Governor Lowrey.

As the train on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad passed through Lowrey's dominions on Wednesday, that redoubtable chief, with any number of repeaters visible at his belt, was observed by the passengers at Moss Neck, looking as much at ease as if he was "monarch of all he surveyed, and his right there were none to dispute."

To Stop Bleeding.

It is said that bleeding from a wound on a man or beast, may be stopped by a mixture of wheat flour and common salt, in equal parts, bound on with a cloth. If the bleeding be profuse, use a large quantity, say from one to three pints. It may be left on for hours, or even days, if necessary.

To Remove Kerosene Oil from Floors.

Two or three weeks since, at the request of a friend, we asked some one to inform us what would take kerosene oil out of a floor, and yesterday a gentleman furnished us with a recipe: Take a small quantity of lime, mix enough water with it to make it of the consistency of thick paste, spread it on the floor and let it stay from twenty-four to forty-eight hours, remove it and all signs of the oil will have disappeared.

Arrival of Convicts for the Work House.

An officer from Goldsboro' arrived in this city last evening with four colored convicts, sentenced at the late term of the Superior Court in Wayne to various terms in our County Work House. They were lodged in the Guard House last night for safe-keeping, and to-day will be turned over to Superintendent VanAmringe. We were not able to learn their names nor the crimes of which they were convicted.

The Insane of Our State.

We notice from a report of the proceedings of the Board of Directors of the State Asylum for the Insane, held in Raleigh on Monday last, which we find in the Raleigh Sentinel, that a select committee was appointed, to report at the next meeting of the Board, on the 20th inst., a strong appeal to the General Assembly to provide for the care of all the insane of the State, and to recommend the best plan of doing so. It was furthermore stated that there are now in the Asylum 245 patients—fifty more than the building was designed to accommodate, and that there are 250 applications for admission for patients, who are now mostly confined in the county jails of the State. To aid the Committee above alluded to in preparing their report we would state that we have in our city proper facilities for taking care of a limited number of these unfortunates. Our City Hospital is very well adapted to that purpose, and now contains at least a dozen who are there under treatment, and we are assured that they not only receive the kindest attention, but are subjected to skillful treatment for their mental disorders. Dr. Winants, the surgeon in charge, is peculiarly fitted, through study and experience, to deal with patients of this class, and we are confident that they could not have better care in the asylum, in any sense of the word, than they would experience in the Hospital here. We trust these facts may be taken into consideration and acted upon at the next meeting of the Board. With a little necessary preparation about fifty patients could be accommodated here, and the facilities could be gradually extended, provided the State is willing to allow adequate compensation to justify it.

Local Notes.

—Rev. L. Branson, publisher of the North Carolina Business Directory, is now in the city. He proposes issuing a revised edition and will receive advertisements at moderate rates.

—Look out for comets shortly. The appearance of two of these high flyers, Eucke's and Puffin's, is announced by the astronomers, the first in the evening and the latter in the morning skies.

—The Goldsboro' Messenger of yesterday says: "We have already heard of twenty-eight entries for the Wilmington Fair, from Wayne county alone. Let the number be increased to fifty, at least. Wayne county should not be behind any other section."

—Remember the called meeting of the members of Stoswall Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias, to be held this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating their approaching anniversary.

Members of Agricultural Association.—Maj. M. P. Taylor, Maj. F. Janney.

Alldermen.—Maj. R. P. Barry, D. Rumley, Esq.

Chamber of Commerce.—Dr. W. W. Harris, (the other to be appointed.)

Worrell Sisters.

By reference to our advertising columns this morning it will be seen that the celebrated Worrell Sisters will fill an engagement at the Theatre in this city during Fair week, commencing on Monday evening. The Company is a strong one, consisting of the Sisters Sophie, Irene and Jennie, assisted by the Protean Comedian, Mr. Harry Jackson, Jennie Willmore Frank, the Leon Brothers and a most powerful Comic Opera Company. The engagement will open with the Spectacular Musical Extravaganza of "Cinderella, or the Lover, the Lackey, and the Little Glass Slipper," to be followed by the last sensation of "If Ever I Cease to Love," with the farce of the "Fool of the Family." This company is highly commended by the press where they have performed, and we think we can safely promise the public a week of genuine, unadulterated amusement.

—A Missouri lady advertises for the person who is in the habit of serenading her to stand nearer the house so that she can scold him.

—An Illinois undertaker advertises that he keeps on hand "an elegant stock of neat and bobby shrouds, warranted to give satisfaction to the most particular."

