- The hands on the city clock were frozen t yesterday morning.

- No Raleigh papers last night, consequentour usual Legislative Summary is omitted.

- Yesterday was a dark, gloomy, dismal, dreary, drizzley, sloppy, cold, ancomfortable and disagreeable day.

- During the month just closed the butchers of this city slaughtered 236 beeves, 498 hoge, 6 sheep, 4 calves and 7 deer.

- A light snow fell yesterday mornings between 2 and 3 o'clock, nearly covering the ground. It was followed by rain and sleet.

- In the Superior Court, to-day, the civil docket will be called and cases set for trial during the coming week. Nothing of interest transpired yesterday.

- The Schooner E. D. Endisott, from New York, brought 250 tons of iron for the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. We learn that other cargoes are on the way.

-The mail for Westbrook Postoffice, Bladen county, is now sent by the river route instead. of by railroad, and Capt. James Evans, of Robeson's Landing, has received the appointment of Postmaster.

- Drivers of drays should be restrained from driving so rapidly through the streets. Some of them, when they get on a street that has been sawdusted, go at a pace that is absolutely dangerous, especially at a crossing, to the children that are constantly passing.

-At the hour of going to press last night the train on the Wil., Char. and Rutherford any one that it has no equal as a medium of Railroad, due here at half past 3 o'clock, had communication with the people of the rural not arrived. There was problably a heavy sleet or snow up the road yesterday, which may have caused the delay.

By a correspondence in another column it will be seen that Prof. Grabau; will give a concert at the Opera House on Wednesday evening next, the 7th inst. There is every reason why the people of Wilmington should respond handsomely and liberally on this occasion." Since Prof. G.'s arrival among us he has time and again been called upon to assist in entertainments for benevolent and other purposes; and he has always readily and cheerfully complied. Now that he is about to leave us, as intimated in the correspondence alluded to, let our citizens testify their appreciation of what he has done for them by giving him a large audience on the occasion of his complimentary benefit. He will be assisted by able amateur talent, comprising several splendid vocalists, who will appear for the first time before a Wilmington audience.

Another Robbery.

On Thursday night, about 12 o'clock, the policeman on the beat located on South Water, between Market and Dock streets, discovered one of the front doors to the store of Messrs. Heide Bros. open, with no sign of any one about the premises. A messenger was immediately sent for Mr. R. E. Heide, the police in the meantime guarding the store. Upon his arrival he found that a considerable quantity of tobacco and cigars, together with a lot of candy and raisins, had been stolen. Mr H. says he cannot estimate with any degree of certainty the amount of his loss, but it was considerable. The police report that they found a 1 ghted candle on the floor behind one of the counters, in such a position that it would in all probability, if it had not been so opportunely discovered, set fire to the store. The thief or thieves also attempted to prize open the money drawer in the office, there being evidences to show that a piece of sharp iron had been used for that purpose. In this, however, they were not successful. Mr. Heide thinks it probable that the thief was secreted in the store when he closed it for the night.

A Stable Institution .-- Just at the period when all stable-men were complaining that the horse-ointments of the day were unstable remedies, the MUSTANG LINIMENT made its entree in Missouri, without any flourish of trumpets, and within one year, became the favorite embrocation for the external distempers and injuries of horses and cattle in all the Western and Southern States. From that time to this, it has never had a rival in the estimation of accomplished horsemen; nor is its household reputation as a cure for nor is its household reputation as a cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore nipple and caked breasts, tumors, mumps, sore throat, earache, too hache, bruises, burns, wounds and sprains a whit behind its celebrity as a horse Lini-ment.
