More Incendiarism in Anson.

We learn that the store of Mr. Thos. Ratliff, at Cairo, in Anson, was burned, with its contents, a few nights since. An attempt had been made to fire it a week or two previously, and it is evident that the burning was not aceidental. Mr. Ratliff is a worthy citizen, such as none but Loyal Leaguers or the Ku Klux would wish to injure.

The Ball Last Night.

The complimentary "hop" to the Knights of the Tournament came off at the City Hall last evening and was in every sense of the word a grand affoir. The Hall was almost literally crowded with citizens and visitors, of both sexes, and the occasion was a delightful one to all present. The Hall had already been handsomely decorated by the ladies connected with the Festival, and presented a handsome (1)にあってき 新潟市 (福岡 appearance.

The Press.

In addition to the members of the Press mentioned in our last, we noticed in the city and on the Fair Grounds yesterday Messes. McNeill, of the Wadesboro Argus, Knight, of the Ree Dee Herald, and Duncan, of the Rockingham Observer. We neglected to mention in our former list the name of our friend Capt. Thigpen, of the Reconstructed Farmer, who was so mixed up in matters pertaining to the exhibition that we failed to think of him in connection with the Press.

We learn that one of the passengers on the 11:30 train to the Fair Grounds yesterday, had his pocket picked of about $45 in money. The thief was evidently an expert, as the pants leg of the victim was ripped open so that the hand could be inserted in the pocket without being noticed, this feat having been accomplished, probably, with a finger ring with a sharp blade attached, such as the most accomplished pickpockets are said to invariably use for the pur-

Mullen, of South Carolina, was selected to deliver the prizes, which he did, accompanying the same with eloquent and befitting remarks, peculiarly so when it is cousidered that he had but a few minutes notice in which to prepare himself for the responsibilities of the occasion. Upon receiving the prizes and the beautiful wreathes prepared for the occasion, the fortunate Knights proceeded to the Grand Stand and crowned the ladies of their choice in the following order : Queen of Love and Beauty-Miss Alice Larkins, of Wilmington. 1st Maid of Honor-Miss Eva Low, of Wilmington. 21 Maid of Honor-Miss Katle G. of Newbern. It was near night before the Tournament and the ceremonies incident thereto were con cluded, and soon after the crowd returned to the city, many of them to prepare for the complimentary "Hop" to the snecessful Roughts at the City Hall the same evening.

ARTICLES ON EXHIBITION. There have been various articles on exhibition during the week of which we had intend ed to make special mention in these columns. but have been deterred from doing so on account of the press of other matter. We now select from our notes the followfug, and will probably refer to others hereafter:

Mr. P. Heinsberger, of the Live Book Store. had, as usual, a fine display of articles in his line on exhibition, among which may be mentioned one of the celebrated Burdett Combination Organs, one of Knabe's Planos, one of Stelff's Pianos, a lot of splendid chromos, lith ographs, books, brackets, etc. His stand attracted many ladies, who discoursed some excellent music on his instruments. Messrs. Webb & Roulhac, of Hillsboro, N. C., exhibited the Golden Star Smoking Tobacthem. A fine specimen of the weed. The only specimen of candy we noticed was exhibited by Mr. Henry T. Probable Fatal Accident.

Yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock, a train loaded with passengers for the Fair Grounds, while passing the vicinity of Union depot, run over a colored man, by the name of Ned Houston, badly crushing his left arm and leg. At the time the accident occurred he was walking on one of the tracks just beyond the switch, and hearing the train approaching he jumped from one track to the other, and, unfortunately, in the confusion of the moment, got upon carried in her arms a dead infant. Upon when very track which he should have avoided. When he discovered his mistake it was too late for him to get out of the way. The wounded man was taken to the City Hospital, where it was found necessary by Dr. Winants, the physician in charge, to resort to immediate amputation of both the wounded limbs, the leg being taken off above the knee and the arm near the shoulder. We understand there is scarcely any hope of his recovery. Houston, who is about 35 years of age, resided at Rocky Run plantation, about 8 miles from the city, where he has a family.

For Sale or Rent.

If you have a house or farm for sale or rent advertise it in our new department, under head of "For Sale or Rent," at half of our regniar rates, for advertisements not exceeding tive lines.

Agricultural Fair.

We learn that the Fair will be, perhaps, mor attractive to-day than at any previous time. The Indians are to run a foot race, and we learn the swiftest time on record may be expected. Many of our people have never seen any of this singular race, and we presume they will not fall to avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing them in costume engaged in that exercise in which they are specially supposed to excel. The Shooting Match will also take place this morning, and the most success ful shot wins a beautiful breech-loading fowl-

We understand a race will also be run be tween some of the fast trotters, and it is expected that a match game of quoits will be played. So that in variety of entertainment, to-day surpasses all others, and we suppose a correspondingly large crowd may be expected on the grounds.

We congratulate the Lessee of Thalian Hall on his good fortuge in securing the charming Sisters and Mr. Harry Jackson to open the season of co, raised in Orange and manufactured by mirth and pleasure at his establishment.

Last evening Miss Sophie appeared in her ro'e with charming effect and more than even wonted vivacity, if that be possible; Miss Irene was interesting and graceful; Miss Jennie, in the clog dance and other assigned parts, acquitted herself happily, spleudidly; and as is her habit at all times, Miss Jennie Willmore Frank added fresh lustre to her 3.0