—Mr. Beecher, in satirizing pompous talkers, says, "Language, like window glass, should not stop the attention on itself, but on that which passes through it."

—"Sister, darling," said a mother to her little daughter of five summers, "what would you do without your mamma?" "I'd put on just such a dress as I pleased every day," was the affectionate reply.

Musical Soirees.

We are requested to announce that the first of the series of Musical Soirees to be given during the present season at the Academy of Music, under the able management of Prof. J. F. Ruekert, which was to have taken place this (Friday) evening, has been postponed until further notice. We tender our thanks for complimentary tickets.

Petitions Refused.

Certain parties in this city having sent a petition to Gov. Caldwell, praying the release of one Jeremiah Forbes, of this place, under sentence by Judge Russell for five years in the Penitentiary for larceny, on the ground that he has served one year and is the only support of aged parents whose sole support he is, the Governor says:

"This petition comes not signed by any of the jury, judge or the solicitor, and it is but so much waste paper in the executive office."

"Believing that the judge, solicitor and jury are the best judges of such matters, Governor Caldwell has determined that hereafter he will pardon no one out of jail or penitentiary whose petitions are not signed by some of the jury, and either the judge or solicitor, together with a goodly number of respectable gentlemen of the county."

The Road Steamer.

Col. S. L. Fremont, President of the C. F. A. Association, received a dispatch from Paterson, New Jersey, of yesterday's date, from D. B. Grant, President of the Grant Locomotive Works, stating that the Road Steamer, to be exhibited at the approaching Fair in this place, was shipped on Wednesday night, the 8th inst.

RIVER AND MARINE NEWS.

—The Steamer Cumberland arrived at her wharf yesterday afternoon, having left Fayetteville on the day previous. Capt. Phillips reports the river in good boating condition, with a rise at Fayetteville of about three feet.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

—The Baptist State Convention met in Charlotte on Wednesday.

—Thirteen students are attending Judge Pearson's law school, at Richmond Hill.

—Reports from Beaufort and Hyde, say that the corn crops are coming in full, and cotton more than average.

—The real estate of the entire county of Dare is not valued at near so much as the real estate of Newbern.

—Col. E. W. Humphrey, President of the Planters' Railroad, gives a very encouraging account of the prospects of the same.

—A French Company has purchased the Ross plantation near Raleigh, says the Carolinian, and are settling their families thereon.

—The real estate of Raleigh is valued at nearly a million and a half dollars. While Newbern real estate is valued a little over $800,000.

—The Raleigh Era says: "We learn it is the intention of a few gentlemen, at no distant day, to tender a supper to the members of the Typographical Union, in this city."

—Rev. John S. Long lectures in Newbern on Wednesday night on "Love and Ambition," the proceeds to go to the benefit of the M. E. Church. So we learn from the Times.

—The Raleigh Carolinian says: "A Colony of Italians is settling on a tract of land adjoining Mr. Bennett, on the Hillsboro road, seven miles from the city. They will cultivate the grape."

—We are glad to learn, says the Newbern Journal of Commerce, that the cotton in this immediate vicinity is being picked very rapidly, and forwarded to New York. Look out for a large crop.

—In consequence of the resignation of R. S. Ledbetter, Esq., there will be an election to fill the vacancy, in the 28th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Moore and Richmond, on Thursday next, 16th inst.

—The Newbern Times says: "On the night of the 6th, the burglars entered the house of James A. Pridgen, and stole $800 or $700 in money. A suspected party has been arrested at Goldsboro and brought to Kingston."

—The Raleigh Carolinian says: "There has been some late Ku Kluxing in Harnett, of a mild but mischievous character. Two parties were measured for their coffins by being stripped and laid out on the ground; and a young lady, a member of the Baptist Church, was made to dance for the edification of the crowd, which, to say the least, was ungallant and ungentlemanly."

—Yesterday afternoon, says the Carolinian of the 8th, the Raleigh and Gaston cars brought down the leading New York members of the Clegg Copper and Smelting Mining Company, all of whom took the Chatham train and proceeded to the Clegg mines in Chatham county. To-morrow afternoon this party will return to Raleigh and live over in our city all night, and the day following. From here the party go to their Garden Hill mines in Guilford, and the Silver mines of Davidson. This company has been operating in our State for twenty years. Mr. Frank Osgood, of New York, son-in-law of Commodore Vanderbilt and a leading member of the Clegg Company, is of the party.
