A Young Lady Blown from a Railroad rain at Harlem-She is Suppo ed to be Fatally Injured.

When the funeral train which left the New Haven railroad, depot at a quarter past 12 o'clock yesterday, bearing the remains of Le Grand Lockwood, stopped, as is the custom, before crossing the bridge at Harlem, a young lady, who had been waiting near the bridge, was seen stepping on board. She then attempted to enter a ear, but was unable to do so, as the doors were locked. None of the train hands being in sight, the young lady was compelled to remain on the platform while the train was crossing the Harlem river, the wind meantime blowing furiously. The train had not proceeded more than a hundred yards beyond the Wercester county end of the bridge when the unfortunate young lady either fell or was blown off the train, which was then rapidly attaining full speed. One of the bridgetenders saw the accident, and, taking the unconscious lady in his arms, carried her iato the hotel near by. A brakeman on the train, it appears, saw her fall, and the train was stopped after running a short distance. Some of those on board the train who saw the injured young lady at once recognized her as the daughter of Rev. Dr. Rogers, pastor of the South Reformed church, who had officiated at the mortuary rites is his church a short time previously, and who was then on his way to Norwalk with the fureral cortege, I seems that the young lar'y had been on a visit E ist, and, without apprising her parents, came down, intending to join her father and mother at the bridge and proo'clock yesterday atternoon Miss Rogers remained in a state of semi consciousnes, fears being entertained that her injuries would terminate fatally .- New York Her-

The landlord surveys me with a look of picy as I enter he has heard all about it and I sneak off to bed as soon as possible. No one attends me to the depot in the morning to see me off, and I overhear a rude fellow tell another on the platform, as f am about to step into the cars, 'If that fraud ever comes to this town again he'll get a head put on him.""

We have just received the following particulars of a terrible and bloody affray to the main body on the fourth day. He found them encamped on the banks of the river Aranca, and at once a tacked them. I be that Captain Little, an old and well known citizen, bad a difficulty the day previous with a man by the name of Tartt, awing him a sound thrashing. The next ring him a sound thrashing. The next extent with monstrous crocodiles and poisextent with monstrous crocodiles and poistony Captain Little rode in town, and faril, exasperated by the whipping which had received, approached Little and reministed. You had the advantage of memistrous rote, and the men as they attempted to swim across were seized by these monsters, who seemed more intent on slaughter than aught else. In a tew minutes the river was swarming with reptiles, and many bodies of soldiers, frightfully mutilated, were seen floating about or strewed on the banks. Among the lost was Gen. Olivo, who it was thought, was drowned. Gen. Herrara's army was entirely destroyed.

Ex-Secretary Seward on the Treaty of

An interviewer from the New York
Herald visited Secretary Seward at Auburn Wednesday, and elicited his opinion | derthem on the Washington treaty. Mr. Seward, according to the statement as given, considers that a great omission exists in the present treaty in that it does not insist upon an apology by Eogland for the Queen's proclamation; but that war with THOUSAND MUSICIANS, sent free. present treaty in that it does not insist England is impossible, and that the time MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO., for the settlement of Alabama claims has 154 Tremontst, Boston. 596 Broadway, N. Religion and Rath ond Kings. The Rev. Geo. H. Hepworth has stimu lated subscriptions to the amount of over $100,000 for his new church in Brooklyn, New York. It is to be of iron, in what goes by the same of Tabernacle style, and is to seat 2,500 persons. Among the sub-scriptions are found the names of several railroad kings, who, as the Brooklyn Eagle says, seem recently to have become interested in religious matters, like Fisk, Jr., who "ran" a colored church in New York and paid all its expenses. His grim reason was that-" he supported black Christians because there were no white Christians in New York."

A Canadian Thrust at England. An Ottawa dispatch states that Hon. James Howe condemns the policy of England in withdrawing troops from Canada, and predicts a rupture between the home government and the Dominion if a better understanding is not soon arrived at, jeers the cowardice of England in concentrating its army and navy around the islands of Great Britain, and urges independence as the only course open to Canadians, and asks the people to prepare for separation.
