Christmas nes sid of semilimayor This annual recurring period of foy and festivity passed off in this city without any disturbance or incidents of an unpleasant character to mar the enjoyments peculiar to the season. The burning of powder and the popping of fire erackers commenced soon after 12 o'clock on Sunday night and was continued without intermission until a late hour on Monday night. This was interspersed by the night during the carly part of which Market street presented a very lively appearance. There was, of course, the usual number of John Kooners" on the streets, in ludicrous and fanciful costumes, and the customary routine of singing and dancing peculiar to the "tribe" was kept up from "early morn till dewey eve." A large number of sportsmen and other passed a good portion of the day at the Wilmington Garden where target shooting for turkeys, "chicken disputes," etc., were indulged in and much amusement realized by those inclined to enjoy themselves in that particular way. In the meantime the street cars were, of course, kept unusually busy. Quite a number of the sporting fraternity also repaired to Mr. E. R. Taylor's, at Brunswick Ferry, where target shooting for tarkeys, etc., was participated in and a lively time had. One very encouraging feature of Christmas this year was the fact that everybody seemed to have more money than usual to spend, and the consequence was, that our merchants, confectioners, booksellers and others were pressed to their utmost to comply with the demands of their customers. It was the impression on all sides that the amount of sales this Christmas exceeded any since the
