Local Notes.

Yesterday was an exceedingly disagreeable day. Meeting of the Board of Aldermen tomorrow evening.

The Ada Harland Troupe, soon to visit this city, appear in Raleigh Monday evening.

Rev. Dr. Plummer, of Columbia College, S. C., preaches in the First Presbyterian this morning.

The Royal Japanese Troupe will visit Raleigh shortly. They also intend filling an engagement at this place.

It is generally understood on the wharf, we learn, that Friday of Fair week will be observed as a general holiday.

The ceremonies of the colored brethren's reception to-morrow will conclude with a grand Supper at City Hall.

There was no session of the City Court yesterday morning, the cases awaiting trial not being ready for hearing.

A new style of the rings is of gold coins hung by a small chain, with a gold star of diamonds between each of them.

Among the arrivals at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore, on Thursday, we notice the name of Col. T. D. Hall, of this city.

Superintendent H. E. Scott, of the Poor House, reports 17 county paupers in that institution, of which number 6 are white and 11 colored.

The Board of County Commissioners did not have a meeting yesterday morning, as proposed, having decided to postpone it until tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

Thanks to Mr. R. L. Harris for copies of the N. Y. Ledger and Chitney Corner for the current week. Call at his stand, on Front street, and get your supply of reading matter.

This being the occasion of the regular quarterly meeting at Front street Methodist Church, Rev. Dr. Closs, Presiding Elder, will preach there this (Sabbath) day, morning and evening.

The officers and visitors of the Ladies' Benevolent Society are requested to attend the monthly meeting of the Society Tuesday afternoon, 7th inst., at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. John A. Taylor.

The formal reception of the Steam Fire Engine Cape Fear, from the city authorities, by the colored company which will assume control of the same, will take place to-morrow, with appropriate ceremonies.

James Shaw and John Jacobs, two colored individuals, propose a dancing match on Thursday of Fair week, and state that they will enter the lists, if allowed to do so, against any and all opposers.

Some means should be devised by which visitors to the grounds during Fair week (especially ladies) can be supplied with water without resorting to the inconvenient modes of obtaining it which was necessary during preceding fairs.

Fix the Sidewalks.

The sidewalk on the West side of Front street, between Market and Dock, is in an awfully dilapidated condition.

The Columbia Union of Friday says: The work on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad is fast being completed.

The Columbia Union of Friday says: The work on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad is fast being completed.

It is stated, but not officially so, that the trains from Spouton to Kingsville will be discontinued so soon as the trains are regularly put on this route.

Let our subscribers be on the lookout this morning for newspaper thieves. Having investigated the matter thoroughly, we find that at least ninety per cent. of the papers stolen are stolen on Sundays and Thursdays.

It will be seen by reference to our Church Directory that the Anniversary of the Reformation inaugurated by Dr. Martin Luther will again be celebrated in the Lutheran Church, this day, at 7 1/2 P. M.

Luther's Battle Hymn will be sung. Seats free. Gentlemen ushers will be at the door to conduct all strangers to seats in the church.

A man by the name of James Guthrie, arrested on a peace warrant, was arraigned before Justice Woodford yesterday morning, who required him to give security in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

At the Fair of the Carolinas, held at Charlotte, as we find from the Charlotte Observer, Messrs. Stevens & Curston, of Lancaster, S. C., & Co., of this city, State Agents for the Carolina Fertilizer, of 1,000 pounds of said fertilizer for the largest production of cotton to the acre.

We are requested to state that a coach will leave the old depot Tuesday afternoon, at 2 1/2 o'clock, for the purpose of conveying such ladies to the Fair Grounds as may feel inclined to assist in the labor of dressing Floral Hall.

Nov. 4th, at 10 o'clock, A. M., JOSEPH BARR, Bora Dec. 20th, 1849. Funeral to-day at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the residence of his father, Meyer Barr, on Red Cross, between Front and Second Streets.

It is not too much to say that tens of thousands are now suffering from biliousness, indigestion, constipation, periodical fevers, general debility, and nervous affections, who might be restored to perfect health within a month or less by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Yesterday afternoon a seaman, who gave his name as Wm. Mitchell, appeared at the City Hall and made complaint that he had been assaulted and beaten about the head and face by a man by the name of Frank Marsden, connected with a certain bar-room on South Water street, kept by a white female.

We are authorized by a responsible gentleman of this city to offer a special premium of $10 to the young lady who exhibits the handsomest dress at the approaching Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, the material to be of her own manufacture and the dress to be "made up" by herself.

All persons who are willing to furnish a horse or cart to assist in laying a sidewalk road to the Fair Grounds are requested to report to Capt. Wm. A. Cumming, Chief Marshal, tomorrow morning. It has been determined to do the work without fail, and the assistance of the public is respectfully solicited.

Articles intended for exhibition will be transported at regular rates going to Wilmington, and returning by party exhibiting billed free and amount of freight paid thereon returned by agent at station at which shipped.
