A RICH WINOW IN THE TOMBS.

ta Amity Street Boarding House gror-Police Court Simplifiy-Lucky Escape from Blackwell's Inland.

[From the New York Sun]

About six months ago Mrs. Jane Curtis and her husband, William Henry Curtis, arived in this city from the Pacific coast, on a pleasure tour. Mr. Curtis was Presideat of one of the leading insurance companies of San Francisco, and was rich. He had not been in the East for twenty, rears. All his old acquaintances had disscars. appeare !, and he knew no one in New York. They took lodgings in the Hoff nun House, and busied themselves in visiting all the notable places, in modern Gotham.

In December Mr. Curtis was stricken with sickness, and died. After his burial his widow, instead of returning to her kome in San Francisco, engaged rooms in a private hoarding house in Amity street. took up her residence there. She erew intimate with another lady $1.00 boarder, who professed the greatest friend ,hip for her. The two were always together. The c'imate of San Francisco is very mild in compatison to our own, and Mrs. Certis, being ignorant of the difference, had not brought sufficiently warm clothing to keep off the cold of a New. York winter. One bitter day (January 24,) wishing to go out of doors for halt an hour, and presuming on her intimacy with the boarder above mention, she borrowed a valuable relvet cloak belonging to her friend dur-

the latter's absence. On Mrs. Curtis's friend's return she missed her cloak. She made her inquiries and was informed that Mrs. Curtis had taken it. Jumping to the conclusion that returning, and calling a policeman had her arrested on a charge of theft. Next morning the poor woman was ar-raigned at the bar of Jefferson Market Police Court, and notwithstanding her Prophet. Two miles from Susquehanna Depot; in Susquehanna county, N. Y., there stands a displified looking building, occupied, it is said, by the Mormon prophet Joe Smith, during the writing of the "Book of Mormon." "Here," said an enthusiast e old hady to a correspondent, "is the very room, and there the very spot, with his face to the setting sun, that the great prophet occupied during the writing of that curious book. There is the door-latch raised thousands of times with his latch ruised thousands of times with his, own hands, and that the table once covered with his manuscript." The family state that the place is visited almost daily by strangers from different parts of the United States, and even Darope, all curious to Election Day Holidays.

In the New York Legislature the oill to make election day a legal holiday has been favorably reported by the judiciary committee of the Assembly, and its passage is urged by some of the newspapers which seem to think that the business men, and those in their employ, would then give the time to assist in seeing that their vote is respected. The leaving of polling places in charge of rowdies and criminals has cost New York many millions of dollars, and the man, who is cot ready to assist in averting such a result in future is, as the New York Times well says, not only forgetful of one of his highest duties, but is also practicing the worst possible kind of economy.

St. Patrick's Day in New York.

At a meeting of the New York Irish sociefies on Friday evening a motion to invite the negro militia to perform escort. duty on St. Patrick's Day was voted down, and an ardent Fenian, fresh from Ireland, who counseled cutting the throats of Orangemen, was ejected. The meeting formally decided to celebrate St. Patrick's day by a parade on Monday, March 18. The Sixty-Ninth Irish regiment will ac-Mrs. Curtis was a thief, sue hastened to the nearest police station to lodge a com-plaint. On her way she met hirs. Curtis and estimable friend of the missionary and the traveler, on sea and land, and no one should travel on our Lakes or Rivers without it.

It has been before the public over thirty years, and probably has a wider and better reputation than any other proprietary medicine of the present day. At this period there are but few unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer ; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally, while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant o. its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands to-day unrivalled by all the great catalogue of family medicines. It is sufficient evidence of its virtues as a standard medicine, to know that it is now used in all parts of the world and that its sale is constantly increasing. No curative agent has had such widespread sale or given such universal satisfaction. It is a purely vegetable compound, and perfectly safe even in unskillful hands. After thirty years trial, is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues, from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Physicians of the first respectability recommend it as a most effectual preparation for the extinction of pain. It is no only the best remedy ever known for Bruises. Cuts, Burns, &c., but for Dysentery or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great cities of India, and other hot climates, it has become the Standard Medicine for all such complaints, as well as for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, and other kindred disorders, For Coughs and Colds, Canker, Asthma, and Rheumatic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing testimony to be an invaluable money, of which she had a large sum in her possession, was worthless as bail, and she had not a friend within three thousand miles to whom she could apply. She was sent to the Tombs and locked up in the same cell with common thieves and prostitutes, the city prison being overcrowded. By means of a liberal use of her funds

she contrived to have a telegraphic dispatch sent to a friend of her family, a wealthy and respected merchant of San Francisco, detailing the circumstances of her cruel incarceration, and begging his her cruci incarceration, and begging his assistance. Instantly he took an Eastern bound train, but was enowed in and de-tain d for many days, delaying his arrival in this city until yesterday morning. He hurried to Jefferson Market and was directed to the Tombs. Then he learned that the case was called on the 14th of February and dismissed, the complainant not appearing. 新小王王治林族

An Earthquake Shock.

