IMPROVEMENT OF OUR HARBOR.

The January report of the committee from the Chamber of Commerce on the condition of the work going on near New Inlet makes a cheerful exhibit, although on account of the holidays very little work had been done.

The Irish are tired of English misrule. They want home government. Ever since the adventurous English knight of Henry II. crossed over and effected the conquest of this brave but unfortunate people, the Irish have groined under the British yoke.

The true policy of the Queen's government is to place Ireland entirely under English surveillance; she is able to manage her own affairs as she pleases.

The conspicuous importance of this work upon the future of Wilmington, the large increase it promises in the business of the port, the direct and particular interest every merchant in the place should feel in it, afford sufficient cause for the attention this paper will give to the subject.

There was a torchlight procession at Beaufort, N. C., on Saturday night last. It was gotten up by the colored people.

The fish trade of New England amounts to $10,000,000 a year.

Colonel John S. Mosby has been appointed and confirmed Adjutant General of the Maryland militia.

A large plate glass factory is about to be established at Columbia, Ga., by a St. Louis company.

A Ride for Life.

A passenger train on the Oregon and California railroad was lately running at the height of its speed near Salem, Oregon, in order to make up time as it was a few minutes behind.

The woman, bearing the peculiar death whistle of the locomotive, looked over her shoulder and saw the train rushing at her. She did not shriek nor faint, nor give up all hope.

The shrieking of the locomotive's whistle made the passenger to look out of the windows, and upon their discovering what was the matter, the wildest excitement ensued.
