Condensed from the Raleigh Sentinel.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Jan 31. The Senate was called to order at the usual hour, Mr. President Warren in the Chair, PRIVATE BILLS. The calendar of private bills being the special order was proceeded with.

The following bills and resolutions passed their second and third readings, or were otherwise disposed of: The bill to repeal an act to amend an act to extend the corporate fimits of the town of Kinston. Laid on the table. The bill to incorporate the Wilmington Ship Canal Company.

The bill to repeal section 3, private laws of 1866, relative to the town of Kinston, was laid on the table. On motion of Mr. McClammy the bill providing for cumulative suffrage for the city of Wilmington was postponed till

Friday evening at 74 o'clock.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Jan. 30. The Senate met at the usual hour, President Warren in the chair. Mr. McClammy, a blil supplemental to matters not to me," said he, "I would eat it the act to incorporate the Dawson Bank. Referred.

THE MARRIAGE BALL.

The marriage bill, the unfinished business, was resumed, the question being on the 27th section. One of the provisions of this section, as a clause of dissolving marriage, is that "if either party shall abandon the other without just cause, and live separate for three years continuously." Mr. Allen supported the provision but proposed to compromise by making a separation for three years presumptive of Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend in accordance with Mr. Allen's suggested compromise, and it was adopted. Thirty eighth section read. An amendment of the committee proposing that if either party shall become impotent from divorce, was unanimously rejected. On motion of Mr. Graham of Orange, the act is to go into effect 1st July, 1872. The several sections having been adopted the bill passed its second reading-21

The Senate concurred in the House amendments to the bill to exchange the stocks of the State for bonds with which such stocks were obtained. Mr. Lehman asked to be permitted to state the line of conduct certain Senators proposed to pursue in regard to the proposed election-that they proposed to protest against the election. Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, objected.

The President announced that, objection being made, Mr. Lehman could not proceed.

Mr. Flemming put in nomination Gen. M. W. Ransom.

There being no further nominations, The President appointed Messrs. Mc Clammy and Flythe to superintend the election.

The Senate proceeded to ballot. Every Conservative present voted for Gen. Ransom, with Mr. Flythe (Rep.) of Northampton. All other of the Republicaps present refused to vote. Mr. McClammy from the committee appointed to superintend the election reported as follows: Whole number of votes cast 32, of which Gen. M. W. Ransom received 32-a majority of the Senators present. .

The report was received. HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE. The special order, the bill to establish a hospital for the insane near Wilmington, was put upon its passage.

Mr. Olds opposed the bill. Mr. Linney moved to amend by providing for a similar institution at Statesville. Mr. McClammy advocated the bill.

Mr. Skinner moved the previous question. Not agreed to. Mr. McClammy moved to recommit to the Committee on the Insane Asylum.

Adopted. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, Jan. 30, 1872. House called to order at 10 o'clock. On motion of Mr. Regan the bill to prevent fraud in the sale of fertilizers was taken up and passed its second reading, and was, on motion of Mr. McNeill, or-

A Stable Institution .- Just at the period when all stable-men were complaining that the horse-ointments of the day were unstable when all stable-men were complaining that the horse-ointments of the day were unstable remedies, the Mostane Liniment made its by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens. Her readers cannot entree in Missouri, without any flourish of trumpets, and within one year, became the favorite embrocation for the external disempers and injuries of horses and cattle in all he Western and Southern States. From that time to this, it has never had a rival in the estimation of accomplished horsemen; nor is its household reputation as a cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore nipple and caked breasts, tumors, mumps, sore throat, earache, too hache, bruises, burns, wounds and sprains a whit behind its celebrity as a horse Liniment. The Mothers of America know its value, and apply it promptly to the external injuries of the "rising generation," and in fact there is not a city or township in the United States where the MUSTAKE LINIMENT is all he Western and Southern States.
