proofs.

THE VIRGINIA HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF RICHMOND. Inform me that they had no Agency at Chicago. This is one of the best managed companies in the country with a capital and surplus of $1,000,000, and is highly recommended to insurers as a safe and reliable Company.

INSURANCE. WE BEG TO SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING facts in regard to the Companies we represent:

THE UNDERWRITERS' AGENCY OF NEW YORK.—Fire and Marine. Loss by Chicago fire $300,000.00, leaving Capital unimpaired, and TOTAL CASH ASSETS of $2,500,000.

THE ETNA FIRE INSURANCE CO. Y. of Hartford. Loss by Chicago fire less than $1,000,000, leaving their capital untouched and GROSS CASH ASSETS amounting to $3,000,000.

We are prepared to issue policies in these Companies, and have full confidence as to the security. L. H. & T. C. DEROSSSETT, Fire, Marine & Life Insurance Ag'ts., Oct 17th Corner Chestnut & N. Water St.

A CARD. TO our many friends and patrons of Wilmington and Surrounding Country: Since our opening in this City, and the very liberal patronage that has been bestowed upon us we cannot but express our gratitude for the same. By fair and honorable dealing we hope to merit in the future, as in the past, a share of the patronage.

It has been admitted on all sides since opening our Clothing Store in this city the promise of fair dealing with our Customers, selling them goods by which their own interest and advantage shall be promoted, has been faithfully kept, and that on no occasion has the confidence reposed in our integrity been abused.

On the same principle, with undiminished honesty the business will henceforth be carried, and while expressing our gratitude for the liberal patronage we have been accorded with, solicit a continuance of the same, promising that we will strive to deserve the confidence of the public.

Having removed to that large and elegant store, No. 30, South Side of Market Street, formerly occupied by W. M. Stevenson, as a Clothing Store, we will be pleased to have our friends call and examine our new Fall and Winter Stock just received. Respectfully, SHIRER BROS. P.
