An Old House-A new Agency-A Goo Thing. We can youch for the above heading.

The Old House is W. D. Blair & Co., of Richmond, Va., established in 1829.

The New Agency is Chas. D. Myers & Co., of 7 North Front street, of this city-a new house of most enviable reputation for selling fine goods.

The "Good Thing" is Blair & Co,'s " Select Whiskey"-a brand owned and controlled entirely by them-a rich, pure, mellow whiskey, softened in flavor by age, and altogether a superior and valuable article for medicinal and family use. With every other good quality it has the one most excellent, of being low priced and within the command of all who need or use pure whiskey. It will cost very little to give this a trial and you can then judge for yourselves were Call for "B Select Whiskey." I will flw Egyptian Cottom tra light light We have been shown a sample of Egyptian cotton, raised by Mr. N. T. Harriss, of the firm of West & Harriss, of this city, at his plan tion in Bladen county, from seed furnished at the office of the Carolina Farmer. It is a beautiful specimen of this useful staple, and is claimed to be superior to the long staple cotton known as Peeler.

A white man, whose name we could not as certain, died very suddenly at a bar-room on the corner of Mulberry and Nutt streets about 11 o'clock last night. He is said to have come here from Charleston a week ago, and after being in the city a day or two he complained of being ill. He was able to go about, however, until last night, when, being in the bar-room alluded to, he grew suddenly worse. The bar keeper thersupon placed him in a chair on the outside of the door, and he was shortly afterwards discovered to be dead. The authorities were notified, but up to the hour of going to press no disposition had been made of the body. A Paris 1 Soir 1 Street

> U. S. Court. F is usp of ICOSYNAV. The Fall term of the U. S. District Court His Honor, Judge Brooks, presiding, convened in this city yesterday, but, without tran sacting any business, adjourned until this morning. We learn that this action was in consequence of the fact that nineteen of the jurymen composing the spicial venire were from Wayne county, which Judge Brooks, after a careful examination, concluded was in the Pamlico Circuit. He therefore discharged the jurymen alluded to, ordered the Murshal to summon twenty others, and adjourned the Court. The famous $10,000 bond case will come up for trial during the term. Mr. Baird, Agent of the owner of the bond, from whose office it is alleged to have been stolen, has arrived in the city and will be an important witness in the case. It is in thirty think to the to

The buggy is so arranged that it can be made a single-seat or double-seat (capable of carrying four grown persons) according to convenience. This new invention is acknowledged, by competent judges, to be altogether superior to all other jump-seats now in use The patentse claims for it many advantages over every other jump-seat and contends that it is stronger and less limble to get out of order. It is certainly a useful invention, and we are glad to be informed by Mr. Jones that he will have one of the buggles on exhibition at our Fair next month.

Anniversary Address. We learn that our young friend, J. J. Fow-ler, Esq., of this city, has received and accepted an invitation to deliver the address on the occasion of the first agricement of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, which takes place on the Sist proximo. Three others, whose names we are requested to suppress, were arraigned for drunkenness, &c., and appropriately fined.

The Outlaws Again.

A report came down on the Wilmington Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, yesterday afternoon, to the effect that while Rev. James Sinclair, commonly known as the "Fighting Parson." was delivering an address at Scuffitown, Robeson county, on Saturday last, on the occasion of the opening of a school in that delectible locality, he was suddenly surrounded by Henry Berry Lowrey and his gang of outlaws, all armed to the teeth. As may be supposed, his eloquence was "nipped in the bud," and we learn indirectly, from one who was present, that the "Parson" was completely rightened out of his wits. The outlaws contented themselves with threats of vengeance against him for, as they said, offering rewards or their capture, and finally left him to make sort of time in getting away from that berhood.

TO our many friends and patrons of Wil mington and Surrounding Country: Since our opening in this City, and the very liberal patronage that has been bestowed upon us we cannot but express our gratitude for the same. By fair and honorable dealing we hope to merit in the future, as in the past, a share of the patronage.

It has been admitted on all sides since opening our Clothing Store in this city the promise of fair dealing with our Customers, selling them goods by which their own interest and advantage shall be promoted, has been faithfully kept, and that on no occasion has the fully kept, and that on no occasion has the confidence reposed in our integrity been abused. On the same principle, with undiminished honesty the business will henceforth be carried, and while expressing our gratitude for the liberal patronage we have been favored with, solicit a continuance of the same, promising that we will strive to deserve the favor of the public.

Having removed to that large and elegant store, No. 30, South side of Market Street, formerly occupied by W. M. Stevenson, as a Cruekery Store, we will be pleased to have our triends to call and examine our new Fall and Winter Stock instructive.

Ecspectfully.

P. S.—Country merchants will do well, and certainly find it to their advantage, to exam ine our large and well selected stock before purchasing elsewhere. All orders from country promptly filled at New York prices.
