THE ACQUISITION OF CUBA. The resolution introduced into the United States Senate by General Blair on Monday directing the President to open nego trations with the Spanish Government for the purchase of Cuba, whether acted on or not, is a foreshadowing of the policy. likely to be adopted by our Government:

For years there has been a strong desire on the part of our people to annex Cuba, and we may say an equally strong desire on the part of the Cubans to be annexed to the United States. Whether an incorporation of several millions of sable citizens into the "grand brotherhood of the Union," as spouting orators are so fond of declaiming, will be beneficial to the politics of the country may well be doubted by those who have watched the workings of reconstruction in our Southern States. But "Manifest Destiny" stifles all prudential considerations, and we drift on silently into the great American Empire of the future. Well, if we are to have a King, let his dominious be as ample as those of the monarchs of ancient Persia and Rome-let his sway be continental, from pole to pole, and include all of the isles of the ocean, from Prince William's to Terra del Fuego.

TME JANUS-FACED PARTY. The Radical party is double-faced. In the President's Message, we have a warm recommendation of the policy of amnesty. In the debates on the subject in Congress we have the President's buglemen, including his prophet and month-piece, Mr. Morton, taking strong ground against pardoning "rebels." Thus they seek to play two tunes at the same time on the glorious Government organ. The President talks amnesty for Buncombe and votes, with the udderstanding that Morton in the Senate is to denounce " mercy to rebels as cruelty to future generations." Ob, these sleek faced hypocrites! How long will the honest masses be gulled by

Let the band play " Hail to the Chief of rogues and women insulters!" A Monument for ex-President Harri-

From the prolific press of the Harpers we have just received a book of remarkable power and learning, and devoted to an object worthy of a work of such scope and dignity. Its title is Physiology of the Soul and Instinct as distinguished from Ma-ANY OTHER DAILY NEWSPAPER PUB- terialism; and its author is Dr. Martyn Paine, Professor in the Medical Department of the University of New York. The various titles and other tokens of distinction conferred upon the eminent anthor, which are enumerated upon the title page, will sufficiently reveal to the uninformed reader the distinguished source of this truly great work.

Of this work of Dr. Paine it is perhaps sufficient to say that it is a book of predigious power, a splendid vindication of Christian truth against its most formidable assailants, the Savans and scientists, and an auxiliary which the Church of Christ may appropriately hail for its most opportune appearance. In the preface, Dr. Paine explains the raison detre of the volume as a desire "to afford reliable evidence of the existence of the Soul as an independent, self-acting, immortal and spiritual essence." In frequent passages of similar import, the learned author avows his purpose to so strengthen the humble believer that he can feel qualified to cope with the most insidious and ingenious of the enemies of his faith, even upon their chosen ground—the domain of earthly science. We should think this book invaluable to clergymen and of great interest to other thinking and reading Christians.

of the Bar that one of these bodies is illegal. As Mr. Stokes' counsel have not de-cided whether to plead to the indictment or demur, it is quite probable that a new indictment will be found after one of the Grand Juries shall have been discharged. There is some interesting if not startling | Above all, rear, rile, rip, flip, gnash, gash, positions taken for the defence. The one is that Col. Fisk was not only armed, but that the wound in his body was inflicted by himself—inflicted a la Vallandigham by himself—inflicted a la Vallandigham
—in attempting to draw his pistol from circus at Opelika, Ga. By advice of lawhis pocket. That two pistols were used is yers he refused to pay the "city tax" on very clear, from the fact that two bullets the ground that the present mayor and were found, one in Fisk's body, and one aldermen came into office illegally and on the marble pavement, the one bullet fitting the pistol found and the other not. The bullet in the body fitting the pistol Capt. F. M. Dunbar went his security and found, the bullet on the floor, which produced the wound in the arm, not fitting ing the money about 7 o'clock, by direc-any pistol yet produced. The theory is that Fisk, coming in at the door and see- one of the circus horses in charge. Rice that Fisk, coming in at the door and seeing Stokes on the stairs, attempted to draw his pistol, when it accidentally discharged at the same moment when he received Stokes' builet in the arm. The parties who removed the outside clothing of the Colonel are yet to be produced in court. The woman who handed the pistol to the Montgomery without his animal. officer is yet to tell how it came into her Rands, with other interesting testimony to show that Stokes didn't fire on an unarmed man. But two persons witnessed the shoot-ing. These were two ball-boys of the Central Hotel, who were either so frightened that they did not know what was going on, or deliberately perjured themselves, as they flatly contradicted each other and their own testimony on the stand. In the proper time and before the proper tribunal, the action of the Coroner's ary will be tested. Above all, the proceedings of the jury in consultation will be investigated. One man on the jury was not summoned. He came unsolicited. He said that he was on the Matthews inquest, understood such matters, and want-ed to go on the jury; so he sat at the inquest. He was found to be a special enemy of Stokes, and pledged to look after the interest of Colonel Fisk. On entering the room for constitution, the jury were presented with a verdict, drawn out in the strong form of an indictment, in which the shooting was set forth as killing with malice aforethought' and other well-known phrases of an indictment. On this verdict the jury were divided, six and six. The gentleman refered to, acting as counsel, insisted upon the adoption of the verdict with its strong phrases as the only thing that would satisfy an indignant public. Others contended that the object of the inquest was not to try Stokes-not to anticipate his defence, but simply to ascertain how Fisk came to his death. The debate lasted over three hours, and ended in a compromise by which the word 'deliberate' was added to the simple phraseology of the verdict."

A Chinese Wedding in Oregon. LeYuek, the chief Chinese manufacturer of cigars in Portland, Oregon, recently imported a wife from his native country, and wedded her with great display. . Atter the ceremony had been performed at the Joss House, the bride and her waiting maids were driven to the residence of her lord and master, on First street, where her husband, who had preceded her, received the party by firing a feu de joie, composed of a quantity of crackers of the largest size. The bride was at once disrobed by her attendants and put to bed, while the groom received his friends and entertained. groom received his friends and entertained them in a becoming manner, causing them to smoke clgars, eat sweetmeats, and drink wines and sham shuey. In the evening a feast of roast pig, duck, game, and all the delicacies known to the Chinese cuisine was served in the chamber of the bride, who, robed in an claborate robe de nuit, and reclining on her couch, received her guests with a bland, lanquid smile.—
Down in the shop the groom was doing the agreeable to his guests after they had been dismissed by the lady of the house.
He wore a happy, don't-care-for-the-expense sort of a smile, and would every few minutes fire off a cracker. The festivities were kept up until a late hour of the night, and then, with the burning of an-other bunch of crackers, the guests were dismissed and silence reigned.

The Davenport Brothers lately gave some of their psychic exhibitions at Ithaca, N. Y., but their tricks were sadly disarranged by some of the Cornell University fellows. A private letter tells us that some of the students, having a scientific turn of mind, provided themselves beforehand with pyrotechnic balls containing to advertise in one of the daily papers that all hand with pyrotechnic balls containing phosphorous, so made as to ignite suddenly with a bright light. During the dark scances, when the Davenports purported to be, and as the audience supposed were, bound hand and foot within their closet or cabinet, and when the guitar was floating in the air and playing musically around, the aforesaid students struck their lights all of a sudden, when the "spirits" were found to be no others than the Day. were found to be no others than the Dav-enports themselves, who were dodging departed from Ithaca by the earliest train.

The deceased Colonel Fisk's love of fun heard the news, came hurriedly and sym-pathetically to his bedside saying to How without any alarm being given. Coroner is it with you, my dear boy?
