A Convict Recaptured. John Terry, a colored convict, who was sentenced to the Work House for two years for larceny, and who effected his escape about eight months ago.

Some excitement was created last night in the vicinity of the Market House, by an attempt on the part of a horse attached to a country cart to runaway with the same.

Mr. Archibald T. Banks, formerly a resident of Fayetteville, where he at one time published a paper called the 'Courier,' died at Gainesville, Florida, a few days since.

SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

Craven Superior Court is in session this week.

There are 29 prisoners in the Craven county jail.

A revival of religion commenced in the Methodist church at Goldsboro' on Sunday evening last.

The panorama of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress is to be on exhibition at Goldsboro' on Friday evening next.

Rev. Dr. McFerrin, of Nashville, Tenn., conducted services in the Methodist church at Goldsboro' on Sunday.

The health of Prof. Charles Phillips, of Davidson College, has somewhat improved, but he is still in a critical condition.

The Goldsboro' Messenger is glad to notice the many improvements in the way of new houses and dwellings, at Mount Olive and Painsville.

The Southern Home says: It is more than probable that Charlotte will be a great tobacco depot in less than ten years.

The Southern Home says: One Anderson Davis, who was a master-spirit among the Loyal Leaguers of Lincoln county, from 1867 to '69 suddenly became a Latter Day Saint among the Ku Klux, then he "pented himself," and became a swift swearing witness at Raleigh against the Ku Klux, got his dollar and a half a day and was taken to the bosom of the loyal dignitaries of the capital.

Un fortunately for loyal Anderson, at the recent Puke Court held at Lincolnton, three negroes and three white men swore that they would not believe him on oath. So Vest, Boshier & Co. refused to take him to Raleigh with them.

It is of the testimony of such fellows as Davis that the jails are filled with innocent victims.

Carpanter & Burdett's New Improvements. Greatest Success of the Age!

The great increase in the sale of our instruments, has caused us to reduce our prices.

It is by far the most perfect and durable instrument we have ever seen.

We had no idea that a good instrument could be brought to such perfection.

The present quality of listening to its beautiful strains, not only give it their unqualified approval, but enthusiastically exclaim that it is the best instrument of the age.