About 4 o'clock, yesterday morning, many of our citizens were awakened by the jurring of the houses, rattling of the windows, and a loud noise resembing a roll of thunder, which seemed to comeand Georgia Railroad buildings, it seemed as it some heavy, solid mass had been cast against the structure, or two ponderous masses had come in contact, the concus sion causing the building, which is very long, to creak and strain. From reports of residents at Powell's Station, on the Knoxville and Obio Railroad, ten miles from the city, the shock seems to have been heavier than it was in this immediate neighborhood, one gentleman declaring that he believed it had started all the shingles on the roof of his hou e from their fastenings.—Knoxville (Tenn.) Herald, February 27.

A Mean Woman.

A free woman. Yesterday morning a lady from the East, while crossed from the Great Western depot to the Detroit and Milwäckee road to go. West, dropped her pocket-book in the depot at Windsor, and made outcry enough to scare every one within a block. A ragged Hule hoy, with his hair sticking up through an old hat, and his toes peep-ing out of his boots, came forward, with the pocket-book, which be had found. It tood officials, $7,000 in bonds, $7,000 road officials, $7,000 in bonds, $7,000 in notes and $1,000 in greenbacks, mak-ing its cash value to her as good action was always sure to bring a good reward. The boy jerked off his old hat, thanked her, and rap off to buy ten cords of wood was a barrel of flour and other stuff to last his widewed mether until Spring. He's going to look for pocket-books all the rest of the winter, and when he finds another, he's going to hand it right over-probably. Detroit Free Press.

solid mass fourteen feet wide, in continuous layers like roofing slate, and is dug out in large square blocks, which may be split up into innumerable pieces. The only other mica mine known to exist in the United States is in North Carolina.

•A gang of burglars met with a singular mishap in Manchester, Ohio, a few nights since. Eleven in number they went at midnight to rob the First National Bank. Entering the building with a false kcy they proceeded to open the door of the safe with powder. While lighting the fuse a spark fell upon a keg of powder which they had brought; and an explosion of unexpected proportions speedily followed. Two men were killed outright, and another had a leg fearfully mangled. The others escaped, but all except two of them have since been captured. With one exception the burglars were residents of the county, where for seven years they have been committing depredations.

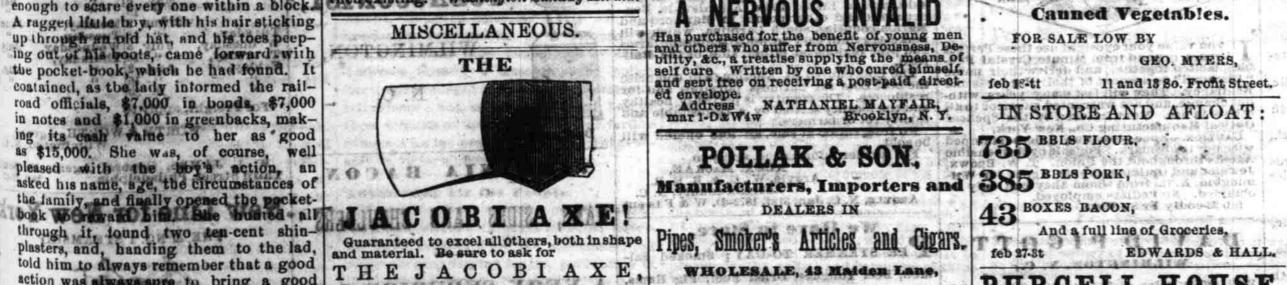

Electing Postmasters.

The plan of electing postmasters by the people, now agitated in Congress, has been several times urged, and has generfrom the northeast and go away to the ally been received with favor whenever southwest. That the strange noise was discussed. The New York Tribune, the shock of an earthquake is the general speaking in lavor of the change, argues impression. The same mysterious noise that it would only be reasonable to perand jarring were remarked in different mit the people who must use the postplaces in the vicinity of the city. To the offices to choose the person who is to serve inmates of the East Tennessee, Virginia them. To make the postmaster elective and Georgia Railroad buildings, it seemed would be to cut off a large and faithful source of official corruption.

The Desire for Children.

While some people are distressed over the number of their "responsibilities," their are others still more micrable, be-cause they have none at all. We observe that onits that quite a struggle is going on in New Orleans for the possession of a little one left some nights ago on the steps of a Oatholic priest. One gentlemen offers one thousand dollars for it to the city, while Various various amounts are bid by others. One of the env papers proposes to put up the prize to the highest bidder, the amount to be settled on the child, and, with accounts interest, be paid to it on its arrival at full age.—Savannak Republican.
