Something Nice. Mr. J. C. Stevenson advertises in another column, smoking tobocco, exhibited at the fair, which we can testify to be of superior quality. The "Golden Star," particularly, is attractive, as it is made of selected tobacco, and manufactured entirely free of steed. It is made by Messrs. Webb & Roultae, of Hillsboro', and reflects credit on their enterprise.

Changed Hands. We learn that the large three-story brick building, on the corner of Front and Market Streets, commonly known as Exchange Corner, at present occupied by Mr. A. D. Brown as a millinery store and Mr. A. L. Price as hoot and shoe store, formerly the property of Mr. A. Donau, of New York, has recently changed hands, Mr. T. H. Smith, Grocer, on Market street, becoming the purchaser at $10,000 cash. This is considered a valuable piece of property, and it is generally conceded that Mr. Smith has made a good bargain.

Election in Richmond and Moore. We give below the official vote of Richmond at the late election for Sepator in the 28th District, composed of the counties of Rich-mond and Moore 1119 10

The Legislature, AA.109

The Legislature convened in Buleigh Monday. In the Senate the roll was called and a quorum found to be present. The usual formatities were gone through with, when Mr. Robbins, of Rowse, istroduced a bill entitled "An act to alter the Constitution of North Carolina." Ordered to be printed and made the special order for Tuesday at holelocki. Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, moved that a message be sent to the House proposing to raise a joint select committee on constitutional The Senate then adjourned. A A The House met at 12 o'clock, when Mr. Speaker Jarvis delivered an able address, after which, there being no quorum present, an ad-Journment was had.

- The Howard R. F. Engine Company, No. thanks to Mr. Robert T. Scarborough for that large bowl of delicious punch which the combered for a long time.

- Messrs. James & Meares, auctioneers, advertise that they will sell on board of the Brig John Pierce, in front of their effice, this morning, at 10 o'clock, a choice selection of fruits, comprising sweet oranges, bananas and pine apples, all direct from Havana.

Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railfoad.

Alluding to the presence of Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President, and D. A. Newcomer, Vice President, of the Wilmington, Columbia and Angusta Railroad, in that city a few days since, the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel remarks:

*For some time past this company has been only about 700 feet of completion, and this gap will be filled in a few days. On the 10th of December the company expects to open the new line for the transaction of business. It was originally intended to build this road through to Augusta from Columbia, and the route between the two cities was surveyed but a policy was adopted which rendered this unnecessary. Several months ago the con-trollers of the company bought enough of the stock of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad to give them centrol of that corporation, and the lines from here to Columbia and from Columbia to Wilmington will be operated Masonie Temple.

Mr. James Southgate, General Agent for the North Carolina Masonic Temple Association, is in the city, and will walt on the fraternity and others during his stay among us. It is unnecessary to say that he comes thoroughly endorsed by the Grand officers and recommended by the Grand Lodge and Grand Royal Arch Chapter of North Carolina. Subscriptions are taken in shares of $25, on which the subscribers pay in $1 per month, for each share, the object being the erection of a grand Masonic Temple in Raleigh in which the fraternity and others throughout the State may become interested.

Troops in Fayetteville.

It was rumored on the streets yesterday that seventy find U. S. soldiers had been sent to Fayetteville to garrison the place and to protect the delectable A. G. and his conpeers from the Ku Klux!

Since writing the above we have seen a private letter from Payette ville, which states that sixty soldiers have arrived in that town and are encamped on Military Green. It is not positively known how long they are to remain, some reports having it that they are there temporarily, others that they are to remain a month, etc.

Chapped Hands.

"The fellowing very simple direction is re ended: "To keep the hands smooth, they should always be rinsed in fair water after soap has been used. It is well to use soap and soft, warm water, avolding, however, the use of yellow or bar soap, and also the colored Castile; but to prevent roughness it is necessary that the hands should be riused in dry on the towel. And it is well to avoid Mrs H P Russell, New Hanover coun-A proper observance of these directions will always keep the hands smooth."
