Local News. The Church Directory and State News will be found on the Fourth Page.

Assault with Deadly Weapons. Over in the classic precincts of Texas, yesterday morning, one Wesley Lacey, a colored individual, committed a furious assault upon another colored man by the name of Henry Robinson.

Probable Snowing. On Saturday last week Mr. Bryan Hussey, formerly a well known machinist of this city, but more lately a resident of another part of the county, took passage from Wilmington on the steamer Cassell.

John S. Lee & Co. We invite attention to the card of Messrs. John S. Lee & Co., of Philadelphia. This house is recommended in the highest manner, and those who wish to sell naval stores in Philadelphia cannot do better than entrust their business to these gentlemen.

Our Child Basket. Raff work—making lace collars. Elevated buildings—Castles in the air. The latest thing in dresses—Night dresses.

Public Schools. We learn that there is a petition in circulation urging the employment by the committee of native teachers for the various public schools of this township.

The Tournament. It being impossible for a number of gentlemen who desire to ride at the Tournament to find time to practice with the sabre, after conference with those who desire to enter, the Committee have decided to change to the lance.

Arrested for an Affray. Two colored individuals, named respectively Macon Barnett and Kelly Henry, employed on the steamer Cassell, engaged in an affray yesterday, for which they were arrested by Officer Hill and taken before Wm. McLaurin, J. P.

Attention Ladies! Ladies having small articles of handwork and housewifery for exhibition at the Fair this week are requested to deposit the articles in a room secured for the purpose in the basement of the 1st National Bank, corner of Front and Princess streets.

Visitors to the Fair. We are requested to suggest that any and all persons who feel disposed to accommodate visitors to the Fair with board and lodging, or with lodging alone, will apply as early as possible to either of the gentlemen constituting the Committee appointed to assist in making preparations for the large number who may be expected on that occasion.

The Drug Business—New Firm. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mr. Thomas C. James has purchased an interest in the drug business of Mr. J. A. Mebane, corner of Front and Princess streets, and that the firm will hereafter be known under the name and title of Mebane & James.

RIVER AND MARINE NEWS. The steamer Wave, purchased for the Express Steamboat Company to run regularly between this city and Fayetteville, arrived here yesterday. The Wave is a new iron hull, stern wheel steamer, having only run for three or four months on the Savannah river before she was purchased by the above company.

Young's "Romeo" won the former. Time good. Immediately after an interesting race took place between Charlie Tillery and Ross Pope, a small boy; won by the latter.

THE WELDON FAIR. Ten Thousand People Present on the Third Day—Splendid Exhibition—Gen. Cobb's Address, &c. (Correspondence of the Star.) WELDON, N. C., Nov. 9, 1871.

Writing hurriedly, your correspondent cannot be expected to give full particulars of the grand Fair now progressing in this place. The attendance is about ten thousand to-day. At least I know that Floral Hall, Mechanics and Agricultural Hall, and the whole grounds surrounding these buildings are crowded to their utmost capacity, and the jostle and bustle is great.
