Local News. The weather was threatening last night. The C. B. Bishop Comedy Combination is in Richmond.

The holidays are over and the work of the year has commenced in earnest. There were only two or three trifling cases before the City Court yesterday.

The pews of St. Mark's (colored Episcopal) Church will be rented for one year, on Wednesday evening next, at the church.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, will be held this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock.

The City Clerk and Treasurer were busy yesterday in paying off the police and the interest on the city bonds, which falls due on the 1st of every January and July.

By advertisement in this issue it will be seen that books of subscription to increase the capital stock of the First National Bank of Wilmington to $300,000 will be opened on the 15th inst.

The "Howard" boys were out with their fine engine, the "Adrian," yesterday afternoon, and gave her a trial at the foot of Dopek street.

A small potato, with the end cut squarely off, is the best arrangement we know of for applying brick-dust to knives, as it keeps it about the right moisture, while the juice of the potato assists in removing stains from the surface.

Robbery. On Tuesday night some one entered the store of Mr. L. E. Johnson, corner of Mulberry and Nutt streets, and stole fifteen fine Pennsylvania hams which were hanging up on the ceiling.

The following officers of Clarendon Lodge No. 2, Knights of Pythias, elected and appointed for the ensuing term, were installed last evening:

A. T. London, V. P. R. S. Ranciffe, W. C. J. C. Haigh, V. C. L. H. DeRosset, R. S. W. L. Jewett, F. S. Berry Gleaves, B. John L. Dudley, G. Tripler Childs, I. S. W. A. Williams, O. S. C. Redd and Jos. H. Hanby, Attendants.

A beautiful assortment of Albums just received at VANORDELL'S.

"Left Him With the Bag to Hold." A colored man, answering to the name of Judge Bolden, and hailing from Brunswick county, was arrested for larceny, yesterday afternoon, on a warrant issued by W. H. Merriek, J. P.

Bolden's own statement is to the effect that he came to the city with a lot of moss to sell, and that he disposed of it to Mr. D. A. Smith. Subsequently he went into a store on Front street and was standing inside the door when he was approached by a man with a pistol and a bottle in his hand, which he requested him (Bolden) to hold for him.

After the Lodge had been dedicated, D. G. Master, W. J. Yopp, proceeded to install the officers for the ensuing term, which was done in the presence of an interested audience, of which ladies made a fair proportion.

The dedicatory services were performed under the direction of Deputy Grand Master W. J. Yopp, of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. Past Grand Thos. H. Howey acted as Grand Warden, Past Grand Master W. S. G. Andrews as Grand Marshal, Past Grand Jno A. Nicholson as Grand Herald, and Past Grand R. H. Jones, John Sholar, J. C. Wood and A. J. Yopp as Grand Heralds of the North, South, East and West, in the order named.

Past Grand Geo. H. Kelly, Grand Chaplain. Past Grand Master Wm. L. Smith, Chairman of the Building Committee, delivered the hall to the Deputy Grand Master. After prayer by the Chaplain and music from the choir, the ceremonies proceeded, and were conducted with all due solemnity to the close, after the impressive ritual of the Order.
