or the fiery, communistic Odger, or the impetuous, theatrical Dilke, or the statesman Bright, or the cultivated, conscientious but somewhat vacillating Gladstone, shall either of them or neither lead the English people into the republican fold, it seems pretty certain they will get there before the reigning House of Hanover is very much older. These vexing, haunting problems- of what will constitute the English future will not down at the bidding. They recur at every new phase affairs assume. The illness of the young Prince of Wales surrounded by his weeping family with a whole nation who have no reason to love him or his looking on in sympathy, is almost dramatic in its intense conservative people, and this concorvatism makes them respect the perishing shreds of monarchical rule. They are also a kindly affectioned people. The recollection of the earlier years of Victoria's reign, when the young, pure hearted and enthusiastic sovereign knit the hearts of all Englishmen firmly in loyal devotion to herself and House, yet lingers in England and this devotion though sensibly lessened is strong enough to make itself manifest on the occasion of these sad scenes at Sandringham.

THE PURITY OF THE PUBLIC SER. VICE.

The independent Republicans in the Schurz and Trum bull put the Grant Senators in a flutter.

Now, this subject of the parification of the civil service is the main subject at this time agitating the public, and should well have the preference given it in the legisla-tion of the present Congress. But the base the present congress is the the directly into the fire. If you are constantly talking and thinking about dyspepsia, you will surely have it. Enlast thing the Administration intends doing is to make reforms. Its prominent leaders in Congress have nipped in the bud every movement looking towards retrenchment. Those of the Republican leaders like Messrs, Schurz, Trumbull and contrasted with the magnitude of the conception. Spain under Charles V. was the proud Queen of the nations ; Spain under horse power. Weight, about 18} tons Amadeus is barely mistress of her own reduced possessions. Her sudden flare up, then, with the United States because Mr. Grant, the weak President thereof, has at last waked up to a slight sense of dignity and seems determined to make Spain behave herself, is amusing, very. What does this country care for the four thousand additional troops sent to Cuba? If we cared to, we could annex the "Ever Faithful Isle," with her thousands of mixed bloods and simon pure African barbarians. But as we have some of this sort of citizens of our own to spare, it would be interest. The English are eminently a better to postpone the luxury of annexation a lew years.

Dyspepsia.

If a man wishes to get rid of dyspepsia he must give his stomach and brain less to do. It will be of no service for him to follow any particular regimen-to live on chaff-bread, or any such stuff-to weigh his food, &c., so long as the brain is in a state of constant excitement. Let that have proper rest, and the stomach will perform its functions. But it he pass 14 or 15 hours a day in his office or counting room, and take no exercise his stomach will inevitably become paralyzed, and if he put nothing into it but a cracker a day, it will not digest it. In many cases it is the brain that is the primary cause. Give

The omnibus weighs about 84 tons, and is scated for 21 people inside, 44 outside-total, 65. The description given of the adventure of the travellers is very amusing. At Stowmarket the town pump would not supply sufficient water for the monster, and at Newmarket the engineer was refused water at the waterworks. At Ely a guide was engaged to pilot the machine across the fens to Peterborough, and this person contrived to lose his way about ten miles from Ely, and to bring his charge to the brink of a 40-foot SILK POPLINS, REPS, river. Outside Wooler, near the borders, a toil man refused to allow a passage, and steam power had to be applied to his gates. before the Raves could proceed. The ento-day.

How Ha Klux Witnesses are Bought In the trial of J. W. Avery, at Columbia, S. C., on the 13th inst., the chief, witness for the government was Kirkwood L. Gunn. He deposed to his "Ku Klux" membership, described "raids" and impli-cated the prisoner in a satisfactory manner. The following is a part of his testimony on cross examination :

I made disclosures to Colonel Akerman at Cartersville, Ga. I went there to tell him. I nevertalked to anybody else about what I knew until I saw Colonel Merrill to suit. Iso staw even has seaved last week in Yorkville.

Q .- Where did you come from when you went to Yorkville about a week ago ? A .- I came from Washington City. I had gone there just to see the city. I had no business there. I did call on Colonel Akerman. We just talked about matters in general. I came from there to York. I had no business there, but I went to see. Colonel Merrill. He told me to come down here as a witness. He did not promise me any money or reward. I did receive $200 m Washington from Colonel Akerman's clerk. I suppose it was to defray my expenses in going to Cartersville. It was sixty miles from where I was living to Cartersville. It would not take that much money. The clerk didn't say for what he paid me the money. He just counted it out to me and I receipted for it. I didn't go to Washington to get the money. I only went there to see the city.

The documents accompanying the Presi-dent's message disclosed a large disbursement from the national treasury for the "secret service fund." It seems to have been found out here what became of $200 of it. ore a star bas anor at so raint notion thit of the
